Who played the toughest schedule?

Once the schedules are finalized in spring we like knowing "how tough" our favorite teams schedule is. Most fans and media outlets use the records of their opponents previous years to rank them, but we like to use our power ratings on each team to get a better gauge.

As you can see Iowa St, Kansas, USC, Maryland and Texas played OUR 5 toughest schedules!

If you base it on the win % of a teams opponents the 5 teams that played the toughest schedule were: Maryland, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia Tech and Auburn.

The LARGEST difference between our Strength of Schedule compared to the opponent win % is Navy. The Midshipman faced the #37 toughest schedule ranked by opp win % while facing only the #80 schedule in our rankings.

Let's look below at Navy's Schedule so far this year:

On the right are tougher opponents with the same record

Colgate 9-4 Baylor - also 9 wins East Carolina 5-7 Nebraska - also 5-7 Connecticut 6-6 Auburn - also 6-6 Air Force 8-5 USC - also 8-5 Tulane 3-9 Georgia Tech - also 3-9 USF Texas A&M - also 8-4 8-4 Memphis 9-3 Michigan - also 9-3 Purdue - also 2-10 SMU 2-10 Tulsa 3-9 South Carolina - also 3-9 Houston 12-1 Alabama - also 12-1

As you can see just how deceiving a teams strength of schedule can be when using an opponents win %

The 5 teams that played a much TOUGHER schedule per our rankings are: Utah, UCLA, Wash St, TCU & E Michigan. Finally, the 4 teams along with Navy to play an EASIER schedule are: Texas St, W Mich, Cincinnati and Louisiana Tech.

Happy Holidays From the Staff at Northcoast Sports!

2015-2016 COLLEGE FOOTBALL BOWLS

The Power Plays Newsletter consists of forecasts that are made by a special rating system. You will see in the write-ups that we agree with the majority of the PP forecasts. However, there are times when we will disagree. We want to make it clear that this is the PP Newsletter and these forecasts are based purely on the power ratings. If the PP's rating is strong enough to be a 4★ Play, yet we are on the other side of the game, we will clearly state that we like the other side of the game. With all that said here are this week's PP Selections.

Arizona has faced the much tougher schedule and has more talent. They are missing 3 of the top 4 LB's from the start of the year. New Mexico is playing this on thier home field but will be excited for their first bowl s/07. Versus 2 mut opp AZ was +64 ypg & NM -199. Over the L4 gms NM was playing thier best ball of the year. AZ has more talent but PP leans w/the DD home dog & we agree.

BYU	50	289	24	+7	_	#78
UTAH	177	192	25	+8	//	#11

BYU was upset that Utah ended the series but both teams figure to be well motivated. BYU was +70 ypg (Utah +12) but vs a softer schedule. BYU has an edge on offense with Utah RB Booker likely out but Utah has the edge on defense & ST's. Tough to pick either in this rivalry but both have top notch D's including our #15 & #18 rated pass D's, so we'll just sit back and watch.

Ohio was playing its best ball down the stretch and will be motivated by being a TD+ dog here. Ohio has a large edge on ST's. App St figures to have the crowd edge (375 vs 533 miles) and have sold out their initial allotment of tickets. App St was +76.8 vs bowl tms (Ohio -45.7) but Ohio upset Marshall, only lost to Minny by 3 and knocked NIU out of the MAC Title gm. We lean with the dog.

Georgia St is a lot closer (402 vs 2409 miles) but rarely get fans at home. SJSt is just 5-7 and while win or lose they will have a losing season. This figures to be the smallest crowd of the post season. The key matchup is SJSt's solid pass D vs Arbuckle who has been shredding weak pass D's.

LT is closer (233 vs 409 miles) but ASt travels well. LT is -8 ypg vs bowl tms but ASt is -73.8. ASt lost their starting left OT week 11. Both teams figure to be motivated and this one should be a shootout in the dome. Ark St played better ball down the stretch but it has been a couple wks since they played last. PP is calling for a high scoring game & we'll agree with that.

These two were among the hottest teams in the country at the end of the year. USF will have the fan edge (207 vs 859 miles). WKU is +83 vs bowl tms while USF is -24.8 but USF led solid Temple and Cincy squads by a combined 82-13 at the half and have a slight edge on defense and are getting over a FG. We'll just sit back and watch how this game plays out.

Once Woodson emerged at QB and gave Akron an offense they won those last 4 to clinch a winning year and they are happy to be in any bowl. Utah St will have the crowd edge (258 miles away, Akron 1769). QB Keeeton was not up to his usual standards the last two but should be more to form here. Utah St shockingly has lost 6 gms so they need a win for a winning season. PP is calling for this gm to finish near the opening line making this a no play.

Both tms were disapponted with their season endings. Temple just missed a NY6 bowl and Toledo missed playing in the MAC Title gm. Toledo rates the edge on offense but Temple on D and ST's. Both must travel about 1,000 miles. Toledo was +45.5 vs bowl tms (Temp -2.0) & Temple's D at home allows 210 ypg but 431 away. We lean with Temple and Rhule vs an interim HC, so this is a no play.

