THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 spots in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide run attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example last season was Wisconsin vs UTEP. Wisconsin held UTEP to just 77 yards rushing and stayed the same in the overall defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at 15 and moved them down, as they should have yielded just 50 yards to a weak UTEP rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFr), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Phil's Power Ratings they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the defense.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last season, Tulsa was held to 155 yards passing vs Houston. This dropped Tulsa in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Cougars in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated around the same. Why? Tulsa rushed for 350 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO RELY ON THE PASS & when they did they hit 18 of 32. While Houston's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH!

There you have it. More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

NORTHCOAST SPORTS PLUS OR MINUS POWER RATINGS

The Power Ratings listed below are not based on the Power Plays, they are based on last year's final computer power rating numbers with the pluses and minuses from the off season changes factored in. They are then adjusted during the course of the season based on the final score of the games that are played on a weekly basis. The Power Ratings listed below can be used for you as a base power ratings to forecast up coming lines and strength of opponents, etc. Once again, they are not based on Power Plays and they differ from what we have shown in recent years, which has been our actual computer Power Ratings. These are Northcoast Sports Plus or Minus Power Ratings.

2015 TOUGHEST OPPONENT UNIT'S FACED

WHAT ARE THE TOUGHEST OPPONENT RANKINGS?

These rankings go far beyond the NCAA's straight statistical ranking of each team. For example in '12 Notre Dame ranked #89 in the NCAA in rush defense allowing 170 ypg, but ranked #40 in our rush defense rankings because they faced the toughest schedule of rush offenses in the NCAA in '13. As you can see, the NCAA's statistical rankings can be misleading. In the upcoming weeks we'll provide examples of this year's statistical disparities. These are the current rankings for this year. Here are the teams that have taken on the toughest & easiest schedules last year.

The Power Plays Newsletter consists of forecasts that are made by a special rating system. You will see in the write-ups that we agree with the majority of the PP forecasts. However, there are times when we will disagree. We want to make it clear that this is the PP Newsletter and these forecasts are based purely on the power ratings. If the PP's rating is strong enough to be a 4★ Play, yet we are on the other side of the game, we will clearly state that we like the other side of the game. With all that said here are this week's PP Selections.

This is the 3rd straight year these schools are meeting in the MAC Championship game. NIU is making its 6th straight title game appearance. This will be the 1st meeting between these two since LY's 51-17 (-6) NIU win to claim the MAC crown. The dog has covered 6 of the L7 MAC Championship games with 3 outright upsets. There are reports surfacing that BG HC Babers will be the next head coach at UCF. PP is calling for BG to get their revenge in a major way, winning by 14, with a 109 yd edge. College Marquees are 23-15 (61%) the L7 weeks and you can get the Fri Night Marquee on your VIP Debit system for just $9 after Noon ET on gameday.

| TEXAS | 329 | 176 | 154 | 21 | +7 | - |
| BAYLOR | 555 | 311 | 245 | 43 | +3 | - |

Texas had won 12 in a row SU in this series, but Baylor is now 4-1 SU/5-0 ATS. The home team 5-12 ATS. The Bears are 4-0 SU/ATS in their home finale & is 27-11 as a HF. PP calls for Baylor's success in this rivalry to continue with a 555-329 yd edge & a win by over 3 td's. We disagree & lean with the Longhorns as the Bears have an inexp'd 3rd string QB under center.

GS will be in revenge mode after getting embarrassed by over 7 td's LY. They all'd an SBC rec 613 rush yds! The Panthers are also a win away from becoming bowl elig for the 1st time. GS is 6-3 as a HF, but GS is 5-0 this year as an AD. PP is projecting the Eagles to win by nearly 3 td's, with a 126 yd edge. We'll just sit back and watch how this game plays out, making this a no play.

The home tm in this series is 2-0 SU & AS will be in revenge mode after losing by over 2 td's LY despite being nearly a td fav! A win here by the Red Wolves will earn them the outright SBC crown. AS has won 4 str home finales (3-1 ATS) & is 18-10 as a HF, while TXSt is 0-5 as an AD. PP calls for the Red Wolves to get their revenge, winning by nearly 4 td's w/a 122 yd edge. We agree.

New Mexico State is 3-1 SU in this series, but their last win was in 2003 during their initial stint as an SBC member. The Visitor is 4-0 ATS. The Aggies will be playing with revenge after losing by nearly 2 td's last year. PP calls for New Mexico State to get their revenge, winning by just over a field goal with the yards just about even. There was no line on this game as we went to press.

