THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 spots in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide run attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating to 112 even though they slipped in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example last season was Wisconsin vs UTEP. Wisconsin held UTEP to just 77 yards rushing and stayed the same in the overall defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at 15 and moved them down, as they should have yielded just 50 yards to a weak UTEP rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFr), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Northcoast's PR they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the D.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last

2013 TOUGHEST OPPONENT UNIT'S FACED

WHAT ARE THE TOUGHEST OPPONENT RANKINGS?
 These rankings go far beyond the NCAA's straight statistical ranking of each team. For example last year Notre Dame ranked #89 in the NCAA in rush defense allowing 170 ypg, but ranked #40 in our rush defense rankings because they faced the toughest schedule of rush offenses in the NCAA LY. As you can see, the NCAA's statistical rankings can be misleading. In the upcoming weeks we'll provide examples of this year's statistical disparities. These are the current rankings for this year. Here are the teams that have taken on the toughest & easiest schedules last year.

NOTE: Power Plays - PP

PRO FOOTBALL October 10th-14th

Power Plays is based upon statistical numbers and rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types statistical information the more numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input. The numbers in parenthesis are a comparison of the teams rankings (Visitor, visitors offense ranking vs home defense ranking, Home home offensive ranking vs visitor defensive ranking) over each teams last 4 games.

CHICAGO	108	318	35	+4	#27

(NYG #27 vs CHI #20, CHI #10 vs NYG #27) - The Giants' 0-5 start is the most non-strike start since 1979 as they have gotten very old very fast on both sides of the line giving up 31 pts in each game this year. CHI has its own issues on defense as they aren't getting pressure on the QB (26th) and are 28th in points allowed. While Power Plays sides with the home team we want to wait and see what if any adjustments the Giants make this week first.

OAKLAND	93	113	7	+3	#5
KANSAS CITY	122	292	25	+10	#26

(OAK #25 vs KC #14, KC #14 vs OAK #21) - OAK takes a big step up going from SD's #27 def to KC's #8 unit here. The key matchup is if KC's OLB tandem of Hali/Houston can keep the surprising Pryor in the pocket and make him beat them with his arm. KC is a DD fav for the 1st time in 10 years and is 0-6 SU/ATS at home vs the Raiders. PP gives KC a 208 yd edge here (#3 TW) but we've noticed defenses catching up to Alex Smith (63% comp, 7.1 ypa, to 51%, 6.0 ypa) and we'll make it a No Play as we aren't comfortable with KC laying this much right now.

PHILADELPHIA	170	254	21	+1	#31
TAMPA BAY	123	257	20	0	#21

(PHI #2 vs TB #12, TB #31 vs PHI #12) - PHI is off a big win vs the Giants thanks to 3 int in the 4Q but they aren't expected to have Vick (hamstring) here. TB comes out of the bye w/rookie 3rd RD QB Glennon and his 43 pass att's getting a good matchup vs a pass def that has given up 300 yds passing in 4 of 5 games TY. There is no line as Vick's status hasn't been formally declared so this is a No Play and we want to see how the Bucs respond to Schiano here.

NO PLAY: EAGLES 21 BUCS 20

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
GREEN BAY	129	254	25	-2	#28
BALTIMORE	70	264	20	-4	#4

(GB #3 vs BAL #1, BAL #26 vs GB #18) - GB took advantage of DET w/o its top 2 WR's (Megatron/Burleson) holding them to 222 net yds passing but may be without LB Matthews (brkn thumb) here. BAL only had 3 healthy WR's vs MIA and won with 40 rush att's and a fantastic game by Suggs (3 sks). PP leans w/the road team here and we agree but doesn't give them enough yardage (+49) to make it a play however so this is a No Play.

NO PLAY: PACKERS 25 RAVENS 20

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
DETROIT	86	240	21	+4	#10
CLEVELAND	107	234	18	+1	#1

(DET #15 vs CLE #6, CLE #23 vs DET #26) - CLE is at home for its 3rd straight but is going back to Weeden (1 sack every 6.9 pass att's) with a less than inspiring run game (79 ypg, 3.5) here. DET was a shell of itself w/o Megatron as DET was held to a season-low 286 yds. While DET is only 26th in sacks but it's misleading as they only have a 5-8 ratio and are tied for 5th with 11 takeaways. PP has this right at the line, however, making it a No Play.

CAROLINA	119	280	25	0	#23
MINNESOTA	139	216	22	+2	#6

(CAR #19 vs MIN #30, MIN #16 vs CAR #5) - CAR came out of the bye poorly with 4 TO's and 7 sacks of Newton. They are 6-1 ATS off a loss and take on MIN who looks to be starting Cassel until Freeman gets up to speed. MIN has 3 primetime games in 4 wks on deck and is only 2-5 ATS as a HF. PP leans w/the Panthers here as they refocus (teams that lost by 14 or more off the bye are 14-4 ATS in their next) but only having a 44 yd edge here limits the strength.

