THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 points in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide run attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating to 112 even though they slipped in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example last season was Wisconsin vs UTEP. Wisconsin held UTEP to just 77 yards rushing and stayed the same in the overall defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at 15 and moved them down, as they should have yielded just 50 yards to a weak UTEP rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFr), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Northcoast's PR they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the D.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last season, Tulsa was held to 155 yards passing vs Houston. This dropped Tulsa in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Cougars in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated around the same. Why? Tulsa rushed for 350 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO RELY ON THE PASS & when they did they hit 18 of 32. While Houston's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH!

There you have it. More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

NC SPORTS PLUS OR MINUS POWER RATINGS

The Power Ratings listed below are not based on the Power Plays, they are based on last year's final computer power rating numbers with the pluses and minuses from the off season changes factored in. They are then adjusted during the course of the season based on the final score of the games that are played on a weekly basis. The Power Ratings listed below can be used for you as a base power ratings to forecast up coming lines and strength of opponents, etc. Once again, they are not based on Power Plays and they differ from what we have shown in recent years, which has been our actual computer Power Ratings. # 2013 COLLEGE POWER PLAYS RANKINGS

Listed below are Northcoast Sports' Power Play Rankings. These Power Play Rankings are unique. Our rankings are unlike any computer ranking, as we take into account all the following: Strength of Opponents, Individual Units (Rushing Offense, Rushing Defense, Passing Offense, and Passing Defense) Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edges, and successful Unbalanced Attacks. Regular rankings based solely on numbers DO NOT take into account these factors.

MICHIGAN ST	91	169	16	+2	-
IOWA	130	125	19	+2	✓

PRO FOOTBALL October 3rd-7th

Just a quick note for our Power Plays Subscribers. Obviously this newsletter is based upon statistical numbers and rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types statistical information the more numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input. The numbers here are based upon how they finished last season with adjustments made due to personnel changes. Preseason statistics are not included in any of the projections as we do not feel they would accurately adjust the numbers.

CLEVELAND	126	330	25	0	#11

This is CLE's only scheduled primetime game TY & Thursday Night favs off B2B wins are 27-10 ATS since 2004. How good is CLE's defense? They are allowing just 2.9 ypc, 5.9 ypa w/a 2-3 ratio & are 3rd w/14 sacks through 4 games. BUF may not have RB's Spiller or Jackson here which is a major concern for Manuel in his 2nd career road game. PP calls for CLE by 174 yds which is tops for this week & we'll make this a very rare Thursday Night selection.

KANSAS CITY	103	172	17	+9	#22
TENNESSEE	175	186	18	+9	#5

TEN is an impressive 3-1 but initial reports are that Locker (hip) is out 4-8W & they scored 28 pts off 4 Geno Smith TO's LW. Fitzpatrick only completed 2-7 after a 77 yd td pass & there is plenty of tape on him for KC to break down w/his time in BUF. KC is undefeated but that's vs teams that are a combined 3-13 after 4W of the season. PP leans w/TEN here but we want to see how they practice w/Fitzpatrick at the helm so No Play on the side & small play on the total due to the D's & Alex Smith's conservative play.

BALTIMORE	79	234	14	-2	#1
MIAMI	79	198	21	+2	#4

The Dolphins are off their 1st MNF game in almost 2 years & NDIV HF's w/a bye on deck are only 9-16 ATS vs a foe off a loss. Flacco had the worst game in his career w/5 of his int being turned into 13 pts. The gameplan should be much crisper here as Flacco had 50 pass att's vs just 9 rush att's which is unacceptable even with Rice (hip) dinged up. Without seeing how MIA did on MNF or knowing the status of DE Wake (knee) this is a No Play.

NO PLAY: DOLPHINS 21 RAVENS 14

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
JACKSONVILLE	82	157	14	-4	#15
ST LOUIS	99	271	26	+1	#8

How bad is the other team when you give up 35 pts the previous game & are installed as a 13 pt fav? JAX is giving up over twice the ypc that they are earning (5.2 vs 2.3) & over twice the QBR (51.6 vs 103.5). They have been outscored 75-8 in the 1H so far TY & minus a 78 yd drive for a FG vs OAK their longest drive in the 1H has been for 27 yds. Fisher is seething after LW's loss to SF (post-game press conf was only 10 min) but PP has this right around the line making it a No Play.

CINCINNATI	171	204	21	-2	#23

CIN catches a break here w/NE off LW's SNF game vs ATL where they lost NT Wilfork (achilles) for the year. We expect NE to rally around the key injury here & put up a better than expected defensive stand vs a CIN team that has been outgained by 86 ypg the L2W. PP calls for CIN to get the win but we want to see if any of their 3 starting DB's that sat out LW return & see how NE & their improving offense which could get Gronkowski back responds in practice so No Play.

INDIANAPOLIS	132	239	18	+6	#17

SEA is 8-2-1 ATS away vs NDIV foes & while they are looking like the NFC reps for the SB this is a very tough spot for them here. IND is embracing the physical power FB style under Pagano & quietly has the #10 & #8 units and are at home after a relaxing trip to JAX. SEA expended a ton of energy to rally to OT vs HOU & their OL is pretty dinged up. PP calls for SEA but we disagree as IND is the 1st team that is truly protecting the ball that SEA has faced TY (rest are -11 combined) so No Play.