Kansas State is 4-1 SU (only loss in 1930) in this series including 3-0 SU/ATS as B12 rivals. Two of the three wins have been outright upsets. The Wildcats find themselves in that role again this year & a win here will make them bowl eligible. PP is forecasting West Virginia to come out on top, winning by over a touchdown with a 117 yd edge. We disagree however & lean with the Bill Snyder led Wildcats as they are 8-2 as a HD, while the Mountaineers are 4-11 ATS away vs B12 foes.

Appalachian State will be playing with revenge after losing last years initial meeting by nearly four touchdowns. South Alabama is a win away from becoming bowl eligible, but PP is calling for the Mountaineers to get their revenge, winning by three touchdowns with a 122 yd edge. Jaguars QB Clements is ? to play and while South Alabama has covered their L/2 home finales, they are just 2-7 as a HD, while Appalachian State is 7-1 ATS away & 10-3 ATS vs SBC foes.

UL Lafayette has dominated this series of late winning 4 in a row SU/3-1 ATS. Neither team is bowl eligible so both will be playing for pride. PP is forecasting Troy to snap their series losing streak & win by double digits, but with just a 95 yard edge. We disagree and lean with the Ragin' Cajuns and the yardage forecast backs up our claim, making this a no play.

| SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI | 440 | 143 | 297 | 38 | +1 | - |
| WKU | 492 | 138 | 354 | 44 | +13 | ✓ |

The home team in CUSA Championship gms is 7-3 SU/6-4 ATS, but there have been four outright upsets the L7Y. Southern Miss is making their third CUSA Championship game appearance, while WKU is making their first. The Golden Eagles lost their initial title game appearance in 2006, but won their last time in this game in 2011. The Hilltoppers haven't won a conference title since 2002 when they were a 1AA (now known as FCS) member. These two schools didn't play each other this year and the last time they met on the gridiron was in 2012, which WKU won here by over 3 td's.

PP is calling for the Hilltoppers to win by just under a touchdown, with a slight 52 yard edge. The opening Vegas line is WKU by 8 & we agree with PP that Southern Mississippi will keep it closer.

This is the first ever AAC Championship game and the winner will more then likely earn a spot in one of the coveted New Years Day Bowls. Before joining the AAC, Houston had played in three CUSA Championship games. The Cougars went 1-2 SU/ATS with both losses being outright upsets. This will be Temple's first ever conference championship game appearance. These schools didn't play each other this year, with their last meeting coming last year, which Houston won by 3 touchdowns. PP is calling for a much closer outcome this year, with Houston winning by just over a td and finishing with a 60 yard edge. Cougar QB Ward is back healthy & we agree with the forecast.

Last years P12 Championship game was the first time it was played at a neutral site. Stanford won the P12 title game two years ago, while this will be USC's first title game appearance. These two schools played back in week 3 and the Cardinal pulled off the outright upset, coming from behind to win 41-31 (+9) on the road at USC. Stanford finished with 474 yards, which was the third most the Trojan's allowed all season. The Cardinal are 6-3 SU/ATS in this series. PP is calling for Stanford to win again, this time by just a field goal, but with USC finishing with a 35 yard edge. The margin of victory is near the opening line and we'll just sit back and watch how this game unfolds.

These two schools have the most SEC Championship game appearances & they met in the first three title games from 1992-94. This is Alabama's fifth championship game in the L8Y & 10th overall, while Florida is making their 11th overall appearance, but first s/09, when Urban Meyer was roaming the sidelines in Gainesville. The Gators are 7-3 SU/6-3-1 ATS in this game. The SEC Championship game has been dominated by the favorite, going 9-0 SU/7-1-1 ATS. PP is calling that trend to continue here with the Crimson Tide winning by over 3 touchdowns, while limiting Florida to under 200 yards. We are going to go with a rare TOTALS selection on these pages as PP is projecting a total of just 31 points, while the opening line is 40.5. We agree and will go with the UNDER.

| SAN DIEGO STATE | 382 | 220 | 162 | 35 | +21 | - |

This is the third MW Championship game and both of these schools are making their first ever appearance. The host was won the L/2 MW Title games and the favorite is 2-0 SU/1-1 ATS. The last time Air Force won a conference championship was in 1998 when they won the WAC crown, while San Diego State was tri-champs in the MW in 2012. These schools didn't play each other this season and in their last meeting the Aztecs won by a touchdown on the road in 2013 as a 4 point favorite. Interestingly the last two times San Diego State has played in their home stadium in non regular season games they lost both SU & ATS, with the last game coming just LY in the Poinsettia Bowl. There isn't a hotter team in the MW then the Aztecs and PP is calling for them to take care of business, winning by over two touchdowns. We fully agree with that, making this a special 4.5★!

