NEWS AND NOTES DOUBLE BOWL ISSUE

This issue of Power Sweep is a special double issue which has 35 bowl game forecasts plus the 15th & 16th weeks of the NFL. This action-packed double issue traditionally does exceptionally well, with a 24 year record of 61% on the ★ basis. This is our biggest and best bowl issue ever, as it contains many Key Selections for the bowls and is 32 FULL pages!!!! Let's go over this super Double Bowl Issue so you can utilize it to the fullest. All of the Bowl Selections are rated from 1★ to 4★ with 4★'s being the highest. 3★ & 4★ Selections are considered Key Selections. 2★'s are considered Other Selections. The 1★ plays are very light selections and are to be played nowhere near as strong as the Key Selections. We have a half page dedicated to EVERY bowl game which should provide every piece of information that you will need. Read each bowl write-up and we think you will find them to be the most in-depth write-ups available. We supply much more information than just our selections for this year's bowl games.

Included in this issue are our exclusive Power Plays forecasts for each game. Power Plays takes into account things like: strength of opponents faced, and is adjusted after games for weather, garbage yards, injuries, etc. It is the most accurate set of power ratings in the country. These forecasts give you a projected box score for each game so you can see a possible outcome for the game. The forecasts include yards rushing, yards passing, turnovers, special teams edges and, of course, a score based on the Power Plays ratings. They also list the average opponent power rating of the teams that they faced this year. Keep in mind these projections are based solely on the Power Plays statistical formulas. Our Power Sweep projected winner at the bottom of each bowl takes into account ALL factors, including the Power Plays numbers, emotion, bowl experience, talent matchups, turf edge, momentum, special teams, coaching, etc. Many times the intangibles in bowls outweigh the pure statistical forecasts. We supply the projected forecasts at the top of the page to give you some solid statistical information.

On page 32 of this newsletter you'll find the Computer Corner Power Ratings forecasts for the bowls. The Computer Corner Plays are rated in different categories and, of course, the higher the difference between the Computer Forecast and the actual Vegas Line, the stronger the play is. They are strictly the computer's forecast & do not take into account all the intangibles that our overall write-ups do. These projections have done very well through the years. The bowl checklists included with each bowl write-up are invaluable as every stat and ranking is analyzed with checks going to the better unit. Each check represents approximately one point.

Page 26 will be our Pro Selections for Week 16 in the NFL. These selections will be made on Sunday (Dec 9th) two weeks before the games are played. The Week 15 results will be unknown. This is not easy to do as the Week 15 results will determine the next week's selections as well as playoff chances. Due to that uncertainty we will not have an NFL 4★ for that week, but we will have ★ rated Key Selections. The last 3 years we forecasted the NFL Week 16 two weeks in advance and went 6-2 on the Key Selections (16-6 on ★'s)!! We do put a lot of work into the advance forecasts and they have done well throughout the years.

The staff here at Northcoast Sports would like to wish you & your family Happy Holidays & a prosperous New Year. As always, thank you for reading Power Sweep. We hope to hear from you in our questionnaire which will be coming in the next couple of issues.

Who Faced the Toughest Schedule in 2012?

What makes our Toughest Opponents Faced rankings far superior to the NCAA method is that ours takes into account 9 sets of power ratings, combines them and factors in every team's schedule this year. We did this not only for the bowl teams, but for all the NCAA teams & found out which teams played the toughest schedules this year. Arizona St ranked #91 in the NCAA rankings with an opp W/L % of 49.2% playing 6 gms vs teams with winning records but played our #42 toughest schedule including games against then #3 Oregon, #11 Oregon St, #19 USC & #24 Arizona. Per the NCAA, Cincinnati faced the #46 toughest schedule with an opp W/L % of 56.1% facing 6 teams with winning records but 2 of those 6 were FCS opp (Fordham & Delaware St) as they took on our #83 schedule. Baylor had the toughest slate among bowl teams (finished 7-5) while Northern Illinois had the easiest (finished 12-1). The 2012 bowl teams are in boldface.

DOUBLE BOWL ISSUE AND HOW TO USE IT

We have been hard at work putting together our jam-packed Double Bowl Issue of Power Sweep as this is our biggest and best issue of the season. The Double Bowl Issue is 32 full pages loaded with the most information available on the bowls, including selections. We have complete write-ups on all 35 bowl games. This issue provides our exclusive Power Plays forecasts for each game. Power Plays takes into account things like: strength of opponents played, weather, garbage yards, injuries, etc. It is the most accurate set of Power Ratings in the country. These forecasts give you a projected box score for each game so you can get an idea of how it will be played. The forecasts include yards rushing, yards passing, turnovers, special teams edges and, of course, a score based on the Power Plays Ratings. They also list the Average Opponent Power Rating that they faced this year. These projections are based solely on the Power Plays statistical formulas. Our Power Sweep selections at the bottom of each bowl takes into account ALL factors, including the Power Plays numbers, emotion, bowl experience, talent matchups, momentum, special teams, coaching, etc. Many times the intangibles in bowls outweigh the pure statistical forecasts. We supply the Power Plays projected forecast at the top of the page to give you some solid statistical information. We have not provided a score as we had done in the past (always right at the number) because we did not want to commit to the Over or Under on Dec 9th (press time for this issue) and we want to have yet another huge winning year with the Private Play Hotline Triple Totals Plays (47-31 on units last 11 years!). The bowl checklists are invaluable as every stat and ranking is analyzed with checks going to the better unit. Each check represents approximately one point. Our next Power Sweep will be available December 24 or 26th so don't call next week looking for the next issue. You are all set as in addition to Week 15 of the NFL, Week 16 is also included in this issue.

BOWL ISSUE 95-66 L5Y 226-155 on ★'s!!!

We look forward to the outcome of this year's Double Bowl Issue! The last 5 years anyone who purchased the Double Bowl Issue has enjoyed a record of 95-66 winners and on the ★ basis 226-155 with the 4★'s the last 4 years going 12-7 63%. As mentioned above, we have included both NFL Week 15 and Week 16 in this issue. There will NOT be a Power Sweep sent out next week and there will be no changes to the Power Sweep Issue for the NFL Week 16. If you have not renewed your subscription to Power Sweep for the 2013 season, time to save is running out. Sign up now for 2013 as you will be paying just $84 to renew for download (add $40 for mail delivery) and when you become a 2013 subscriber, you will be offered special pricing on all of the 2012 season Late Phone Packages! On 1/1/13 there will be a price increase so make sure to renew before year's end! All bonus offers are included, just see page 32 for details!

NFL KEY SELECTIONS 22-5-1 81% TY AS NFL PLAYS POWER SWEEP FOR THE NINETEENTH TIME SINCE 2007!!!! 3★ NFL TOTALS PLAYS 22-14 62% L12W!!

The Power Sweep NFL Keys are an incredible 22-5-1 81% TY! AFTER WINNING ALL THE NFL ★'S ON SUNDAY, IT MARKED OUR NINETEENTH POWER SWEEP SINCE 2007 and THE FIFTH THIS YEAR!!!! The 3★ NFL Totals continue to impress, although they went 1-2 last week, over the last 12 weeks they are 22-14 62%!!! The NFL System is hitting 60% on the year with a big 58-0 winner with Seattle last week and this week we also have Systems for the college bowls! We did release a rare Power Ratings Play on Page 8 which lost. We only had one Power Sweep College play and that was a winner with Army (no ★ rating).

DECEMBER NFL SUNDAY LATE PHONES A PERFECT 6-0 100%!

After a perfect Sunday to open the month of December, we followed that up with ANOTHER PERFECT Sunday going 3-0 AGAIN! The December NFL Late Phones on Sunday stand a PERFECT 6-0 100%!!! We are taking that momentum into the biggest NFL weekend of the season as we are releasing our NFL GAME OF THE YEAR on Sunday! The last 5 years the NFL GOY's are 4-1 80% and with the current win streak, we are sure you'll want to be on board for this weekend! The NFL GOY will be available on the NC Debit Card System for $100 on game day but we have several specials that you can take advantage and save some money while doing so! (see page 32). We had a big winning Saturday to close the regular season with a 3★ on Army and winning another 3★ on Wofford in the FCS Finals! We are super excited to put out this Double Bowl Issue, and we know all of you are as well. We are confident we are headed in the right direction for the Post Season releases and hope you are board for all of the big winners coming in the next month including the Bowl and Playoff Games of the Year!