GREEN BAY	143	355	35	-2	#25

The natural move is to take GB at home off a loss (7-1 ATS) but high powered offenses generally take 1.5Q's to get back into gear off a bye. While GB's #3 offense is impressive, despite the OL issues, their #28 def that is 27th in sks by is a bit of a concern. DET has balance on offense thanks to RB Bush (144 ypg from scrimmage despite missing WAS) & defensively the key to success has been a 21.3% rate on 3rd down. PP has this right around the line for the side so No Play & with the series avg 44 ppg s/09 with a 1-5 O/U mark the total is a No Play for now also.

NEW ORLEANS	79	301	28	+2	#12
CHICAGO	172	237	26	+5	#30

NO is off LW's MNF game vs MIA & those results are not factored in here but they have won 3 straight off MNF by 15.7 ppg. It also remains to be seen how the Bears respond after Trestman's first loss. It didn't go unnoticed that CHI only sacked Stafford once LW after losing rising DT Melton vs PIT. With no line at this point this is a No Play.

PHILADELPHIA	183	247	27	-3	#32
NY GIANTS	83	296	28	-9	#31

The good news is that the PHI offense is just as good as advertised. The bad news is that the pass defense is just as bad as LY's w/a 35-3 ratio its L/14 games & in the L/3 games they've given up 51% 3rd down conversions. They have a big speed advantage over the Giants who have 231 total rush yds (3.3) vs PHI's McCoy's 468 rush yds (6.0). The Giants' OL struggles are keeping the deeper routes from opening up & Manning is too locked into Cruz at this point (425 yds vs 392 Nicks/Myers). PP calls for PHI to have a slight yard edge (+51) & keep it close enough in a game where DIV HF's are 17-36 ATS it's enough for a small play here.

CAROLINA	116	180	21	+1	#28
ARIZONA	32	250	16	-1	#16

AF's of 3 or less off a bye are 15-6 ATS & the Panthers are not only rested but have tons of confidence after posting a shutout prior. ARZ is off 2 East Coast games where despite staying in Florida to acclimate they struggled vs a rookie QB with virtually no home edge. LW gives good value as the ARZ defense lost 3 OLB's to IR LW & their #2 rush def (75 ypg 3.0) is false as they've faced STL with bad RB's, B2B heavy pass teams & a sinking TB team. PP calls for CAR with a manageable line but the lack of yards (just 14) limits the strength.

3★ PANTHERS 21 CARDINALS 16

SAN DIEGO	115	261	26	-3	#26
OAKLAND	90	249	17	-2	#9

The dog has covered 8 straight but injuries abound here. While he only has 0.5 sacks Freeney (torn quad) was the only real pass rusher that OC's planned against on the #29 pass def w/an 8-1 ratio. OAK expects Pryor back here but if McFadden/Reese are out then they have to sign a RB off the street. OAK's pass defense is looking worse than LY's (13 games w/no int in L/20) & with Rivers off to a great start in a new offense (74%, 8.4 ypa, 11-2) despite a bad OL we'll call for a No Play & watch the injury report.

DENVER	75	368	31	+1	#3
DALLAS	82	297	24	+4	#6

DEN will be getting a massive amount of press after setting a franchise record 52 pts on PHI after Chip Kelly made the mistake of goading Manning (we'll play in a parking lot). This is the biggest DAL has been a HD since facing DEN on Thanksgiving back in 2001 (which they covered) & the Cowboys are 7-2 ATS as a NDIV HC. Romo has been playing quite well TY thanks to an improved OL (just 9 sacks, 4.6 ypc) & DAL does have the #3 pass rush backed by the home crowd here. PP has this right at the line for side & total though making it a No Play.

HOUSTON	80	174	17	-4	#27
SAN FRANCISCO	154	133	23	-4	#13

HOU is a surprising 2-2 despite being +156 ypg (#1) as they've thrown a pick-six in 3 straight games. SF has shown that they are beatable but has extra rest and homefield edge here. Opposing def's have done a decent job of shutting down Kaepernick & the read-option so far TY. HOU LB Cushing left LW's game due to a concussion & his status will be closely watched. PP has this right around the line though making it a No Play. Don't forget to pick up the Sunday Night Marquee Winner! Sunday Night Marquees are currently on a 64% run. NY JETS	165	224	17	-10	#19
ATLANTA	73	222	28	-3	#2

ATL is off B2B losses for the 1st time since 2009 largely due to injuries at LB & on the OL. The Jets may be committing TO's at a Mark Sanchez rate (-10) but until TEN the def had only allowed 1 td off them. The public will likely drive the line up with a beat up playoff level team on MNF trying to get back to .500 vs a better than expected Jets defense. We'll pass on this until the line settles later in the week. Monday Night Magic releases are available on your NC VIP Debit Card System for a Money Back PLUS Guarantee!
