THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 spots in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide run attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating to 112 even though they slipped in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example last season was Wisconsin vs UTEP. Wisconsin held UTEP to just 77 yards rushing and stayed the same in the overall defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at 15 and moved them down, as they should have yielded just 50 yards to a weak UTEP rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFR), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Phil's Power Ratings they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the defense.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last season, Tulsa was held to 155 yards passing vs Houston. This dropped Tulsa in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Cougars in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated around the same. Why? Tulsa rushed for 350 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO RELY ON THE PASS & when they did they hit 18 of 32. While Houston's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH!

There you have it. More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

NORTHCOAST SPORTS PLUS OR MINUS POWER RATINGS

The Power Ratings listed below are not based on the Power Plays, they are based on last year's final computer power rating numbers with the pluses and minuses from the off season changes factored in. They are then adjusted during the course of the season based on the final score of the games that are played on a weekly basis. The Power Ratings listed below can be used for you as a base power ratings to forecast up coming lines and strength of opponents, etc. Once again, they are not based on Power Plays and they differ from what we have shown in recent years, which has been our actual computer Power Ratings. These are Northcoast Sports Plus or Minus Power Ratings.

The Power Plays Newsletter consists of forecasts that are made by a special rating system. You will see in the write-ups that we agree with the majority of the PP forecasts. However, there are times when we will disagree. We want to make it clear that this is the PP Newsletter and these forecasts are based purely on the power ratings. If the PP's rating is strong enough to be a 4★ Play, yet we are on the other side of the game, we will clearly state that we like the other side of the game. With all that said here are this week's PP Selections.

LSU has posted 3 consecutive ssn highs on OFF but face Bama's juggernaut D. PP calls for Bama to win by more than a td but we like LSU and the yds favor LSU making this a no play.

The Badgers are off their big win over Neb and we feel they keep the momentum against NW. PP likes NW to keep it closer than expected and NW has the yds edge. We'll sit back and watch.

Neb goes back on the road after losing in OT at Wisky LW. PP projects OSU to win this one w/a commanding 447-289 yd edge. We agree but the projected MOV is right on the opening line.

Power Plays is based upon statistical numbers and rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types statistical information the more numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input. The numbers in parenthesis are a comparison of the teams rankings (Visitor, visitors offense ranking vs home defense ranking, Home home offensive ranking vs visitor defensive ranking) over each teams last 4 games.

ATLANTA	421	113	308	31	+2	#5
TAMPA BAY	361	112	249	25	-2	#25

The Falcons were able to get back on track in dramatic fashion LW against the Packers (GW TD w/:31 left) after a pair of losses prior. They did struggle in their opening meeting TY against the Bucs however in ATL. While TB lost their OT battle LW w/OAK, they were outgained by a 626-270 yd margin. PP calls for a 6 pt win by ATL but recent history has us thinking that it will go down to the wire. Grab this Thursday Night Marquee Winner on the VIP Debit System or with your Marquee Pack after Noon EST gameday.

JACKSONVILLE	289	72	217	12	-8	#9
KANSAS CITY	379	148	231	32	+9	#20

While the Chiefs do come in with questions on offense following concussions to QB Smith and RB Ware, the bkps inserted into LW's game proved to be solid as their victory over IND wore on. The Jags meanwhile trailed 27-0 at HT in a non-competitive matchup at TEN. PP forecasts a large 20 pt win for KC with a 379-289 yd edge and we agree.

DETROIT	205	36	169	9	+2	#1
MINNESOTA	269	79	190	20	+11	#19

While the Vikings return home on short rest following their MNF battle w/CHI, they have to feel pretty confident as they won both matchups against DET a ssn ago with an avg cover of 8.5 ppg. The Lions meanwhile were tripped up a wk ago in HOU following 3 straight wins at home. Although the offensive projections are low on both sides, the Vikings are the obvious choice with an 11 pt forecasted win where they hold DET to just 205 yds of ttl offense.

PHILADELPHIA	346	109	237	25	+6	#2
NY GIANTS	342	89	253	18	-8	#18

The Eagles have to be steaming following a blown double digit lead in the 4Q LW in DAL (lost in OT). While the Giants are off of rest after their bye, the forecast is certainly in favor of the AD in this one and we agree (PHI 4-1 ATS run as a dog).

DALLAS	453	208	245	31	+4	#17
CLEVELAND	372	108	264	18	-4	#22

While the Cowboys have to feel relieved after escaping with an OT win over the Eagles a wk ago at home, they get a bit of a schedule reprieve in this one as they head to the winless Browns who blew yet another lead (up 20-7 at HT) LW against the Jets. PP forecasts DAL with a 453-372 yd edge in a 13 pt win and we agree.

NY JETS	333	127	206	17	-9	#23
MIAMI	349	97	252	26	-5	#16

The Dolphins return from their bye wk with quite a bit of momentum following consec wins over PIT and BUF. With their OL now intact, we find it surprising that PP calls for just 97 yds on the ground for MIA following B2B 200+ yd rushing efforts from RB Ajayi. With the Jets headed nowhere fast and the Dolphins projected with a 9 pt win, it's hard to disagree.

2★ MIAMI 26 NY JETS 17

PITTSBURGH	358	103	255	23	-1	#21
BALTIMORE	324	76	248	19	+2	#7

The Steelers and Ravens return from much needed wks off with the hope that some of their inj'd players will be back in the lineup. With that being said, PIT comes in as the dog in this one which we'll gladly accept with a forecast that has the Steelers delivering a 4 pt win and a 358-324 yd edge.

NEW ORLEANS	486	172	314	35	0	#10
SAN FRANCISCO	338	140	198	29	-2	#26

The Saints have turned their ssn around following an 0-3 start as they delivered yet another victory in the Superdome as a HD. While they do head on the road to take on a rested 49ers squad off a bye, the forecast is in their favor with a 486-338 yd edge and a 6 pt victory.

CAROLINA	376	126	250	26	-7	#24
LOS ANGELES	322	36	286	24	-2	#6

The Panthers were able to get off the canvas following their bye a week ago against the Cardinals. They now head across country to take on a rested Rams squad (off a bye) who has followed a 3-gm winning streak with a trio of losses. While PP calls for the Panthers to get a 2 pt win, the final forecast is too close to the opening line for our liking.

INDIANAPOLIS	314	76	238	22	+1	#4
GREEN BAY	407	115	292	31	-2	#27

While the Packers did suffer a last second defeat at the hands of the Falcons (GW TD w/:31 left) a wk ago in ATL, there is plenty to like as they return to Lambeau and PP agrees with a 9 pt forecasted win and a 407-314 yd edge. With IND unable to protect Luck following another 6 sks allowed LW, there's no question that GB will be the better team in this one.

TENNESSEE	354	127	227	21	-3	#32
SAN DIEGO	398	73	325	31	-3	#28

While we've agreed with many of our PP forecasts on this wk's NFL card, this projection has us a bit confused as the Titans running game has kept them in a good amount of gms this ssn which includes SU road wins over DET and MIA and a narrow loss in HOU. With SD having some struggles late in many of their '16 contests, we think that this will go down to the wire.

Battle for the top spot in the AFC West between a pair of 6-2 squads. While the Bills come in with a 12-6 ATS mark as a dog, they do head to arguably the toughest road venue in the league to take on a Seahawks team that's steaming following their road loss LW in the Big Easy. PP calls for a 6 pt win by SEA which is fairly close to the opening line. No Play.
