NEWS AND NOTES

It was the largest comeback ever in the 105 meetings of the Apple Cup and allowed Washington St to avoid a winless Pac-12 season. If you look at the stats, it's surprising that WSU had to rally and force OT as they had 25-17 FD and 369-269 yd edges for the gm. WSU was not only playing without WR Marquess Wilson, of course, but also DE Travis Long who missed the first game of his entire college career. WSU was SOD on 4&2 at the UW43 on its first series then drove 75/14pl but settled for a 21 yd FG after a 1&gl at the 6, 3-0. They were int'd at their own 20 and UW got a td 3pl later. WSU went 81/10pl for a td, 10-7 at the half with a 183-96 yd edge. UW took its first 3Q poss 89/13pl for a td then rec'd a fmbld and went 16/4pl, its 2nd td drive of 20 yds or less. WSU was int'd at the UW31 but UW went 3&out. Then WSU fmbld at its own 28 and UW ret'd it the 7. They had a td 3pl later, 28-10, their 3rd drive of less than 20 yds. WSU went 75/10pl and 47/4pl for tds then 42/9pl but on 3&1 fired inc and settled for a 45 yd FG to tie it with 1:59 left. UW went 58/8pl on one of their best drives but missed a 35 yd FG. On the first play of OT, UW's Price was being chased and had to throw it away but

DT Pole caught it and ret'd it all the way down to the 5 but couldn't get in the EZ so WSU started on the 25. They got a FD to the 9 and nailed a 27 yd FG for the win...Louisville potentially had a big game vs Rutgers for the BE Title on deck and fortunately for them, RU lost which kept those dreams alive. This was a contest Connecticut led almost the entire game but UL scored with :21 left in regulation to force OT. UC QB Whitmer was inj'd after hitting 7-21-72 and McEntee, in relief, hit just 2-7-20. UL finished with a 401-241 yd edge. Both teams were off a bye and UC did have a 160-88 yd edge at the half. The first 4 poss were punts before UC went 51/8pl for 39 yd FG. After 3 punts UC went 66/10pl for a td, 10-0. UL went on a 43/14pl drive to the UC22 but after B2B sks punted on 4&25. The 3Q opened with 5 punts. UC was int'd at its 35 but UL missed a 46 yd FG after gaining 6 yds. UL went 75/11pl and got a 19 yd FG after a 1&gl at the 2, 10-3 (11:40). UL was SOD on 4&10 at UC46 (6:29) and UC got 1 FD and punted with 3:01 left. UL went 92/13pl and got a 6 yd td pass to force OT. Each team got a 37 yd FG in the 1st OT and a td in the 2OT then Bridgewater was int'd in the 3OT on 3&gl from the 6 and UC got a 30 yd FG... TCU was playing on Thanksgiving for the first time since 1928 and upset T-day veteran Texas on the road. The key to the game was turnovers as UT had a 4-1 TO deficit. UT finished the game with 22-15 FD and 300-299 yd edges but TCU did have a 217-86 rush edge. On UT's opening drive, Ash was int'd at the TCU6. On their 3rd drive, from the TCU18, Ash was int'd at the 2. Down 7-3, UT gave TCU a cheap td before the half when Ash was sk'd and fmbld back at his own 16 with 2:45 left. TCU went 16/3pl for a td and led 14-3 despite only having a 176-150 yd edge. UT got a short FG on its 1st poss of the 3Q, but TCU got 18 and 41 yd FG's to lead 20-6. McCoy came in with 9:47 left but UT was SOD at the TCU36 on 4&3. UT took over with 5:58 left and went 82/9pl for an 8 yd td run by Hills with 3:07 left. UT forced a 3&out and took over with 1:44 left. McCoy got a 13 yd run to the 47 but on 18-10 scrambled around and while he could have easily thrown the ball away instead he threw it into a crowd and was int'd at the TCU40 and the Longhorns saw their BCS bowl hopes fall by the wayside.

