THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 spots in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide run attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating to 112 even though they slipped in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example last season was Wisconsin vs UTEP. Wisconsin held UTEP to just 77 yards rushing and stayed the same in the overall defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at 15 and moved them down, as they should have yielded just 50 yards to a weak UTEP rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFr), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Northcoast's PR they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the D.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last season, Tulsa was held to 155 yards passing vs Houston. This dropped Tulsa in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Cougars in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated around the same. Why? Tulsa rushed for 350 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO RELY ON THE PASS & when they did they hit 18 of 32. While Houston's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH!

There you have it. More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

The Power Ratings listed below are not based on the Power Plays, they are based on last year's final computer power rating numbers with the pluses and minuses from the off season changes factored in. They are not adjusted during the course of the season based on the final score of the games that are played on a weekly basis. The Power Ratings listed below can be used for you as a base power ratings to forecast up coming lines and strength of opponents, etc. Once again, they are not based on Power Plays and they differ from what we have shown in recent years, which has been our actual computer Power Ratings. These are Northcoast Sports Plus or Minus Power Ratings.

2013 COLLEGE POWER PLAYS RANKINGS

Listed below are Northcoast Sports' Power Play Rankings. These Power Play Rankings are unique. Our rankings are unlike any computer ranking, as we take into account all the following: Strength of Opponents, Individual Units (Rushing Offense, Rushing Defense, Passing Offense, and Passing Defense) Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edges, and successful Unbalanced Attacks. Regular rankings based solely on numbers DO NOT take into account these factors.

2013 TOUGHEST OPPONENT UNIT'S FACED

WHAT ARE THE TOUGHEST OPPONENT RANKINGS?

These rankings go far beyond the NCAA's straight statistical ranking of each team. For example last year Notre Dame ranked #89 in the NCAA in rush defense allowing 170 ypg, but ranked #40 in our rush defense rankings because they faced the toughest schedule of rush offenses in the NCAA LY. As you can see, the NCAA's statistical rankings can be misleading. In the upcoming weeks we'll provide examples of this year's statistical disparities. These are the current rankings for this year. Here are the teams that have taken on the toughest & easiest schedules last year.

The Power Plays Newsletter consists of forecasts that are made by a special rating system. You will see in the write-ups that we agree with the majority of the PP forecasts. However, there are times when we will disagree. We want to make it clear that this is the PP Newsletter and these forecasts are based purely on the power ratings. If the PP's rating is strong enough to be a 4★ Play, yet we are on the other side of the game, we will clearly state that we like the other side of the game. With all that said here are this week's PP Selections.

TEN has been a bit of a surprise so far upsetting PIT and taking HOU to OT LW as they've done a very good job of taking care of the ball through 2 games. They also have the situational edge with SD on another long road trip after upsetting PHI following their MNF game. PP leans with the home team but with TEN avg 3.1 ypc on the ground and 5.5 ypa via Locker we'll pass for now.

MIN was able to move the ball on CHI last week but settled for 3 FG's late in the game on drives inside the Bears 10. They are now in the fav role where they are 3-8 ATS and face a CLE rush defense allowing just 2.0 ypc with a long of 14 yds so far this year. CLE also gets back WR Gordon but they may not have Weeden (strained thumb) here so this is a No Play and keep in mind, #2 QB Campbell was with CHI and sat in on prepping for MIN last year.

TAMPA BAY	98	184	12	0	#28
NEW ENGLAND	102	286	19	+3	#9

While 2-0, the biggest indicator about the state of the NE offense is that Brady's ypa after 2 games is just 5.2 and a career special teamer leads the team in rec yards (Edelman 157, 7.9). The good news is that they get TB at home with extra rest vs a QB avg 173 ypg (52%) with a 4-11 ratio in his L5 games. PP has this right around the line though making it a No Play.

HOU shredded BAL 43-13 LY and while he has yet to play, FS Reed should be able to give some insight on his former team here. Minus their 1st drives of each half BAL was held to 10 FD and 168 yds vs CLE. Now they face a HOU def getting its legs back holding TEN to 0 FD and 9 yds in the 2H minus their 5 FD/99 yd scoring drive. PP has this right at the line for a No Play at this time.

DALLAS	65	343	26	+3	#24

DAL has the situational edge vs STL travelling for the 2nd straight week and the sting of losing a winnable game vs former rival Reid. On the surface STL put up decent stats LW but 16 FD and 229 yds came on their final 3 drives with ATL trading yards for time. PP leans with the Cowboys but only gives them a 64 yd edge which isn't enough for a team that is 7-21-1 ATS as a favorite.

The situation favors NO back at home (16-5 ATS) on turf vs an ARZ team off its 1st win for HC Arians helped by a defensive pass interference penalty. Brees could make short work of a defense that is giving up 69%, 7.8 ypa with just 1 sack in 74 pass attempts so far. Power Plays calls this right around the line though making it a No Play at this point.