The Newsletter Contest

Here is the Newsletter contest for the 2012 football season. We are happy to provide you with the records and standings from the Power Sweep, Gold Sheet, Power Plays, the Sports Reporter, Winning Points, Pointwise and Playbook. The newsletters are graded from the lines in Tuesday's USA Today. If there is no line we will use the first available line in the USA Today. We use the Tuesday line because Newsletters are written on Sunday night and that would be the first day that most subscribers would have access to them as all of the Newsletters post online by then. There will be 6 categories in all. Net winners in College, NFL, and combined as well as the win percentage in College, NFL and combined. An (*) indicates that a Sunday or Monday night game is pending.

CAPS

KEY SELECTIONS

4★ HOUSTON over Indianapolis - The Texans are home after 3 straight road games capped off by facing the Patriots on MNF. Indy was in a favorable spot LW at home vs a Tennessee team with a young QB behind a depleted OL and new play caller. While Luck deserves credit for rallying vs DET keep in mind that while he's avg'd 306 ypg on the road TY he also has completed just 55% w/a 8-13 ratio as well. HOU has solid stat edges with the #5 and #6 units (+14 TO's) vs the Colts #7 and #22 units (-16 TO's). Injuries are starting to crack the Colts defense as they've given up 121 (4.8) ypg rush the L4W and have a 12-4 ratio on the road with just 9 sks. Prior to LW's games Foster had more yds rushing (1,102) than the Colts top 3 rushers (Ballard, Brown, Luck) combined (1,101). Look for Phillips to turn loose the "Bulls on Parade" defense on Luck to set the tone for who rules the AFC South right now.

FORECAST: HOUSTON 30 Indianapolis 3
3★ NY Giants over ATLANTA - The defending SB Champs take on TY's #1 seed in the NFC. The Giants have covered 5 straight as an AD winning 4 outright and have the #9 and #20 units (+6 TO's) vs a tougher sked TY while ATL has the #8 and #20 units (+6 TO's) vs arguably the easiest schedule in the league. This is the 1st team ATL has faced w/a winning record since DEN back in Wk 2 and only the 3rd team with a pass rush (DEN/ARZ) in the top 14 all year (NYG #13). The Giants are 7-2 ATS vs foes with a winning record and if made a dog they are 8-2 ATS in that role incl knocking off SF 26-3. We played against Atlanta LW as our top LPS as they were outgained 270-35 in the 1H!! The Falcons gave up only 2 sacks LW and despite only allowing 7 sacks in the L5 games Ryan has a 7-8 ratio. He may face his toughest pass rush all season as NY has already totaled 4+ sacks 4 times this year. How good is this 11-2 Falcons team that has played the WEAKEST schedule and has only outgained it's opponents by 12 ypg?

FORECAST: NY Giants 24 ATLANTA 13

OTHER SELECTION

2★ Denver over BALTIMORE - The key to the Ravens defense strength for so long is that while they have had player/coach turnover the system has stayed the same making it easy to carry forward. It is also a weakness when a QB like Peyton who has a 7-0 SU/ATS record vs them shows up. Manning has avg'd 248 ypg (64%) w/a 13-5 ratio in that span and he now faces the #23 pass defense that isn't what is used to be. Denver has huge stat edges with the #4 and #4 edges (-2 TO's) vs Baltimore #18 and #24 units (+12 TO's). While Peyton may not be quite as electric as he used to be he's also got the best supporting defensive unit he's ever had. The Ravens reputation is actually working against while they are 20-2 SU at home they are on a 2-6 ATS run. This is the time of year that BAL gets RB Rice rolling but Denver has held 6 of the L7 foes to an avg of 67 ypg (3.1) rush and the Ravens WR's aren't lighting it up TY. Added rest and an easy Thursday win negates the travel and we'll call for the Broncos here.

OTHER GAMES

Cincinnati at PHILADELPHIA - Thursday - This will be the final nationally televised game with Andy Reid with the Eagles. Both teams were involved with last second finishes LW as Foles led the Eagles on a 64/13pl GW drive scoring on the last play while Cincinnati allowed 10 pts in the final 6:35 incl a FG on the final play. Can the Eagles win at home for the first time since Sept or will the Bengals make it 5 road wins in B2B seasons? Start off this GAME OF THE YEAR weekend with a winning Thursday night Marquee!!

Green Bay 30 CHICAGO 23 - The Packers are 8-2 SU/ATS (inc playoffs) in the series winning the previous meeting 23-10 as a 4.5 pt HF. GB dominated every facet of the game with a 321-168 yd edge, pulled in 7 sks forcing 4 ints (10 pts) and scored a TD on a fake FG. Rodgers has fared very well vs the Bears avg 244 ypg (70%) w/a 16-6 ratio and he gets a big break with Urlacher (hamstring) out. GB has avg'd +56 ypg/26 ppg vs top 10 defenses TY and their 3-2 SU/ATS mark is due to the fact they were force feeding the ground game to start the season. Chicago finished with a 438-248 but Culter threw an int that was ret'd to the C5 and threw a pick 6. GB has won & covered 7 straight NFC North games w/a 32-18 avg score and we'll side with the visitor with a 10-3 ATS record in Dec with playoff need vs a depleted Bears team that is 4-10 ATS in Dec.

NEW ORLEANS 30 Tampa Bay 27 - TB is 3-6 ATS vs the Saints including a 35-28 loss as a 1 pt HD as the teams combined for 971 yds. On the final drive TB drove down to the NO 9 but the receiver was pushed out of bounds before catching the ball and the td was nullified on a penalty. This is a favorable matchup for Brees who has avg'd 285 ypg (68%) w/a 20-11 ratio vs the #32 pass defense. The Bucs came out of their bye week winning 5 of 6 and they were the talk of the NFL and with the players excited Schiano's strict rules were easier to take. Now after a loss at Denver and 2 home losses by a combined 3 points the season may start to wear on this very young team. Brees has shown us the L2W that he will play out this season regardless of their record and what better way to show an up and coming challenger in your div that they are not at your level yet by sweeping them.

ST LOUIS 20 Minnesota 13 - With both teams being longshots for the playoffs the Rams are playing for improvement for 2013 but the Vikings are trying to get Peterson to 2000 yds rushing. In 6 games vs teams with a quality run game (WAS, CHI, SEA, SF, BUF) the Rams have allowed 142 ypg rushing (4.6) and the turf here plays to Peterson's strength. Ponder who (had 91 yds LW at home) hasn't impressed on the road TY avg 175 ypg (61%) w/a 6-6 ratio and his 5.2 ypa is less than Peterson's ypc TY (6.0). Both teams have been hampered by their lack of depth at the WR spots TY but Bradford has avg'd 224 ypg (57%) w/a 7-3 ratio the L5W despite playing 4 games vs top 10 defenses as his OL has stabilized. We like how the Rams are gaining momentum for 2013 and while Peterson is likely to get his yards here, SLT has have the better overall defense along with coaching and home field edges in a lower scoring game.

CLEVELAND 21 Washington 17 - The highlight of this game is how CLE was the in the hunt for RG3 in the draft but ended up missing out. This is a slight let down spot for WAS as they are off 3 straight Div games, a local rival and close out with B2B NFC East matchups. Over the L4W these teams are pretty evenly matched with WAS having the #7 and #20 units (+5 TO's) and CLE having the #16 and #11 units (+7 TO's). The return of NT Taylor has shored up the DL as the Browns are only allowing 94 ypg (4.5) rushing the L4W and Griffin's sprained knee will at the least limit his mobility outside the pocket. However, the Giants gave a blueprint on how to deal with him by controlling the ball to keep him off the field. RB Richardson has averaged 27 touches a game since SD also leads the team in rec's. While we appreciate Griffin's game, the Browns are an improving team that is making positive steps and we like them getting points with a road team with a Div road team on deck.

MIAMI 20 Jacksonville 17 - Chad Henne returns to MIA. The Dolphins take a big step down after facing SEA's #3 defense, NE's #1 offense and SF's #2 defense as they now get the Jags #31 and #31 units (+0 TO's) who also has our #32 spec teams. JAX has been outgained by 100 ypg (#32) in NDIV games TY. Already talent poor they have been ravaged by injuries on both sides of the ball with starters missing 16% of starts (#4) prior to LW when they were down to their #4

RB and their top WR with Shorts (43 rec 19.2). Def's caught up to Tannehill in mid-Nov and in his L5 games he's avg'd 189 ypg (55%) w/a 3-6 ratio but this is a good matchup for him here as JAX's #24 pass defense has a 17-10 ratio with just 14 sks so far TY (1 every 32 att). Last week's results reinforce the fact that the Dolphins have average talent and they are not a strong enough team to be laying a td to anyone.