DISAPPOINTING LATE PHONES CLOSE OUT OUR BEST MONTH

We have been telling you how much we love November, and especially Thanksgiving Weekend. It's more than disappointing to report that not only did we suffer a losing weekend on our Late Phones, it was one of our worst Thanksgiving Exec Weekends in Northcoast's proud history. The College LPS went a combined 2-7 and the NFL 0-2-1 with a Monday Night Play TBD. The poor college performance drops our November College Late Phones to 347-234 60% but somehow the long term record stings on such a poor record for this year. As always, we tell you about the many, many winners we produce. We tell you about our outstanding records throughout the 30+ years we've been in business and you can count on us to let you know when things don't go our way, although that is not the norm around here. Even after a loss, we are looking ahead to next weekend's 19 college games, a full slate of NFL and then on to the post season where we do well consistently (see left). Thank you for your calls on the weekend, for your patronage and for giving us an opportunity to win for you again.

THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, in 1992, Washington's defense vs the rush was rated at a "110" (From 1-100). They faced Colorado and allowed 183 yds rushing and dropped 12 spots in the national rushing defense ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Buffalo run attack and had forecasted the Huskies yielding 225 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating to 112 even though they slipped in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example was Michigan vs Purdue in 1989. Michigan held Purdue to just 45 yards rushing and improved their ratings in rushing defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at a 102 and moved them down to 99, as they should have yielded just 32 yards to an impotent Purdue rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When South Carolina played NC State in 1989, South Carolina QB Todd Ellis was injured on the third play of the game. His backup, who had seen very little action all year, was not prepared and hit on just 4 of 13 passes for 65 yards. The offensive coordinator did not risk any passes. In the national statistics NC State's pass defense MOVED UP 14 NOTCHES. In Phil's Power Ratings they stayed the same, as the low yardage WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the defense.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: In 1989, Ohio St was held to 127 yards passing vs Northwestern. This dropped OSU in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Wildcats in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated the same. Why? OSU rushed for 456 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO PASS & when they did they hit 9 of 11 passes, which is VERY effective. While Northwestern's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH!

There you have it. More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

NORTHCOAST SPORTS PLUS OR MINUS POWER RATINGS

The Power Ratings listed below are not based on the Power Ratings, they are based on last year's final computer power rating numbers with the pluses and minuses from the off season changes factored in. They are then adjusted during the course of the season based on the final score of the games that are played on a weekly basis. The Power Ratings listed below can be used for you as a base power ratings to forecast up coming lines and strength of opponents, etc. Once again, they are not based on Power Plays and they differ from what we have shown in recent years, which has been our actual computer Power Ratings. These are Northcoast Sports Plus or Minus Power Ratings.

2012 COLLEGE POWER PLAYS RANKINGS

Listed below are Northcoast Sports' Power Play Rankings. These Power Play Rankings are unique. Our rankings are unlike any computer ranking, as we take into account the following: Strength of Opponents, Individual Units (Rushing Offense, Rushing Defense, Passing Offense, and Passing Defense) Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edges, and successful Unbalanced Attacks. Regular rankings based solely on numbers DO NOT take into account these factors.

2012 TOUGHEST OPPONENT UNIT'S FACED

WHAT ARE THE TOUGHEST OPPONENT RANKINGS? These rankings go far beyond the NCAA's straight statistical ranking of each team. For example in 2010 Notre Dame ranked #89 in the NCAA in rush defense allowing 170 ypg, but ranked #40 in our rush defense rankings because they faced the toughest schedule of rush offenses in the NCAA LY. As you can see, the NCAA's statistical rankings can be misleading. These are the current rankings for this year.

The Power Plays Newsletter consists of forecasts that are made by a special rating system. You will see in the write-ups that we agree with the majority of the PP forecasts. However, there are times when we will disagree. We want to make it clear that this is the PP Newsletter and these forecasts are based purely on the power ratings. If the PP's rating is strong enough to be a 4★ Play, yet we are on the other side of the game, we will clearly state that we like the other side of the game. With all that said here are this week's PP Selections.

Both teams felt the Orange Bowl pressure in losses last week with Rutgers losing as a 1 pt dog at Pittsburgh while Louisville was in a great spot off a bye yet lost in 3OT as an 11 pt home favorite vs Connecticut. The Scarlet Knights have covered 4 straight at home vs Big East teams but TY despite being 4-1 SU at home they've been outgained here on the season. MAC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
NORTHERN ILLINOIS	179	303	32	+9	✓✓
KENT ST	197	149	25	+20	-

Northern Ill has a slight edge playing here in each of the last 2 seasons. The teams are a combined 16-0 in MAC play and 22-2 overall with Kent St still alive as a BCS Buster. PP has the Huskies with a 482-346 edge but that has been the story with the Golden Flashes as they have already been outgained in 8 games this season. There are times when you don't want to fade either team and this is one of those times.