BSU is closer but still has to travel 756 miles (NIII 1678) but they travel well & should have the crowd edge. NIU is 25-9 as a dog incl 3-1TY w/an upset of BG & they only lost to OSU by 7. BSU was fav'd in every gm but went just 8-4 SU/6-6 ATS. The biggest edge may be at QB where BSU had their ups & downs with true frosh Brett Rypien (PS#24) while NIU could be down to a 3rd string walk on true frosh. BSU was +71 ypg vs bowl tms & NIU just -75 ypg. Both tms will try to set the tone for a rebound in '16 & we will side with the stronger team that has a clear cut edge at QB & PP agrees.

Cincy probably had the best collection of NFL caliber athletes in the AAC so they are very talented. This is a clash of styles with San Diego St's run game and defense vs the prolific pass attack of Cincy. Even without QB Maxwell Smith, SDST put up 436 yds vs Air Force and could have covered. Holiday recruits Florida heavily so this game is important. Marshall is 6-3-1 ATS as a fav while UConn is 5-4 as a dog this year. The Herd are the stronger team and have a great record in bowls so they are tough to go against. Their offense is not what it was last year especially with star RB Devon Johnson missing the 2H of the year. They are +29 ypg vs UC's -34 and have the much better record at 9-3 vs 6-6. UC has taken on the much tougher schedule. PP is calling for a low scoring gm & we agree.

Both tms are 8-4 but one team fired their coach mid year and is 4-1 since. Miami has more athletic talent and matches up well here as they have a solid pass D vs a pass happy offense. They also polish up his NFL resume with another 400 yd effort. AF did put up 35 vs Utah St & 38 vs Boise which are +9 sacks on the year while WSt is -10. Wisc is +110 ypg on the season and outgained lowa by 99 yds in the home loss. USC is just +48 but had 11 gms vs bowl tms and Wisky just 5. The Badgers have the edge on defense and USC a large edge at offensive skill players. PP is calling for a lower then expected game & we agree.

Mich St has one of the top OL/DL combo's in the country but Bama tops them. Bama rates the edge in all talent categories except QB. Dantonio is 12-1 ATS as a dog with NINE outright upsets. Mich St also plays their best in big games. UO, Mich, Ohio St & Iowa comb to avg 219 ypg rush (5.2) and Mich St held them to 80.8 (2.5 ypc). That matches up well vs Henry. We have a tough time going against either team, but PP is calling for a low scoring game & we'll agree with that.

Since that loss to Texas, Oklahoma has averaged an amazing 300 ypg rush and 293 ypg pass! A look at the Power Plays projected numbers shows the Sooners winning 40-28 but the yards are close. Clemson will be motivated by being #1 and a dog and the Sooners always do great with revenge under Stoops. Oklahoma looks like the most complete team and we side with them here.

NW finally broke thru for a bowl win in '12 to move to 1-7 in bowls & finally return to one. They're at the bottom of the B10 on offense & need to run the ball to be effective & UT allows 4.2 ypc rush. UT was -22.5 ypg vs 6 bowl tms & NW -41.6 vs 8 bowl tms. NW was 4-2 SU as a dog TY upsetting Stan, Duke, Neb & Wisc. UT has the clear talent edge & as long as the NW tm that faced Mich & Iowa does not show up they should keep it close. Tenn largest win over a Power 5 tm with a winning record was 7 pts.

first Rose Trip in 25 yrs. Both tms like to run but Iowa allows 3.4 ypc and Stanf 4.6. Stanf has the Off & ST edge and Iowa the stronger D. Stanf is 6-4 ATS vs 10 bowl tms (Iowa 5-2 ATS). Iowa will be playing the no respect card all month and will be a solid defensive dog here with the spread near a TD.

With 2 below avg Off & 2 top 25 D's you would think under. All our computer point forecasts say under but the yds say over. Franklin's 4 bowls have avg'd 61 ppg combined. Georgia's D only had 21 sks so Hackenberg may have time to throw. Georiga has an interim HC. We'll just sit back and watch.

Bill Snyder is one of the best underdog cch's out there going 23-8 ATS as a dog with 15 outright upsets in reg ssns but 0-3 in the bowls the last 5 yrs. In years past we have talked about our bowl systems and both are high on KSt. Will Snyder announce this is his last game? We like large underdogs in bowls as they hear for 3+ weeks that they have no chance and Snyder is the Underdog King.

This is in a dome (perfect conditions) so it will be a shootout. UO avg 48.6 ppg the L5 gms & TCU avg 564 ypg on the ssn. The Off's and ST's are nearly even. TCU despite being banged up on D held opp to 32 yds below their ssn avg & UO's D all'd 50 ypg above. Both teams played a similar schedule and TCU was +168 ypg and Oregon just +68. Keep in mind on the road vs a powerful Oklahoma team and without QB Boykin, TCU lost by 1 on a failed 2pt conv & Boykin here is as healthy as he has been the entire ssn.

WV was 0-6 ATS vs Power 5 bowl teams this year. Ariz St at 6-6 needs a win to avoid a losing season. Ariz St opened the year with a loss to a SEC team and will want to end it with a win vs the Big12. Ariz St faced 9 bowl tms (WV 7) and this is 10 miles from the ASU campus (WV 2078 miles away). ASU is the better team, but PP likes WV & we disagree.