Carolina 28 SAN DIEGO 24 - Rivera was the Chargers DC for Turner from 2008-10 improving the unit from 25th to 16th to #1 which helped him win CAR HC job. Rivers and his beleaguered OL (which had 3 diff starters LW) get a much needed break after facing 3 def in the top 10 the L4W with Baltimore thrown in for good measure. However, SD is 0-6 SU/ATS vs the NFC with a 34-20 avg score. One win will not change our minds on the Chargers who were outgained 340-294 LW but scored a defensive td and 2 short td drives (48 & 17 yds). The Chargers have been outgained at home this season and have not topped 300 yards in any of their last 4 games. The Panthers have been road warriors outgaining foe by 56 ypg while averaging 25 ppg the L5. We'll grab the line value off the Chargers misleading final.

Seattle 23 BUFFALO 16 - Toronto - This would usually be a situational issue with Seattle coming cross country vs an AFC foe. BUF is 1-3 SU/1-2-1 ATS in the Toronto series but SEA is 0-4 SU/ATS as an AF and dealing with susp's to their elite CB's but that was of no concern against the inept Arizona offense. The Seahawks clearly gained revenge for their season opening loss and a put double exclamation marks on it with a 58-0 shutout. The Bills had a 174-71 yd edge at HT but only led 6-3 allowing a 84/14pl drive with a 13 yd GW td pass with :48 left. It'll be tough for Seattle to 100% focused as the 49ers play on Monday Night and a loss at NE would mean next weeks game would be for the NFC West lead. LY in Toronto the Bills won 24-0 vs Washington but they were off a bye while Washington was away for a 2nd straight. We'll limit our number to 7 and we feel Seattle wins but has no reason to pour it on here.

Detroit 23 ARIZONA 19 - Both tms limp in as after a 4-0 start, the Cardinals have dropped 9 str while prior to SNF the Lions had dropped 4 str and were all but eliminated from playoff contention. Just when you thought it couldn't get any worse for the league's #32 off which managed just 5 FD's and 137 yds vs NYJ 2W ago, LW the Cards managed just 10 FD's and 154 yds and failed to reach 20 pts yet again (avg just 10.5 ppg in the losing streak). After the Lindley experiment went south, they unsuccessfully went back to Skelton who had 4 int's and playing behind a depleted young OL that has helped top 4.0 ypc rush in only 3 games. While the SNF results are not known as of presstime, the Lions despite a similar record are clearly the superior tm w/the #2 and #19 units outgaining their foes by 63 ypg vs the #12 sked while ARZ is being outgained by 68 ypg against the #6 sked. ARZ is the 5th tm in the L25Y to allow 50+ while scoring 7 or less and there has been 2 occurrences in the L4 yrs w/TEN winning and covering their next 5 gms in '09 while LY Indy would lose their next 4 gms SU/ATS. Finally it should be noted that teams are 1-7 SU/ATS in Dec off a shutout loss as DET will be the team that stops their bleeding here.

Pittsburgh 23 DALLAS 16 - One of the better rivalries in NFL history with classic Super Bowl matchups, these two have met only twice s/98 w/the Steelers taking both SU/ATS. LW in a similar situation to what KC faced the wk prior, DAL (+3) played with a ton of emotion for their fallen teammate and rallied from a 9 pt deficit to give us a 3★ LPS outright upset winner over CIN 20-19. The return of Murray gave the Cowboy off some balance as in the 3 gms he's rushed 18+ times they have won. Like LY, Romo continued his late ssn success as after st'g the yr w/a 9-13 ratio, he's rebounded w/a 11-3 ratio since the start of Nov while leading the Cowboys to wins in 4 of their L5 gms. PIT also saw the return of a key off player LW but QB Roethlisberger had a much different result. The Chargers got off to a fast start not all'g Roethlisberger to get comfortable as he threw 1 int and had a botched screen pass that turned into a SD td. However, we expect him to shake off the rust TW against a Cowboys tm that is all'g 36 ppg and 430 ypg in its L2 HG's. Can there be a better technical advantage than the Steelers off a SU loss (10-2-1 ATS) against a DAL tm that is 3-16 ATS as a HF? In a gm w/huge playoff implications for both tms, we'll take the much more reliable Steelers in their role vs a DAL that will have to deal w/an emotional letdown similar to what the Chiefs faced LW.

Kansas City 21 OAKLAND 19 - The AD has won outright and covered 10 straight in the series incl earlier TY when OAK (+1) won 26-16 as KC QB Quinn was knocked out. LW we easily cashed a 3★ on these pages going against the Chiefs as KC's letdown was to be expected after an emotional wk. After RB Charles broke a 80-yd td on the gm's 1st play, the Chiefs were shutout the rest of the way as Quinn was constantly harassed (5 sks) and excluding a 2-0 ratio in the CAR win, he has an 0-5 ratio TY. The #22 off continues to have no problem moving the ball but putting pts on the scoreboard has been a different story as they have failed to reach 17 pts in 8 of their L9 gms and their 22.4 off ypg is dead last. LW the Raiders lost their 6th str gm overall as they were rolled by DEN 26-13 as we cashed another Thurs Night Marquee on the UNDER. With the gm still in the balance, Palmer's TO's woes continued as his 1 int thwarted a possible scoring drive and a lost fmb set up an easy DEN td that sealed the win. Both tms rush D's are among the league's worst but naturally the diff here could be the KC #5 run gm that has been their lone bright spot. While neither is a play-on tm at this point, there's no way we are stepping in front of series history and we'll gladly take the AD.

San Francisco at NEW ENGLAND - What a couple of weeks as NE hosted Houston on MN and now gets the 49ers. Both teams still battling for playoff seedings and NE is in a spot which they've excelled at going 12-0 SU and 10-2 ATS as a HF of 7 or less failing to cover the 2 losses by 3 points. SF however is 4-1 SU/ATS as a dog the L2Y pulling the upset 4 times. This marquee will be available after 11 AM EST for $9 on the NC Sports Debit Card and on the Marquee-7pack!

NY Jets at TENNESSEE - The Titans have not been a regular in front of the prime time cameras but they did upset Pittsburgh as a 6 pt HD earlier TY. The Jets meanwhile have already lost to Houston and NE and while they have won 3 of their last 4 it was vs teams with a combined 12 wins. Can Johnson break out against a rush D that is #29 or will the Jets win and cover on the second of B2B road games for the third time this season? Get both the Monday Night Magic and Marquee on Ext #3 and button #2 on the NC Sports Debit card for an unannounced special of $15!!

OVERALL - BYU by 7 ✓'s

BYU HC Mendenhall has now led the Cougars to a bowl in each of his 8 yrs with the program (5-2 SU/ATS). BYU was 2-4 SU/3-3 ATS vs bowl eligible squads TY, being outscored by the slightest of margins (17.7-17.5) but did outgain their foes 340-311. This is BYU's first Poinsettia Bowl appearance although they are familiar with both SDSt and this stadium having played the Aztecs every yr from '98-'10 going 11-2 SU (9-4 ATS) as previous conf members. After opening at 2-3, the Aztecs finished with a 7 gm win streak to go bowling for the 3rd consec yr. SDSt went 3-3 SU (4-2 ATS) vs bowl eligible squads also being outscored by a slight margin (29.5-29.0) and being outgained 417-340. This is SDSt's 2nd Poinsettia Bowl in the past 3 yrs (beat Navy 35-14 in '10) and HC Rocky Long's 7th bowl overall (2-4 SU/ATS) after earning MW Coach of the Year.

BYU has had 3 different starters at QB TY. While Riley Nelson has started the majority of the games (10) for our #56 offense, he was inj'd for the finale, giving way to Sr Lark, who threw for 384 yds (68%) with a 6-0 ratio as his 1st career start! After rushing for 155 yds on just 15 carries vs Hawaii, 17 year old RB Williams took over as the starter in wk 6 vs Utah St and has avg 79 ypg over his L/8 gms. Against the vaunted Notre Dame def, Williams rushed for 68 yds which doesn't seem like much, but that total was the 4th most rushing yds the Irish allowed all ssn to an opposing RB! WR Hoffman has 3 straight games of 100+ yds and became BYU's first 1,000 yd receiver since '08. The OL (6'5" 306) is led by Outland and Lombardi Watch List honoree Braden Hansen, who shifted from LG to C at midseason. While the Cougars rush numbers are up slightly (160 ypg LY to 162 ypg TY) their ypc (4.2 LY to 4.1) and sack % (3.7 LY to 6.2 TY) have slipped. Defense is the calling card for this BYU team as they are among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (#3, 84 ypg), total defense (#3, 266 ypg) and points allowed (#6, 14.7) finishing with our #10 ranking. On the season they have held five opponents to their season low in total yds! Compared to last season, their rush ypg improved from allowing 112 ypg (3.7 LY to 84 ypg (2.7 TY) and their pass ypg improved from allowing 201 ypg (57.9%) LY to 182 ypg (57.9%) TY (our #31 rated pass eff def). BYU has our #49 ranked ST's unit with DE Russell Tialavea having blocked 3 kicks TY.