PAC-12 CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Stanford Stadium • Stanford, CA

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
UCLA	78	211	18	+5	-
STANFORD	202	230	31	+6	✓

The BCS bid will go to the team with a coaching staff that's able to make better adjustments playing the same opponent 6 days apart. While these numbers reflect LW's game, one can't imagine UCLA played anything but a "C" game. Oregon had won earlier in the day so when they took the field a win would have sent them to Autzen and a loss would put them here. Which gives them the best chance to win?

NO PLAY: STANFORD 31 UCLA 18

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
CINCINNATI	102	165	14	+3	-
CONNECTICUT	112	250	11	-12	-

If you love offense look elsewhere, but if you want a solid home dog with the better defense and a yardage edge stop right here. Power Plays is calling for Connecticut to have a 362-267 yard edge. The Huskies have held opponents to 12 ppg and 272 ypg which is almost exactly what PP is calling for, making this a Best Bet.

4★ CONNECTICUT 11 (+) CINCINNATI 14

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
PITTSBURGH	137	261	30	+8	✓✓✓
USF	171	137	21	-14	-

Both teams are clearly disappointed with their season but Pitt is still playing for a bowl bid while USF could clearly be playing their final game under Skip Holtz. If you look at the Panthers offensive numbers their last 3 games you will find that they only averaged 34.1 ypg but now look at their opponents. ND will be playing for a National Championship with our #3 D, they played our #22 D at Conn and LW played Rutgers' #14 D. USF has our #67 D and Pitt makes a bowl in HC Chryst's first season.

4★ PITTSBURGH 30 USF 21

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
OKLAHOMA	77	303	28	-3	✓
TCU	227	185	27	+4	-

PP leans with the home dog but we disagree with this forecast. TCU has lost all 3 Big 12 games at home and is actually getting outscored in conference play. Oklahoma will get a split of the conference title with a win and their offense is playing at almost a video game pace averaging 34 FD's per gm the last 4. We'll pass.

NO PLAY: OKLAHOMA 28 TCU 27

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
TEXAS	149	195	22	+5	-
KANSAS ST	221	177	34	+20	✓

After 2 full seasons of being a dual-threat QB that every opponent focuses on, the body can only take so much. Collin Klein has thrown 258 passes and has run the ball 171 times, taking a beating. In the last 2 games Kansas St put up their 2 lowest totals on the season (311 ypg) with one game vs Baylor's D which is allowing 509 ypg. While Kansas St is off a bye, we lean with the dog and Power Plays agrees on its yardage forecast calling for the Longhorns to only get outgained by 54 ypg.

NO PLAY: KANSAS ST 34 TEXAS 22

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
OKLAHOMA ST	207	330	48	-4	✓✓✓
BAYLOR	216	414	42	+4	-

Our #3 and #4 offenses match up and PP is calling for 1,167 yards and 90 points. So if the offenses are even let's look at the defenses and ST's. The Bears are allowing conference opponents 516 ypg, 4.7 ypc, have a #93 ranking in our pass eff D while having our #61 ST's. The Cowboys are allowing Big 12 teams 436 ypg, 3.6 ypc, have our #38 pass eff D and also have an elite ST's unit ranking #7. OKSt also has series domination on their side winning and covering 6 straight with an avg score of 49-17.

BOISE ST	210	189	37	+17	✓✓✓
NEVADA	223	182	26	-2	-

A few weeks ago this looked like the MW championship game but that has changed, although Boise can grab a piece of it with a win. Nevada LY failed to cover 5 straight before cashing in their regular season finale and into this game they've failed to cover 7 straight. The forecast call for the Broncos to cover by a couple of points but the yards call for Nevada outright (405-399). We'll pass for now and see if UN can cover a 4th straight in this series including knocking #3 Boise from a 2010 BCS game.