3★ PANTHERS 25 VIKINGS 22

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
ST LOUIS	40	106	16	+4	#11
HOUSTON	184	287	26	-8	#24

(STL #28 vs HOU #2, HOU #11 vs STL #19) - The visitor comes in off a big win vs the one of the weakest teams in the NFL over the L5Y vs a top 10 off/def off a tough road loss vs a high quality foe w/a manageable line. PP gives HOU a staggering 325 yd edge here (only SEA's proj'd +374 vs JAX has been more TY) and this is a foe the beleaguered Schaub can regain his mojo on as they are giving up an 11-3 ratio w/a 8.3 ypa here. Look for the Texans to vent a lot of frustration on the Rams here.

4★ TEXANS 26 RAMS 16

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
PITTSBURGH	3	256	19	-11	#19
NY JETS	104	252	20	-10	#17

(PIT #17 vs NYJ #4, NYJ #12 vs PIT #11) - The Jets are off LW's MNF game vs ATL and now take on an embarrassed PIT team that is the only team in the NFL to not have a takeaway TY. Smith has turned the ball over 11 times TY not counting MNF and it's hard not think DC LeBeau won't have something up his sleeve for the rookie QB. With PIT being just 9-19 ATS as an AF and not having a firm line though this is a No Play.

CINCINNATI	96	235	27	-2	#22
BUFFALO	148	192	16	+3	#30

(CIN #20 vs BUF #17, BUF #21 vs CIN #7) - BUF is being forced to promote off the practice squad Thad Lewis who started for CLE in LY's ssn finale vs PIT throwing for 204 yds (69%) w/a 1-1 ratio. With the extra rest BUF's focus will be on their #3 rush off vs a CIN def allowing 74 ypg (3.2) on the ground minus the GB gm. BUF's numbers are inflated here w/Flacco having a career worst gm fol'd by getting CLE on a short wk. While PP calls for CIN (5-2-1 ATS as AF) to win the even yardage limits the play strength as we also want to see if the Bengals are a team that plays to the level of their foe.

TENNESSEE	96	177	17	+8	#12
SEATTLE	181	204	29	+7	#18

(TEN #18 vs SEA #8, SEA #13 vs TEN #15) - SEA is 18-7 ATS hosting a NDIV foe and now gets a TEN team travelling for the 1st time in a month coming all the way to the Pacific Northwest. SEA knows what to expect out of Fitzpatrick having faced him LY in a 50-17 win (-4) in Toronto. The 12th man is going to be incredibly loud after 2 road games and SEA will be eager to face RB Johnson and his 3.1 ypc TY. PP has this right around the line though making it a No Play.

JACKSONVILLE	-7	235	14	-7	#9
DENVER	154	379	46	+1	#3

(JAX #32 vs DEN #29, DEN #1 vs JAX #25) - With DEN being the largest fav in NFL history, the Broncos having scored 51 vs DAL while JAX has 51 all year, and former JAX HC Del Rio getting his old team at home, the odds are slightly against the Jaguars here. DEN is off an exhausting game vs DAL and Manning gets to take on the Colts at IND on SNF next week so it's tough to gauge their interest. PP gives DEN a 532-228 yd edge which sounds right but the large line makes this a No Play.

SAN FRANCISCO	150	221	24	0	#14

(ARZ #29 vs SF #3, SF #30 vs ARZ #13) - Defense was the calling card of SF's 34-3 win over HOU and minus the GB game they are allowing 174 ypg pass (53%) w/a 2-5 ratio TY. ARZ has won 2 straight as they've capitalized on 3 TO's by TB and 4 by CAR. Palmer has only thrown for 203 ypg (57%) w/a 2-7 ratio the L3W as their run game is not a legit threat. PP gives SF almost a 2-1 yd edge here but has this right around the line making it a No Play.

(NO #5 vs NE #16, NE #24 vs NO #10) - Any other year NO's 1-4 LY to 5-0 TY jump would be the biggest story of the year but DEN, KC and even SEA's success has them under the radar. Brady could have tied Brees' td record if not for a driving rainstorm at CIN LW. NE has failed to cover 5 straight at home off a loss and their only win vs a QB at Brees level was LY when a still adjusting Manning came to NE. NO is healthier and with the momentum at this point getting points in a game PP is projecting at even yards with non-conf AD's prior to a bye being 20-8 ATS off a win.

(WAS #7 vs DAL #22, DAL #8 vs WAS #31) - Despite being on a bye WAS made up ground in the NFC East LW as DAL is off an almost perfect game vs DEN. WAS may have extra rest here but DAL should be livid after blowing LW's game. Will the Cowboys use LW's game as a stepping stone to confirm they can compete with anyone in the league or will Griffin get his 1st win vs the Cowboys? (IND #9 vs SD #24, SD #4 vs IND #9) - The 2012 Chargers showed up vs OAK as 5 TO's were turned into 17 pts for OAK. IND's #12 defense has been a pleasant surprise but they haven't faced a passing QB at Rivers' level (when he's focused) so far TY. PP gives the road team the edge but IND's 3 AF roles have been vs JAX and LY's Chiefs. Are the Colts for real or will the Chargers bounce back?