Lose your starting QB and not miss a beat? That is exactly what happened when Katz went down vs Nevada, and the Dingwell era subsequently began after he led the comeback win. He then led the Aztecs to the win at #19 Boise as SDSt became the 1st team to win at Nev and Boise in the same ssn since they were IAA teams. The Aztecs have our #68 offense avg 408 ypg and 35 ppg. SDSt has the #16 rush offense led by the Thunder and Lightning combo of Muema (#17 FBS) and Sade. Five WR's have over 15 grabs but the top guy is Mackey semifinalist Escobar. The OL is led by 3 Sr's paving the way for 229 ypg (5.1) with 30 sks (9.3%) and avg a towering 6'5" 298. The Aztec 3-3-5 defense struggled early in the year and after allowing a ssn high 655 yds and 52 pts to Fresno, allowed just 334 ypg and 19 ppg on their 7 gm win streak. SDSt has our #64 ranked D all'g 25 ppg and 375 ypg. The young DL has been a concern with just 6 of the tm's 32 sks (19%) while all'g 140 ypg (3.7) on the ground. The heart and soul of D is LB Fely who leads the tm in sks. The Aztecs have our #97 pass eff D all'g 235 ypg (63%) with a 23-11 ratio. The secondary has 4 of the top 8 tk'lrs which is never a good thing. SDSt has our #16 ST's ranking despite Long having a lot of fans up in arms early when he failed to find a K in fall, deciding on a "go-for-it" mentality that may have cost him in the opener. K Marden is 8-12 (L/46) and P McMorrow avg's 41.9. The true star is KR Lockett (26.7) who had 2 KR td's.

These two were both MW members and BYU won the last 2 times here ('07 and '09). The Cougars' D has been phenomenal allowing just 14.7 ppg and has kept every non-BCS team to 20 points or less. SDSt comes into this game covering 6 of the last 7 and this was their bowl of choice (to stay home). BYU has already proven they are a very capable road tm as they beat GT and lost at Utah, Boise St and Notre Dame by a combined 7 points. The Cougars D has held 5 opponents to season lows, are great travelers and will send the Aztecs home disappointed.

FRESNO ST (9-3)

The Mustangs head back to post ssn paradise for the 3rd time in their history where they are 2-0 SU/1-0 ATS incl a huge 45-10 upset (+12) over Nevada in which they held current 49ers starting QB Kaepernick to 200 ttl yds. HC Jones is 6-3 SU/5-4 ATS in bowls leading SMU to its school record 4th straight (2-1 SU/ATS) and obviously he is well acquainted with the facilities as he served as Hawaii's HC from '99-'07. The Bulldogs are appearing in their 12th bowl gm in the L14Y (none in '06 & '11) and 7 of those gms were decided by one score or less (5 ppg avg) with FSU going 2-6 SU/3-5 ATS in those gms. Fresno is looking to shake 3 str bowl losses after losing 40-17 (+1) to NI in the '10 Humanitarian. This year they are 11-1 ATS (incl 7 as DD fav). The slightest strength of schedule edge to SMU, who played our #82 toughest, while FSU played our #84.

SMU won 4 of its final 6 gms to make it to the post ssn. This has been a different kind of tm for passing guru Jones as the 237 pass ypg are his fewest as a college HC. QB Gilbert, who missed spring ball while graduating from Texas, won the QB job in Aug but struggled with accuracy issues having the rare distinction of leading 2 different conf's in int during his career. Jones smartly dialed down the number of passes and instead relied on RB Line who became the 1st Pony back to have 3 ssns with 1,200 rush yds as he led the conf in rushing for the 3rd straight ssn. Line is also 1 td shy of Eric Dickerson's career td record (46). After having two 1,000 yd rec's LY the Ponies didn't have one crack 750 as Sr Darius Johnson led the way. The OL (6'3" 296) had some issues as they all'd 29 sks (5.9%). SMU finished with our #80 off and #59 D. The Ponies run a 3-4 which has excelled at forcing TO's leading the CUSA with 33 (28 at home), and stopping the run (129, 3.9). The DL measures 6'5" 280 led by giant (6'8" 275) Estonian DE Hunt. The LB's are the top 3 tk'l'rs with MLB Reed leading the tm in tfl while WLB Davis had a huge gm in the bowl clinching win over CUSA West champ Tulsa as he blk'd a P, had a FF and an int. SMU has our #20 pass eff D (271, 55%, 26-19) with CB Acker finishing 3rd in the conf in pd. The ST's (#70) were mediocre across the board with K Hoyer hitting 16-26 incl 2-8 from 40+ with 3 blk's. The tm's net P was 35.8 while they all'd 9.5 on PR's and 21.0 on KR's. Acker (14.0) was the top PR while Thompson (25.7) led in KR's.

Tim DeRuyter took over for Pat Hill who departed after 9 losses in 2011. DeRuyter proclaimed that FSU would win the conference championship during his intro speech, and he came through, as the Bulldogs captured a share of the MW Title (1st s/99 WAC). He installed a new no huddle, up tempo spread offense and the Bulldogs improved from #52 scoring off LY to #13 TY. FSU has our #20 off avg 489 ypg and 40 ppg. MW OPOY QB Carr had three 400+ yd gms and finished the ssn #7 in the FBS in pass eff while avg 321 ypg with a 36-5 ratio. The Bulldogs have the ability to score at anytime with explosive playmakers like RB Rouse (#13 FBS w/122 ypg), WR Burse and rFr Adams who was named the MW Frosh POY. The OL avg 6'4" 305 with 2 Sr's paving the way for 166 ypg (4.4) while all'g 22 sks (4.6%). FSU switched to a 3-4 D and has our #42 ranking all'g 336 ypg and 22 ppg with 35 sks. The DL avg 6'2" 291 and all'd 172 ypg rush (4.0). The defense battled inj but DE Jennings and LB Okpalauogo stepped up to comb for 21.5 tfl. The star of the defense is MW DPOY Thomas who has an FBS leading 8 int and right behind him is Smith with 6 picks. FSU has our #23 pass eff D (#8 FBS) all'g 163 ypg (52%) with a 14-20 ratio (6 IR td's). The Bulldogs have our #25 ST's lead by P Shapiro's 42.4 avg and PK Breshears' 11-14 FG's (L/43). FSU had one of the best PR LY in Devon Wylie but Evans has been a capable replacement and had a huge 78 yd ret for a td vs Wyoming.

It is well noted that FSU is 11-1 ATS this year with the team making huge strides under 1st yr HC DeRuyter with the talent edges here. However, SMU HC Jones and the Ponies wanted to be here and got the bid very similar to their 2009 appearance. That year SMU was +12 vs a superior Nevada team and won outright 45-10. This year they are one of the team's that no one will want to play on vs FSU's outstanding numbers but that's probably the time to back the sizeable dog with plenty of time to prep.

2012 SPECIAL TEAMS RATINGS

In the text of the bowl write-ups, we have ranked each special teams unit. We devised a formula which takes into account net punting, kick returns, punt returns & kick return defense. The total opportunities for each team was also factored into the equation. As an example, this year, San Jose St punted 51 times and returned just 16 punts all year. Their net punting average was weighted over 3 times as much as their punt return average ranking due to the difference in attempts. We added a new category a few years ago for net return TD/Blk's. A negative number means a team allowed more blocks & TD's than they garnered. A positive number means that they blk'd more kicks and scored more TD's on returns than they allowed. If a team blocked a punt AND returned the same punt for a TD, we only gave credit for one TD/Blk. However if a team fumbled a punt snap and the other team recovered it we counted that as a blocked punt.

A few years ago we added a formula to grade the kickers and we looked at them in 6 categories. The first was overall accuracy and that % was multiplied by 5 (graded everything on a scale of 1-5). Then we took the amount of FG's made and divided it into the largest amount of FG's made (24) and that percentage was multiplied by 5. Each accounted for 30% of the overall grade. Then we looked at the FG's between 40-49 yds (both # of kicks and %) and that accounted for 30% of the grade. The 50+ factors accounted for 10% of the grade. This grading method gave kickers with stronger legs a higher grade. In past years we have listed a special teams rating, a kicker rating and then two years ago added a combined special teams rating. The K rating accounts for about 26% of the overall grade. This year we just list them by the combined rating, but for you long-time readers looking for the individual ratings that are in the chart listed below.