KANSAS	195	175	25	-3	-
WEST VIRGINIA	231	358	46	+6	✓✓✓

When you move into a new conference and roll out to a 5-0 start to begin the season not many would expect you to be 6-5 into your Big 12 finale. WV's potent offense hasn't been a question but were you aware they've been outgained on the season giving up 48 ppg and 521 ypg in conference action? The Mountaineers D has been better the last several games and interestingly Power Plays is calling for Kansas to just match its season average. With the line at the number, we'll pass.

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
NEW MEXICO ST	184	200	19	-14	-
TEXAS ST	217	241	35	+6	✓✓

While PP gives Texas St a 458-384 yardage edge and a 16 point victory, we find it extremely hard to back a first year FBS squad as a double digit favorite here and will make this matchup a No Play.

NO PLAY: TEXAS ST 35 NEW MEXICO ST 19

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
MIDDLE TENNESSEE	125	243	23	+12	-
ARKANSAS ST	216	311	34	+6	-

Arkansas St comes into this matchup fresh off a bye and in possession of 6 straight conference wins while the Blue Raiders needed a late IR td to knock off Troy. While the projected score and yards favor the hometown squad here, Middle Tenn has gone 7-3-1 ATS this year and should keep this one close.

LOUISIANA	184	273	39	-4	✓✓✓
FLORIDA ATLANTIC	115	318	30	+1	-

A win or loss here doesn't matter for the Cajuns as they have already accepted a bid to play in the New Orleans Bowl for a second straight year. FAU is off a bye and is an impressive 8-3 ATS under first year head coach Carl Pelini. With the projected score right at the line, we'll move past this matchup with a No Play.

HAWAII	114	217	31	-13	✓✓✓

While Hawaii is 6-12 in regular season home finales, most of those matchups have come against BCS foes. The Warriors are off a big win over UNLV and now get a first year FBS squad travelling here as just a 4 pt dog. UH should finish '12 with 2 consecutive wins.

While Tulsa gets to host this title game they lose some of their home field edge with UCF returning with revenge from playing here two games ago. This forecast is split as the Hurricanes have a forecasted 502-307 yard edge but UCF is projected to win while also having the better ST's. Last year Tulsa only needed to beat Houston in the regular season finale and despite being at home they lost 48-16. No Play.

What happens when you've gone 47-5 the L4Y and won 2 National Championships? Well Vegas makes you a fav of over a td despite your SEC schedule being a cake walk. The Tide only played 2 teams with winning SEC records (LSU and A&M) and got outFD'd in both (18-22 and 17-23). Also, when facing the non-winning teams they allowed 198 ypg BUT vs the other 2 they allowed 428 ypg! Our rankings have Bama's off and def ranked #17 and #1 while Georgia's rankings are #13 & #10 mirroring the PP forecast of Alabama by only 1 with only a 370-330 yard edge.

LU's game puts into perspective how good FSU's D was this season. In a game that could've put them into the BCS, they allowed 258 yds rushing (5.6) but even with that factored in, they are still only allowing 86 ypg and 2.7 ypc on the season. We mention that rush D because they now face the GT option. We'll disagree with the yardage forecast as an elite quality D with tremendous speed can shut the option down. GT has faced 3 teams currently ranked in our top 20 D's (VT #19, BYU #12 and Georgia #10) and the Yellow Jackets were held to 257 TOTAL ypg and only 3.3 ypc. Now they take on their toughest D yet vs Florida St (our #5). We'll make it a 1★ but another FSU AA DE injury may hurt.

PP can not add emotion to its forecast but in the same manner it also doesn't consider a team's record. It matches up player vs player and unit vs unit. When it takes the Huskers spread offense and the Badgers bruising rush attack we get a surprise. Despite only having finishing 3rd in the Leaders Division with a 4-4 B10 record Wisconsin is forecasted to win by 4 with both teams having 350 yards.

POWER PLAYS VS THE NCAA

Many fans are swayed by a team's NCAA rankings, but we are not. We have created a computer program to adjust the numbers and include a team's strength of schedule for both offense and defense. The NCAA rates a team by the total yards per game averaged (for offense) and total yards per game allowed (on D). But remember, we don't look strictly at numbers here, we factor in the strength of opponents faced which should provide you with a more solid ranking of how the team is actually performing.

Power Plays is based upon statistical numbers & rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types statistical information the more numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input. The numbers in parenthesis are a comparison of the teams rankings (Visitor, visitors offense ranking vs home defense ranking, Home home offensive ranking vs visitor defensive ranking) over each teams last 4 games.