Outscored 50-7 in the 1H of their 1st 2 games, WAS has given up more than 1000 yds in the 1st 2 games with 10.2 ypa allowed (6-0 ratio). Despite the stats, Griffin is simply rusty and should get better with more snaps. DET stumbled LW with DT Fairley (shoulder) being a late scratch and getting burned for a late DPI penalty. PP calls for DET to pull the upset here but with the questionable status of RB Bush (knee) who balances out the offense we'll limit the grade.

CINCINNATI	58	334	23	-2	#17

Cincinnati is off last week's Monday Night matchup vs PIT which isn't factored in here while the Packers have an early season bye on deck. Green Bay had their way with WAS last week but may find it tougher than expected with their OL matched up vs the Bengals tough front 7. The Packers have the skill players and defensive scheme to put the stress on Dalton if it gets to a shootout but without the Monday Night game available this is a No Play.

While Eli is under fire for his 7 interceptions the L2W, keep in mind he has gotten no help from the run game which has 73 total yards (2.2) so far. The Giants have covered 4 straight with a 38-22 avg score after B2B losses and CAR, whose DB's were already an issue (72%, 8.6 ypa), lost FS Godfrey (achilles). MIA stands 2-0 having beat a CLE team with new systems on both sides of the ball and an IND team with a defense that isn't as good as it looks. They are now giving points to a more talented, experienced and balanced ATL unit that controlled the Rams. This is another game that PP has right at the line this week making it a No Play, however, the total is worth a look here.

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
INDIANAPOLIS	52	190	17	+2	#21
SAN FRANCISCO	224	318	31	-2	#14

This is a bad time for IND who lost LG Thomas (quad), RB Ballard (ACL) LW for the year with WR Hayward-Bey (shoulder) out indef. SF was throttled at SEA on SNF with -4 TO's and is 10-3 ATS off a loss with a 25-10 avg score. PP calls for SF to hammer out a 300 yd edge vs IND here and after giving up 7 sks at home the L2W this could get very painful for Luck vs an angry 49ers unit.

4★ 49ERS 31 COLTS 17

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
JACKSONVILLE	23	74	0	-1	#18
SEATTLE	248	223	33	+5	#12

Very rarely does PP forecast a shutout but it makes tons of sense as while JAX is staying on the West Coast this week, they may not have Jones-Drew (ankle) and they gave up 226 yds rush (6.6) to OAK. This is a huge flat spot for SEA off last week's SNF with 4 road games in 5 weeks on deck starting with HOU. Jags HC Bradley was SEA's DC for the L4Y and fav's of 17+ are 6-20-1 ATS. This has us temper the grade despite the +374 offensive yd edge here.

2★ SEAHAWKS 33 JAGUARS 0

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
BUFFALO	114	118	12	0	#10
NY JETS	147	216	19	-4	#19

Both teams are very similar at this point in the year off a close loss vs the Patriots and upsetting an NFC South foe at home. BUF DC Pettine was the Jets DC LY so there is another level of familiarity. At this point you are playing on which rookie QB will make the fewest mistakes and PP thinks the Jets defense, which is playing much better than many think, will help forge a 131 yd edge for the home team. We lean with the Jets with the extra rest as well to make it a play.

3★ JETS 19 BILLS 12

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
CHICAGO	63	181	19	+1	#31
PITTSBURGH	22	243	17	-2	#23

PIT is off LW's MNF matchup vs CIN and those results, as well as how they fared with the loss of C Pouncey, are not factored in here. CHI carved out a 4Q win vs MIN and Cutler is taking to the new offense well. PIT is 7-0 ATS as an HD but this is at the line making it a No Play. Get the Sunday Night Marquee Winner after 11 am ET on your Northcoast VIP Debit Card or at the NCStore for just $12! Also available on your Marquee 7-Pack ($59 for a set), or through the office for $15.

NO PLAY: BEARS 19 STEELERS 17

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23rd

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
OAKLAND	60	170	10	-3	#26
DENVER	121	420	39	+3	#2

This is the first real test for Pryor whose mobility has helped spark what looked to be a below avg offense coming into the year. OAK is also 9-4 ATS as a double-digit dog and has momentum coming in. DEN has PHI and DAL on deck so the threat of a backdoor cover with a line of 14.5 is a concern with a team that is 4-10-1 ATS as a double-digit favorite.

NO PLAY: BRONCOS 39 RAIDERS 10

Monday Night Magic releases are available on your NC VIP Debit Card System for a Money Back PLUS Guarantee! Simply get the MNM Play through the VIP Debit System for $30 after 3:00 pm ET on Monday and if the release fails to win, you will be credited back $40 on your NC VIP Debit account!