First meeting. Third yr HC Dan Enos has CM back bowling after a two yr hiatus. This is Enos' 1st bowl as a HC and CM's 7th overall. They are 2-4 SU/2-2-1 ATS, incl 1-2 SU/2-1 ATS in this bowl (previously called Motor City). CM was 0-5 SU/ATS vs bowl tms getting outscored 44-22 and outgained 477-351. The Chippewas played our #118 schedule. It took HC Taggart only 3 yrs to turn his alma mater around as after taking over an 0-12 tm in 2010, the Hilltoppers improved from 2 wins to 7 wins and won 7 again TY. While WKU was denied a bowl LY despite being eligible, they are excited in Bowling Green now that they're going bowling for the first time in their short FBS history. WKU was 1-4 SU/3-2 ATS vs bowl tms being outscored 31-25 and outgained 394-378. If you remove Bama from the equation, you will find it interesting that despite just 1 win SU, the Hilltoppers outscored (31-30) and outgained (417-411) their other bowl despite just 1 win SU, WKU played our #98 schedule.

After reaching 4 straight bowls from '06-'09 under HC's Brian Kelly and Butch Jones, Dan Enos took over and won just 6 gms his 1st two ssn's. After a 2-5 start, a bowl possibility was looking grim, but the sked got easier and CM won 4 of its L/5 to get in. Our #82 off features a balanced attack. Sr QB Radcliff is a veteran with 36 straight sts under his belt. His fav target is Wilson, while the deep threat is Davis. Together they have accounted for 48% of Radcliff's completions. Tipton became the 1st CM RB to break the 1,000 yd barrier s/05. He has been on a tear, ending the ssn w/6 straight 100 yd gms, avg 149 ypg (6.1) down the stretch. The OL avg 6'4" 303 with 3 Sr str's led by possible high NFL draft choice OT Fisher. After being held under 100 rush yds in 3 of their 1st 5 FBS gms, the Chippewas responded avg 176.5 rush ypg in their L/6. The sks all'd have remained consistent, allowing just 14 (3.7%) TY vs 17 (3.7%) LY. Both starting LB's had over 100 tkl's for our #110 def. CM had trouble stopping the run, all'g 197 rush ypg (4.9). They did improve over the L/2 gms, however, all'g just 69 rush ypg (2.2). CM also had trouble defending the pass, as foes completed 62% vs our #93 pass eff D. CM has 17 sks with 10 of them coming in the L/4 gms. The Chippewas showed a big improvement in the ST's, as they finished #46 in our rankings, up from #88 LY. KR Lavallii avg's a respectable 23.7 per return.

Taggart uses a run dominated West Coast offense that he learned from the Harbaugh family as he played and cch'd under Jack and also cch'd under Jim. The workhorse is RB Andrews, who finished #6 in the FBS in rush ypg despite not being the starter when the season began. He rushed for over 100 yds in 9 of the L/10 gms, incl 3 times over 200 yds. QB Jakes is 1 td pass away from becoming WKU's all-time leader in that category. When the running game isn't effective, Jakes has proven to be a solid decision maker. His fav target is TE Doyle, a Mackey semifinalist, who's caught a pass in 21 of his L/22 gms incl all 12 TY. The OL avg 6'4" 304 with 2 Sr str's and has increased its rush ypg from 182 (4.0) LY to 186 (4.7) TY, while their sks have increased slightly from 22 (7.3%) LY to 24 (7.7%) TY. Overall, WKU has our #99 ranked off. LB Jackson is the leader of our #54 D, which has allowed just 1 foe to gain over 385 yds on the ssn. Just how good is the WKU D? They held Bama to its second fewest tkl yds on the ssn! A huge part of that will be missing, however, as DE Smith, the nation's leader in sks/gm, is out after tearing his ACL in the 2nd to last gm. Smith alone had 3 sks on Bama's coveted OL and NFL scouts are extremely high on him. WKU has our #51 pass eff D and S Dowling is #5 in the FBS in int/gm. RB Andrews' name again comes up when talking about our #28 ST's unit. Not only is he a premier RB, but is also an effective RM, avg 12.8 on PR's (#13 FBS) and 28.0 on KR's (#16 FBS). He leads the nation in all-purpose yds avg over 248 tkl yds/gm!

On Bowl Selection Sunday these two were both projected to be home for the holidays. Central's location got them selected. The teams are polar opposites in the way that they finished the season as WKU won only 2 of their final 4 SU (were on a 15 gm ATS win streak) while CM was dead in the water at 2-5 but won 4 of their final 5. We'll ride the hot team, playing in their home state.

This is the 1st meeting between the schools and the 1st appearance for both in this gm. The Falcons are back in the post season after a 2 yr absence and this will be HC Dave Clawson's 2nd bowl appearance as BG lost a heartbreaker to WAC member Idaho, 43-42, in the Humanitarian Bowl in his inaugural campaign. After winning 10 gms for the 1st time s/87 the #24 Spartans are going bowling for the 1st time s/06 when they upset NM 20-12 (+3) in front of their home fans in the New Mexico Bowl. This is MacIntyre's first bowl gm as a HC and he's considered a hot commodity in coaching circles (interviewed at Cal, Temple candidate). SJSt has never played a bowl gm east of the Mississippi or in potential cold weather. BG was 1-4 SU/2-3 ATS vs bowl tms TY getting outscored 27-16 and outgained 376-334. The Spartans were 4-2 SU/5-1 ATS vs bowl tms TY outscoring them 28-27 and outgaining them 415-393 while playing a tougher schedule than BG (#79-121). SJSt was 7-2 ATS as a fav TY (10-2 ATS overall) while BG was 2-2 ATS as a dog.

The Falcons have our #100 off overall while BG was 2-2 ATS as a dog. The Falcons have our #100 off overall while BG was 2-2 ATS as a dog. Now in his 3rd yr as str, Jr QB Schilz struggled after an impressive '11 ssn which saw him throw for 3,024 yds (60%) and 28 td's. With his regression the Falcons decided to focus more on the run and Samuel led BG in rushing for a 2nd consec ssn and he finds himself just 34 yds away from the 1,000 yd mark. WR's Gallon and Joplin have pulled in 10 of the tm's 16 td rec's and each tallied 600+ yds. The OL (6'3" 299) paved the way for 157 rush ypg (4.5) while all'g just 13 sks (3.2%). The BG defense was a big reason that they find themselves in the post ssn as they finished with our #31 ranking all'g just 16 ppg (#9 FBS) and 290 ypg (#7 FBS). The DL (6'2" 268) was led by MAC DPOY Chris Jones who led the conf in sks and finished 2nd in tkl. The DL all'd opps to rush for 117 ypg (3.6) while recording 24 of the tm's 37 sks (65%). LB's Gabe Martin, Dwayne Woods and Paul Swan finished 1st, 2nd and 3rd on the tm in tkl's while the Falcons were #28 in our pass eff def all'g 173 ypg (56%) and an impressive 9-10 ratio. The ST finished in the middle of the pack (#57) in our rankings. KR Booboo Gates was unable to relieve his stellar ssn of '11 when he had a 25.8 avg (88 yd td). BG is also just 7-15 on FG att's TY, a far cry from the success their counterpart have had.