(NO #7 vs ATL #10, ATL #4 vs NO #30) - NO's 3 game win streak came to a halt vs SF but they still have a playoff shot thanks to DAL/MIN/TB/SEA all losing. ATL took their 1st loss of the year at NO earlier as WR White didn't fully run his route at the end of the game. PP has this right at the # in a series where 4 of the L5 games have been decided by 4 or less so No Play. Get the Thursday Night Marquee on gameday after 12:00 pm ET by calling your Northcoast Debit Card ($9) or through our office ($12). SEATTLE CHICAGO

109	178	16	+2	#15
160	131	21	+13	#1

(SEA #13 vs CHI #5, CHI #32 vs SEA #11) - CHI dominated the 1H vs MIN LW w/a 16-3 FD 169-92 yd edge in their win but paid a heavy price with 6 starters inc both OG's getting inj'd. A very poor roughing the passer penalty when they secured an int in the end zone that would have ended the game cost SEA a win vs MIA. SEA has played here 4 times in the L3Y but have to deal with their own off the field issues. The injury situation for CHI simply makes this a No Play right now.

Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's

MINNESOTA GREEN BAY

(MIN #23 vs GB #21, GB #24 vs MIN #23) - GB is off their 1st 28 pt loss since late 2008 due to inj's on the OL, OLB & in the secondary as Rodgers had his 1st game with just 1 passing TD since SEA. MIN has gone 5 games with under 300 yds passing as their lack of depth at WR has been compounded by Harvin's ankle injury. PP only gives GB an 88 yd edge here & has a slight lean with the road team but we'll call for a No Play & see how each team's injury situation shakes out.

NO PLAY: PACKERS 32 VIKINGS 24

SAN FRANCISCO ST LOUIS

(SF #16 vs STL #24, STL #12 vs SF #3) - The most impressive stat for Kaepernick's 2 wins is the 10.6 ypc vs CHI & 9.2 ypa vs NO that he's earned. With a bit better athleticism he's also much more aggressive than Smith & defenses don't enough tape on him yet. STL took care of business LW but that was vs a rookie 3rd string QB who had 2 of 4 int returned for TD's. PP calls for an even game in yardage but SF has better depth, is coming off a win vs a better quality of foe, w/a massive spec teams edge making them a play.

ARIZONA NY JETS

(ARZ #28 vs NYJ #12, NYJ #25 vs ARZ #20) - The Jets have had extra time to stew over their loss to NE & regroup. ARZ almost benched Lindley LW as Whisenhunt admitted he already knew what he had with Skelton & the tm is just biding time until they can evaluate Kolb. The real issue with the Jets isn't Sanchez (who has warts) or Rex, its the lack of talent at the skill positions supporting him. PP calls for only a 25 yd diff here & while it leans with the home team there isn't enough margin so No Play.

CAROLINA KANSAS CITY

(CAR #20 vs KC #13, KC #30 vs CAR #9) - CAR is off their 1st MNF game since 2009 & are likely to be a small AF here for the 2nd time TY. CAR actually avg's 50 yds more on offense & 70 yd less on defense away vs home (6.3 ppg less allowed). KC has gone 7 straight games with under 200 net yards passing & have just 3 offensive TD's in their L81 drives vs 20 3&outs. No line & not seeing the MNF game makes this a No Play on the side but take a small look at the total here.

INDIANAPOLIS DETROIT

(IND #5 vs DET #25, DET #3 vs IND #22) - DET actually played rather well vs HOU but were done in by the rule book. They have played a far tougher sked than IND has TY & their lack of wins vs playoff teams will be a focus for Schwartz. IND has given up 41, 27 & 59 to high powered passing teams & this is a tough matchup on the road vs an angry team here. Only KC has a worse TO margin than IND right now. PP has this right at the line though with only 71 yds for the home team making it a No Play.

JACKSONVILLE BUFFALO

(JAX #14 vs BUF #7, BUF #17 vs JAX #32) - The Jags have become a competitive team with Henne the L2 games which are 2 of the 3 highest scoring tilts in their L27 games. BUF has plenty of film on Henne from his time with MIA so they have an edge in tendencies. PP gives BUF a 149 yd edge here (#3 TW) but not enough margin for a play vs a team that is 0-5-1 ATS off a SU win.

