These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rat-ing, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 spots in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide rup attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they globs in the matchar overall defensive ratings. However, how passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings! Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFr), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Phil's Power Ratings they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the defense.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in. Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last season, Tulsa was held to 155 yards passing vs Houston. This dropped Tulsa in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Cougars in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated around the same. Why? Tulsa rushed for 350 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO RELY ON THE PASS & when they did they hit 18 of 32. While Houston's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH! There you have it. More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

The Power Ratings listed below are not based on the Power Plays, they are based on last year's final computer power rating numbers with the pluses and minuses from the off season changes factored in. They are then adjusted during the course of the season based on the final score of the games that are played on a weekly basis. The Power Ratings listed below can shown in recent years, which has been our actual computer Power Ratings. These are Northcoast Sports Plus or Minus Power Ratings.

NOTE: Power Plays - PP COLLEGE FOOTBALL October 2nd-4th

The Power Plays Newsletter consists of forecasts that are made by a special rating system. You will see in the write-ups that we agree with the majority of the PP forecasts. However, there are times when we will disagree. We want to make it clear that this is the PP Newsletter and these forecasts are based purely on the power ratings. If the PP's rating is strong enough to be a 4★ Play, yet we are on the other side of the game, we will clearly state that we like the other side of the game. With all that said here are this week's PP

Just a quick note for our Power Plays Subscribers. Obviously this newsletter is based upon statistical numbers and up a 125.5 opposing QBR (73% comp 9-0 ratio) the L3W. Yes, PIT is mad, PP gives PIT the biggest rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types statistical information the more yardage edge of the week (+172) but they are 0-8 ATS as an AF of 6+ which tempers the grade. numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input. The numbers here are based upon how they finished last season with adjustments made due to personnel changes. Preseason statistics are not included

We went against CHI LW as our Sept NFL GOM so why take them on the road here? They did outgain GB 496-358, Cutler doesn't have the pressure to beat a Div rival he's struggled against here & the Panthers are in a very poor spot healthwise offensively. They are likely without their top 3 rushers & Newton isn't 100% right now either. CAR has proven vulnerable to passing offenses the L2W & Cutler has a loaded set of skill players to work with here. PP gives the yards & point edge to the N dog here & we'll take them for the play.

There is no line with the Titans waiting to see if Locker's wrist will enable him to play after watching Whitehurst (177 yds 52% 1-1) struggle to keep pace in a shootout. TEN does have the ability to run give enough yardage margin for a bigger play. the ball which is a concern for the Browns but they have the bye to correct their issues. The pressure is on the Titans here with CLE firmly behind Hoyer (97.5 QBR) who will have a healthy RB Tate/TE Cameron here. While we side with CLE here please note the conditions below.

On one hand the Eagles are off a misleading score with 2 special teams & a pick-six for their points. On the other they have to be credited for not giving up despite being stilled on offense driving down to the SF 1 before being SOD. The Rams are off their own tough loss after blowing a 21 pt lead vs DAL but PHI has won 3 of their L4 off a loss by 15, 29 & 43 pts. STL front 7 is better than SF's, but Foles is better than Davis/Hall, they get RT Lane Johnson back & are at home so we'll make the lean here.

DAL is doing an excellent job of playing within their abilities on both sides of the ball as they have taken the ball out of Romo's hands & let the supporting cast (esp RB Murray) take over. By reducing the pressure in that aspect there have been less TO's & while the defense is leaking yards (#24) they are just 10th in pts allowed thanks to DC Rod Marinelli. HOU is a different team with RB Foster (hamstring) healthy & DAL is just 3-7 ATS off B2B wins we'll limit the grade here.

While the Jets have earned 4 sacks in 3 straight losses they've also been picked apart by opposing QB's giving up QBR's of 109.8, 94.7 & 116.4. They simply don't have the DB's to run Ryan's scheme & that was evident in the 14 play/90 yd drive that chewed up 7:32 in the 3rd/4th Qtr.