In the Spartans 10 wins TY they were dominant outgaining foes by 121 ypg and outscoring them by 19 ppg, in fact only twice did they fail to win by more than DD. Impressively, their 2 losses came to tms with a combined 20-4 record and they were outgained by just 3 ypg in those gms. Not only has HC MacIntyre elevated the Spartans to new heights TY (1-12 to 5-7 to 10-2) some of the success has to do with ZERO sts lost to inj on offense. QB Fales had six 300+ gms and over the final 7 avg he avg'd 343 ypg (70.2%) w/a 22-6 ratio. The running gm was not special but took a lot of pressure off of Fales. The receiving unit was led by Grigsby who posted his first 1,000 yd ssn. The OL (6'4" 288) had 5 upperclassmen str's incl 1 Sr and allowed 25 sks (5.9%) paving the way for 124 ypg (3.5). Overall SJSt is #54 in our off ranking and #56 on def. The DL avg 6'4" 269 with 2 Sr str's (3 upperclassmen) and had 35.5 (89%) of the tm's 40 sks. They allow 124 rush ypg (3.6). The Spartans def is led by a pair of Jr LB's in Smith (#1 tkl'r) and Buhagiar (#2 tkl'r). SJSt has been gashed at times during the ssn as 5 times they have allowed 400+ yds. SJSt does have a veteran laden secondary led by a Sr safety duo of Orth and Newsome. SJSt has our #50 pass eff D all'g 228 ypg (58%) with an 18-15 ratio. The ST finished #75 as Lopez (15-15, L/45) emerged to take the FG duties so Wald can just worry about punting (36.7 net). Overall SJSt is a much better offense and a solid defense, BG's stop unit has been exceptional TY. The California Kids could be in a huge shock if this bowl has weather as it has the past several years. The Spartans were favored twice vs winning teams TY, splitting those 2 games, but both were at home and we feel laying over a td to a superior defense is not the way to go. BG, meanwhile, has been a dog 4x's TY going 2-2 ATS but 2 of those gms were vs VT and Florida and they beat Ohio in their last game.

Cincinnati is back in a bowl for the 2nd straight yr under HC Butch Jones (1-2 SU, 2-1 ATS at UC and CM) and will be making its first trip to the Belk Bowl vs a Duke squad that they have never faced. The Bearcats faced 7 bowl caliber tms going 4-3 SU and 5-2 ATS outscoring those 26-21 but were outgained by 2 ypg. HC Cutcliffe earned ACC Coach of the Year after leading Duke to a 6-6 record, more wins than last 2Y combined and their first bowl since 1994 (9th overall) despite dropping their last 4. The Devils faced 7 bowl caliber tms going 1-6 SU/ATS being outscored 46-23 and outgained 527-379!! Duke scored at least 30 pts in 6 wins but scored 24+ in just one of their losses. Cutcliffe previously led Ole Miss to 4 bowls in 6 ssn.

The Bearcats have our #50 offense avg 31 ppg and 431 ypg. After some struggles at midseason QB Legaux was benched in favor of Kay who has, in turn, helped guide UC to wins in 3 of their L/4 gms and is now the clear-cut starter heading into the bowl. While the Bearcats were projected to struggle in the running game with the loss of Sr Isaiah Pead, Winn stepped to the forefront and has nearly surpassed Pead's 1,259 yd mark of LY (just 55 yds away). UC has 4 different players with more than 350 yds receiving TY with TE Kelce leading the way (#1 in rec, rec yds and rec td's). The OL avg 6'5" 286 and paved the way for 200 ypg (5.2) rushing while all'g just 13 sks (3.8%), an improvement from LY's mark of 22. The D has our #44 ranking all'g 17 ppg and 374 ypg. The DL is a bit undersized at 6'2" 261 and their numbers showed it as they all'd 130 ypg (3.7) on the ground, 35 ypg more than LY. A big reason for the drop, however, was due to the loss of their defensive leader Walter Stewart who saw his career end after just 5 gms TY (DL recorded 14 of tm's 31 sks with Stewart racking up 5 during his shortened ssn). LB Blair led the Bearcats in tkls (#2 BE) while fellow LB Bomar finished a distant 2nd. UC finished with our #15 pass eff def all'g 244 ypg (55%, 11-14 ratio) despite LY's #2 tk'l'r S Frey missing time with inj (T-6th on tm in tkls). The Bearcats have our #42 ranked ST's led by the 26.0 KR avg from Ralph David Abernathy.

Duke came into the year with the most exp'd QB in the ACC, and the Devils are putting up schl record numbers under Cutcliffe. Duke has our number #45 off avg 31 ppg (+8 from LY) and 397 ypg (+31). QB Renfree is #14 in the FBS in passing and has two dependable WR's that finished #4 and #5 in the ACC. Vernon set the ACC record in career rec/yds and is the only player in ACC history to have 4 years with 70+ rec's. But one cannot live by the pass alone, and the Devils looked to build a strong run gm coming into the ssn to compliment their QB. They did improve, but not by much (94 ypg to 119) despite a 234 yd performance vs NC. The OL started every gm together TY with 1 Sr and they avg 6'4" 299 and paved the way for 119 ypg (3.6). The Devils run a 4-2-5 D that is safety driven, have our #104 ranking and allowed 35 ppg and 462 ypg!! The DL avg 6'4" 273 all'g 200 rush ypg (4.8) but gave up 270 ypg (5.6) their L/6. The defense battled injuries at every spot but most notably in the secondary. The Devils are #92 in our pass eff D all'g 262 ypg (57%) with a 25-11 ratio led by 1st Tm ACC CB Cockrell's 5 int's (tied #1 ACC) and #1 tk'l'r All-ACC S Canty. The top 4 tk'l'rs are all DB's. Duke is #85 in our ST's which can be contributed to the KO cover unit and KR's, an abysmal #117 and #113 in the FBS respectively.

Cincy is playing its 2nd straight bowl in an NFL stadium against an in-state opponent. Now the Bearcats are dealing with the potential loss of their head coach as he is on top of many of the short lists for the open coaching jobs. The wait is over for the Blue Devils and their offense is actually the best that Cincy has faced this year. With a pair of receivers that have combined for 1,980 yards, the Bearcats secondary will be stretched. Duke is coming in on a 4 game losing streak (SU and ATS) but in fact their last 6 foes were all bowl eligible. Now they face an opponent much more similar to the 6 teams which they beat and covered against. While backdoor potential is always open with Renfree, we feel this excited unit can pull the outright upset.

Butch Jones has been to 3 bowls but vet Cutcliffe excited in his 1st bowl s'03.

Duke ply'g in same state and the Cameron Craziess have the whole wk off so they'll be rooting for the FB tm.

UC has ply'd just 2 decent pass offenses (Syr, Lville) and all'd 502 ypg in those two.

1st bowl for DU s'94 and excitement on campus for the other sports tm.

INDEPENDENCE BOWL

ULM (8-4)

Dec 28th • 2:00 pm ESPN • Independence Stadium, Shreveport, LA

POWER PLAYS PROJECTION table with columns: RUSH, PASS, POINTS, YTD TO, ST, A.O.R. for OHIO and ULM.

BOBCATS ATS: 4-8 O/U: 5-6

Bobcats team statistics table including Rushing, Passing, Receiving, Punting, Kicking, and Punt Returns.

WARHAWKS ATS: 8-4 O/U: 9-3

Warhawks team statistics table including Rushing, Passing, Receiving, Punting, Kicking, and Punt Returns.

First meeting. This is Ohio's 7th all-time bowl appearance and 5th in HC Solich's 8 yrs. Solich is now 3-6 SU/ATS in bowls and he led OU to its 1st ever bowl win in LY's Idaho Potato Bowl.

Ohio was crashing right along at 7-0 incl an opening ssn win at Penn St earning media mentions as a possible BCS buster. Looking closely at their schedule, however, shows that the Bobcats' early ssn conf schedule was extremely soft and they were just squeaking by the bottom feeders of Buff, Akron, and UMass (outgained by all 3).

ULM was the early ssn media darling after knocking off Arkansas and falling to Auburn in OT to open the ssn. The offense started on fire as the Warhawks had 500 or more yds of tll off in 4 of their 1st 5 gms.

Summary table for Ohio vs ULM with columns: QB, RB, WR, CCH, Turf/Crowd, MTCH, ST, SCH, and Overall ULM by 5' s.

These two D's have comb to allow 53 ppg and they were banged up down the stretch allowing a comb 60 ppg their last 4. The two offenses both rank higher than the opposing defenses.

FORECAST: OVER Ohio/ULM RATING: 1★

RUTGERS (9-3)

RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL

VIRGINIA TECH (6-6)

Dec 28th • 5:30 pm ESPN • Florida Citrus Bowl • Orlando, FL

POWER PLAYS PROJECTION table with columns: RUSH, PASS, POINTS, YTD TO, ST, A.O.R. for RUTGERS and VIRGINIA TECH.

SCARLET KNIGHTS ATS: 7-4 O/U: 3-7

Scarlet Knights team statistics table including Rushing, Passing, Receiving, Punting, Kicking, and Punt Returns.

HOKIES ATS: 3-9 O/U: 5-5-1

Hokies team statistics table including Rushing, Passing, Receiving, Punting, Kicking, and Punt Returns.

In the driver's seat for their first berth into a BCS bowl game, the Knights lost their final 2 gms including a home matchup vs Louisville in the ssn finale to fall to here. This marks the 2nd consec trip to a bowl for Rutgers but the 1st under new HC Kyle Flood who was on this staff previously with Greg Schiano.