NO PLAY: BILLS 26 JAGUARS 19

Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
109	308	40	+24	#5
107	316	21	-10	#11

NEW ENGLAND MIAMI

(NE #1 vs MIA #18, MIA #26 vs NE #29) - We aren't concerned by the fact that NE isn't forecasted to have a big yardage edge as the Patriots have given up lots of yards the L2Y. They do have the #9 scoring def over the L4W along with extra time to study a rookie QB off a misleading final LW thanks to the refs. The TO difference is huge & NE is only giving up 3.9 ypc on the ground TY. Belichick is taking the same scorched earth tactics on offense that's he did in '07 to make up for his defensive issues this year. Look for them to jump out to a big lead & put the pressure firmly on the young QB.

HOUSTON TENNESSEE	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
	128	229	28	+8	#24
	128	226	24	-4	#4

(HOU #2 vs TEN #15, TEN #21 vs HOU #26) - HOU was exhausted at the end of the DET game but the defense should be refreshed here. They can't afford to overlook the Titans at all here as while they have a 1.5 game lead over BAL for the top AFC seed they have a huge game vs NE on deck. PP has this right at the line with only a 3 yd edge to HOU making it a No Play.

NO PLAY: TEXANS 28 TITANS 24

Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's

TAMPA BAY DENVER

(TB #6 vs DEN #4, DEN #8 vs TB #28) - DEN had a bit of trouble with KC LW allowing RB Charles to rush for 107 yds (4.7) when they declared him the focus prior to the game. TB RB Martin may have avg'd 175 ypg (6.7) in his L3 road games but DEN's defense is deeper than MIN/OAK/CAR. PP gives DEN the 2nd biggest yardage edge of the week (+205) here with margin making them the play as the are 5-1 ATS as a single digit fav in 2012.

3★ BRONCOS 31 BUCS 21

Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's

PITTSBURGH BALTIMORE

(PIT #29 vs BAL #8, BAL #18 vs PIT #1) - BAL is in the drivers seat for the AFC North thanks to a questionable spot by refs vs SD LW. PIT is a shell of itself without Roethlisberger who is expected to practice this week to see if he can manage the pain. BAL is only 2-6 ATS at home but PIT's injury situation makes this a No Play.

NO PLAY: RAVENS 20 STEELERS 11

CLEVELAND OAKLAND

(CLE #31 vs OAK #31, OAK #9 vs CLE #2) - While CLE did force 8 TO's LW its worth noting that they only scored 17 pts off them. OAK has given up 21 TD's on 51 drives over the L4W as the worst CB situation coming into the season has only gotten worse. Richardson has finally gotten healthy as he's avg'd 26 rush att's the L4W (3.8) & gets an OAK def allowing 166 ypg rush (5.8) over the L5W. There is no line due to Weeden (concussion) & with CLE being off a big win LW we'll temper the grade despite the margin.

CINCINNATI SAN DIEGO

(CIN #10 vs SD #16, SD #22 vs CIN #6) - CIN is 1 game out of the Wild Card & while they have won 3 straight it was vs a tired NYG looking ahead to the bye, the lowly Chiefs & OAK at home with Palmer. SD has blown 3 straight winnable games in one fashion or the other & the big matchup to watch is their depleted OL vs the CIN DL. PP leans with CIN but doesn't give them enough yds after a big win for ownership to go on the road vs an angry Chargers squad that is more talented than their record.

PHILADELPHIA DALLAS

(PHI #19 vs DAL #27, DAL #11 vs PHI #19) - PHI is off LW's MNF vs CAR without Vick or RB McCoy & now they travel to DAL who was blasted at home on national TV. DAL's issues are the injuries on the OL & at LB along with the inconsistent play at WR. DAL needs a win to stay in the hunt for a Wild Card while PHI is down to the role of spoiler in 2012. No line due to MNF means No Play

NY GIANTS WASHINGTON

(NYG #27 vs WAS #17, WAS #15 vs NYG #14) - The Giants are off a dominating win vs GB & get a 2nd chance at RG3 who earned their respect in the 1st game. WAS has played themselves back into the playoff chase thanks to their QB & an improving defense. Can the Giants lockdown the NFC East with 4 tough games on deck? PP has this at the line making it a No Play.