This will be the third ACC Championship game appearance for Clemson, while North Carolina is here for the first time. The Tigers won the title game in 2011 & a win here will not only make them ACC champs, but will also give them the #1 seed in the four team playoff. The fav in this game is 5-3 SU/3-5 ATS & there have been three outright upsets in the L10Y (2 gms were pk). The last time these schools met on the gridiron was in 2011 & Clemson won by 3 touchdowns as a 10 point fav. PP is calling for the Tar Heels to pull off the outright, but we'll just sit back and watch.

The winner of this game will not only be crowned as the B10 champ, but also will earn a spot in the playoffs. Michigan State won this game two years ago, while Iowa will be making its first ever appearance. These schools haven't played each other since 2013 when Michigan State won by nearly 2 touchdowns despite being a slight dog. PP is calling for Sparty to win by nearly a td with an 85 yd edge. We lean with the dog if getting more then 3 points however, making this a no play.

NOTE: Power Plays - PP

PRO FOOTBALL DEC 3rd - 7th

Power Plays is based upon statistical numbers and rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types statistical information the more numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input. The numbers in parenthesis are a comparison of the teams rankings (Visitor, visitors offense ranking vs home defense ranking, Home home offensive ranking vs visitor defensive ranking) over each teams last 4 games.

The Lions shocked the Packers in Lambeau just a few wks back to help kickstart their 3-gm winning streak. GB meanwhile shockingly dropped a 2nd consec HG a week ago against the Bears on Thanksgiving night. While the PP forecast is in favor of DET, we just can't see the Packers getting swept in the ssn series. Grab this Thursday Night Marquee Winner on the VIP Debit System or with your Marquee Pack after Noon EST gameday.

The Bears have now won 3 of their L/4 following a Thanksgiving night win over the Packers. They now host a 49ers squad that's clearly struggled on the road thus far in '15 being outscored (35-14) and outgained (464-288) by substantial margins. PP calls for this trend to continue again this week with the Bears delivering a 13 point win.

The Browns return to action on a short week following their MNF matchup against the Ravens to take on a Bengals team that has dominated them over the past 2 contests by a combined 61-10 margin. CIN meanwhile is riding a 9-1-1 ATS mark this ssn with solid projections in both the score and yardage in this one.

The Jags and Titans met just 2 wks ago with JAX getting the come-from-behind home victory. The Titans have now dropped 11 consec HG's and head into this matchup with a 4-15-2 overall ATS home mark. While PP is calling for a tight forecast, keep in mind that Jags actually come into this contest as a small underdog.

Despite a nice start in their contest last weekend in Arrowhead (10-0 lead), the Bills were unable to hold on in their 8 pt defeat. They now take on a Texans squad that's on a 4-gm SU/ATS win streak following their home win over the Saints. While PP calls for a small yardage edge by BUF, the point differential is much more in favor of the Bills here.

The Ravens head to Miami on a short week following their MNF tilt with the Browns. The Dolphins meanwhile have had their share of struggles as a NDIV HF with a 6-17 ATS mark. PP actually calls for the underdog Ravens to come in an take away a 1 pt win with a 113 yd advantage. While we agree with the projection, the final line may be too close for real value.

CAR is the only undefeated team remaining in the NFL following their 15th consec regular ssn win last week against the Cowboys. PP appears to be a big fan of CAR in their matchup against the Saints with a 22 pt projected win and we fully agree as the Panthers are on a very solid 10-2 ATS run.

The Vikings were able to deliver and easy 4★ PP Winner a week ago against the Falcons in ATL. They now play host to a SEA team that's clearly nowhere near where they've been over recent ssn. While PP calls for the Seahawks to narrowly outgain MIN, it is also calling for the Vikes to get the win.

The Cardinals head to STL seeking revenge from 1 of their 2 defeats this ssn against a Rams team that's now dropped 4 consec contests. With STL being held to 13 or fewer pts in each of their past 3 gms, it's a bit surprising that PP is calling for just a 5 pt win by ARZ in this one.

While the Bucs have been somewhat impressive with 3 wins in their past 5 contests, the Falcons are clearly struggling with 4 straight losses that includes an OT home defeat to TB to start their winless streak. PP is giving the Bucs a 5 pt edge in this one but if you look further into their previous matchup you'll notice that ATL had a huge yardage edge (496-290) with 4 TO's contributing to the defeat.

The Chiefs delivered our 4★ November NFL GOM Winner a week ago against the Bills behind a solid rushing performance from RB Ware (3rd different KC RB w/100+ rush yds TY). They now head back to division action where they've dominated recently with a pair of blowouts on the road vs DEN and SD (62-16 combined score).