The Knights have our #93 ranked off that averages 22 ppg and 341 ypg. After battling Chas Dodd most of '11 for the starting QB job, Gary Nova was the clear-cut st'r heading into TY and if you would take away a disastrous performance in their loss to Kent St (6 int's), Nova would have tossed just 9 on the year while seeing his td's increase from 11 to 22.

Despite entering the ssn with an inexp'd off, VT did bring back a legit Heisman candidate in QB Logan Thomas, but he has been a disappointment and the Hokies off has struggled (our #65 unit). Thomas has just about the same amount of pass yds and td's as LY, but his comp % has fallen from 59.8% LY to just 52.6% TY.

Summary table for Rutgers vs Virginia Tech with columns: QB, RB, WR, CCH, Turf/Crowd, MTCH, ST, SCH, and Overall Virginia Tech by 6' s.

Traditionally winning BCS programs that are 6-6, such as the Hokies, have a lot to play for to finish with a winning record. Rutgers has been an excellent bowl team in the past but the HC that got them those wins and covers is now in the NFL.

FORECAST: VIRGINIA TECH over Rutgers RATING: 3★

After 8 consecutive post season appearances, a 5-7 record LY kept the Midshipmen at home. After an 8-4 campaign they find themselves back in a bowl and journey to San Francisco for the 2nd time as they were here in '04 when they knocked off New Mexico 34-19 (+4). HC Ken Niumatalolo enters his 5th bowl (interim HC in '07) where he has gone 1-3 SU (-2 ATS). The Midshipmen and Sun Devils have never played. In the past 7 ssn's ASU HC Todd Graham has guided 4 different tms to bowl gms (3-1 SU/ATS, did not coach Pitt in their bowl LY). The Sun Devils have now made B2B bowls, but lost LY 52-24 (+14'). ASU has played our #49 toughest sked while Navy has played just our #104.

Navy has our #84 toughest offense avg 25 ppg and 386 ypg. After beginning the ssn with Jr Miller at QB the coaching staff made the switch to true frosh Reynolds who in turn led the Midshipmen to a 6-1 record and finished 3rd on the tm in rushing. In limited passing Reynolds also found success completing 58% with an 8-1 ratio (17 tt td's). The rest of the running gm was focused around SB Greene and FB Copeland who finished 1st and 2nd on the tm in rushing respectively. Niumatalolo proclaimed that Turner was one of the best WR's he's had here and he led the tm in rec and rec td's on the yr. The OL avg 6'2" 286 and paved the way for 286 ypg (5.3) on the ground (6th in FBS) while all'g 19 sks (13.3%). The D has our #70 ranking all'g 23 ppg and 389 ypg. The 3-man DL unit (6'2" 266) all'd 161 ypg (4.3) on the ground while posting 6 of the tm's 17 sks (35%). The LB's finished 2nd, 3rd and 4th on the tm in tkls with Wetzel (#4 tkf'r) also leading Navy in sks and tfl. The Midshipmen have our #87 ranked pass eff D all'g 226 ypg (68%) with a 12-8 ratio as S Bush led the tm in tkls. Navy had our #96 ranked ST's with K Sloan converting on 9 of his 13 FG att's and P Beltran finishing with a 45.1 avg.

The Sun Devils #25 off avg's 36 ppg and 449 ypg in Graham's "High Octane" offense. With the early departure of QB Brock Osweiler to the NFL, ASU endured a 3-way QB battle in camp with Kelly winning the starting job. Kelly eclipsed the 3,000 yd mark in tfl offense TY starting all 12 gms while Eubank handled the role as the tm's wildcard QB earning 56 rush att's on the year. The RB duties were split between a trio of backs TY in returning starter Marshall and newcomers JUCO Grice and true frosh Foster. Grice and Foster also proved to be a force out of the backfield on passing downs finishing 2nd and 3rd on the tm in receptions behind TE Coyle. The OL led by 3Y starters LT Evan Finkenberger and RG Andrew Sampson avg 6'4" 292 and paved the way for 191 ypg (4.2) on the ground but did allow 37 sks (9.4%). The D has our #21 ranking all'g 24 ppg and 351 ypg under co-DC's Randolph and West. The DL avg 6'1" 269 and is led by AA DT Sutton. The unit all'd 172 ypg (4.1) on the ground while recording 28.5 of the tm's 49 sks (58%). The LB's are led once again by the tm's leading tkf'r Magee who returned to excellent form in '12 following an Achilles inj that forced him to miss all of LY. ASU's secondary became one of the most dangerous in the nation as they finished with our #4 pass eff def all'g 181 ypg (51%) with a 21-20 ratio. The ST's unit (#41) is led by the steady foot of P Hubner who avg's 47.1 per punt with a tm net of 40.7.

As you can see by the checklist, any time a service academy is playing a BCS team they are limited stature-wise due to military restrictions. They, of course, make it up with heart, enthusiasm, preparation and focus and have always been a solid play in bowls. ASU's DL is among the NCAA leaders in sks and we feel they'll struggle having to play disciplined D vs the option. On defense Navy will have to get a pass rush to keep it close but we think they can do that. Navy is on a 13-4 ATS run as an underdog and we'll call for them to keep it under the Vegas number.

FORECAST: 1★ Navy (if less than +10) • 2★ Navy (if +10 or more)

These former Big East rivals who annually ('55-'11) played for the Schwartzwalder Trophy meet up in the Pinstripe Bowl. After WV had won 8 in a row in the series (6-2 ATS), the Orange pulled DD upsets in '10-'11. This is WV's 1st trip to Yankee Stadium while the Orange played in the inaugural contest beating KSU 36-34 (E) in 2010. WV's Holgorsen won his 1st bowl gm LY in record setting fashion upsetting Clemson 70-33 (+3) in the Orange Bowl. After just missing out on a bowl in '11 with a 5-7 record, the Orange are back in the post season TY under 4th yr HC Doug Marrone, who was victorious SU and ATS in his only other trip to a bowl in '10's Pinstripe at Yankee Stadium. WV played our #21 sked, while Syr played our #39.

On Oct 12th the 5-0 #5 ranked Mountaineers had their sights set a little higher than a cold weather Dec afternoon bowl game. On Oct 13th the reality of the B12 set in with 2 straight trips to Texas facing some of the nation's top skill players. A 49-14 loss to TT began an epic 5 gm slide in which WV was outscored by nearly 20 ppg. To their credit the Mountaineers won their L2 gms to go bowling for an 11th straight ssn. Sept Heisman winner Geno Smith (432, 83%, 20-0 in 1st 4) had a streak of 274 passes without an int snapped in the loss to KSU when the Cats held WV to 155 pass yds, the lowest tfl ever by a Holgorsen coached team. The real issue on off was a lack of balance as RB Alston was banged up most of the ssn and Buie isn't an every down back. The staff moved the FBS's #1 rec Austin to share the TB duties vs OU and he responded with a school record smashing 344 rush yds! He shared the job in the L2 and is expected to do so again in the bowl. Bailey leads the nation in rec with 23 and is #3 in ypg (125.1). The OL (6'5" 315) has 3 Sr str's and all'd 20 sks (3.9%). WV has our #4 off and #82 D. The Mountaineers D struggles were masked by the early ssn off explosion but became the focus during the losing stretch. The DL (6'4" 290) did its job plugging up run lanes (143, 3.5) but the front 7 generated little pass pressure (11 sks in B12 play). Four of the top 6 tkf'r's were LB's with BLB Francis the standout (#1 tfl). WV finished #123 in our pass eff D where the CB's struggled while leading tkf'r Joseph was the only member of the secondary to start all 12 gms. The ST's (#54) are where the dynamic Austin shines as a PR (11.0) and KR (26.4). WV used 3 diff P's before settling on K Bittancourt (11-18 FG, L/52) to handle both jobs as the tm finished with a 34.6 net (#100 FBS). The coverage units all'd 24.0 on KR and 7.5 on PR.

The Orange have our #33 off avg 29 ppg and 473 ypg led by Sr QB Nassib who has broken nearly every Syr passing record. Nassib saved his best for last eclipsing the 3,000 yd passing mark for the 1st time with the Orange as OC Hackett switched the offense to the up-tempo style that most of the nation is currently using. While the loss of RB Bailey (1051 rush yds LY) to graduation appeared to be a concern, Smith stepped to the forefront and surpassed the 1,000 yd plateau while Gulley complemented him with 600+ rush yds and 7 td's of his own. With Nassib's prolific numbers it was a foregone conclusion that some of his WR arsenal would find success as well with Lemon surpassing the 1,000 yd mark despite an early ssn inj and Sales just 137 yds away from 1,000. The OL avg 6'4" 289 and paved the way for 172 ypg (4.2) while all'g just 14 sks (3.1%) compared to 37 (8.9%) LY. This is even more impressive due to the fact that their top OL, LT Justin Pugh missed the 1st 4 gms with inj. The D has our #65 ranking all'g 26 ppg and 385 ypg under DC Shafer. The DL avg 6'2" 267 and recorded 10.5 of the tm's 24 sks while all'g 148 ypg (4.1) on the ground. The LB trio of Davis, Diabate and Spruill along with their top player and leading tkf'r SS Thomas were the main reason that Syr was able to rattle off victories in 5 of their final 6 gms. The Orange finished with our #105 pass eff D all'g 237 ypg (63%, 21-9) and a #99 mark on ST's as K Krautman hit on just 62% of his FG att's after converting on nearly 80% LY.

Last year these two met as Big East foes with WV ranked #11 and a 2 td fav at Syracuse but the Mountaineers lost 49-23. This year they meet as Big East vs Big 12 and next year it would be an ACC vs Big 12 matchup. It was no surprise to us that the Mountaineers would finish in this spot after their 5-0 start but they now have to be completely discouraged as the public and media basically named Geno Smith the Heisman winner and had them in a BCS bowl. All Syracuse does is play solid, basic football and did so again this year, especially down the stretch where they went 5-1 SU/ATS. Windy December NY days don't make a passing team happy.

FORECAST: SYRACUSE (+) over W Virginia RATING: 2★

NC State will be making its 3rd straight bowl but will be doing so without HC O'Brien who was cut loose after a mediocre ssn 7-5 (5-6-1 ATS). State opened with a disappointing loss to Tenn and seemed to have turned it around with a HUGE win over #4 FSU and stood at 5-2. NCSt dropped 3 of their last 5 and O'Brien was let go. The interim is Dana Bible who has been the OC here since '07 and the Pack is 2-1 & 3-0 ATS in that time in bowls incl LY's 31-24 (-2) win over Louisville in front of the hometown crowd in the Belk Bowl. NCSt faced 5 bowl caliber tms going 2-3 SU/ATS getting outgained 511-476 and outscored 34-29 while VU is 1-4 (SU/ATS) vs bowl tms getting outscored 29-15 (-72 ypg). After a 2-4 start to the '12 ssn the Commodores won 6 straight to head to back-to-back bowl gms for the 1st time in school history. VU is 2-2-1 SU (1-2 ATS) in its history in bowls losing to Cincy (E) in LY's Liberty Bowl in HC Franklin's post ssn debut.

OVERALL - TULSA by 1/2 ✓s

Tulsa has a chance for redemption here as they play Iowa St for the 2nd time TY (only bowl rematch) after losing 38-23 in the season opener (outgained 441-358). The Cyclones were angry at oddsmakers for making them the underdog in that game and will not be pleased to discover that they've been installed as the dog once again. After coming out victorious for a 2nd time in 3 wks against UCF, the Hurricane earn a trip to their 2nd ever Liberty Bowl (2005). Tulsa is playing in its 3rd consec bowl and 2nd under HC Bill Blankenship (lost 24-21 to BYU in LY's Armed Forces Bowl, +2) who was an asst here under the previous regime. ISU is making its 2nd visit to Memphis, losing to GT 31-30 in '72. The Cyclones are in their 3rd bowl under Rhoads (1-1 SU/ATS) whose team has won 24 gms in his tenure despite being fav'd just 11 times.

ISU began the year with Jantz at QB due to his playmaking ability. After a decent start in non-conf play, he had 4 TO's in the B12 opener vs TT which cost him his job. Barnett came in and knocked off a ranked tm from Texas on the road for a 2nd straight ssn throwing for 3 td's in the upset of #15 TCU. After 2 losses Jantz started vs Baylor and tied ISU's comp mark (36) and had 5 td's. He suffered a head inj vs KU which forced Rhoads to go with option #3 r/r Richardson. Richardson responded with 5 tfl td's in the win securing bowl elig and is likely to remain the QB for the bowl. The pass gm strugles have all'd D's to load the box and as a result ISU's top rusher Johnson (504, 4.4) had the tm's only 100 yd rushing performance by a TB in the opener. WR Lenz missed 5 gms but still led the tm in rec (430, 14.8) while #3 Horne was benched at times for drops. The OL (6'6" 301) all'd just 14 sks (3.2%) with 5 starting 59 of 60 gms although RT Burris (knee) is expected to miss the bowl. ISU finished with our #73 off. The D (#48) is the reason ISU is back in the post ssn. They are an old school bend-but-don't break unit which held 11 of their 12 opp under their ssn scoring avg.

The smallish (6'4" 264) front is anchored by NFL prospect DT McDonough. LB's Klein and George finished as the top 2 tk/r's but the loss of All-B12 LB Knott was felt as they all'd 19.8 ppg in the 1st 8 vs 30.5 ppg without him. ISU is #47 in our pass eff D (280, 61%, 18-13) despite a CB duo on the short side (Watson 5'9", Reeves 5'7"). Watson (MCL) missed the L/3 gms of the ssn but is expected to return here. The ST's (#22) are the best in the Rhoads era thanks to P Van Der Kamp who had a 39.2 net incl 28 downed in 20 while K Arceo hit 11-16 FG's incl 8-12 from 40+ (L/51).

Tulsa has our #44 offense avg 35 ppg and 461 ypg led by former Nebraska transfer QB Green who showed the ability to be a weapon with both his arm and legs (20 tfl td's). The RB corps featured a trio of impact players in Watts (best all-around), Douglas (fastest on tm) and the 6'1" 260 lb Singleton who was the tm's short-yardage back (22 tfl td's). The group accounted for 83% of the tm's rush total. The Hurricane's #1 target in the passing game was WR Garrett who pulled in 9 of the tm's 19 td catches. The OL avg 6'3" 293 and paved the way for 240 ypg (5.0) on the ground while all'g just 9 sks (2.0%). They will, however, have to probably count on bkp Stafford to fill in at RT for 25 gm str DeShane who suffered a broken leg vs SMU. The D has our #37 ranking and all'd 24 ppg and 354 ypg. The DL (6'3" 274) gave up 121 rush ypg (3.2) on the year with 30 of Tulsa's CUSA-leading 44 sks (63%). After leading the Hurricane in tkls in '09 with 102, LB Brown missed most of the past 2 ssn with inj. Now healthy, Brown again leads TU in tkls surpassing his '09 mark with 125 while placing 2nd on the tm in sks and 1st in tfl. The Hurricane have our #21 pass eff def ranking all'g 233 ypg (56%, 18-10) behind a unit that features 3 Sr's and a Jr in the starting rotation. Tulsa has our #97 ranked ST's with Watts being the group's best weapon (KR and PR for td's TY).

The checklist shows you that Tulsa is far superior on the stat page but Iowa St played a Big 12 schedule while CUSA TY is among the weakest conferences in the country. With this being the only rematch of this bowl season and the line right where we would put it, we will have this selection for you on Button #2 of our Comp Line at 1-347-677-1700 after noon ET on gameday!

Going into their annual Bedlam rivalry gm with OU, the Cowboys were looking at a possible at-large BCS bowl bid but lost their L2 gms to fall to the bottom of the B12 bowl pecking order and play a 6-6 tm under an interim HC. This is the 2nd meeting ever with a Drew Brees led Boilers beating OSU (+4) 33-20 in the '97 Alamogordo OSU alum and HC Gundy has led the program to a school rec'd 7th straight bowl appearance and he's 4-2 SU/3-3 ATS although eyebrows were raised when he reportedly interviewed for the Tennessee job the day the bowl bid was announced. OSU has played our #18 sked, while PU has played the #53.

Despite being bowl eligible in B2B ssn for the 1st time s/06-07, the Boilers fired 4th yr HC Hope one day after beating rival Indiana. Pressn expectations may have something to do with it as Hope repeatedly called the 2012 Boilers his best team and "legit contenders" as they ret'd a league high 19 str. Instead PU started conf play 0-5 losing by an avg of 21 ppg which reportedly began the protracted negotiations to buy out Hope's contract. WR cch Higgins, who called the plays in the L/3 gms after OC Nord was out with a back inj, will act as interim HC. The Boilers also made a change at QB with TerBush, who started the 1st 8 gms, officially being benched after the loss to Minny. Despite playing with a torn ACL, which will require surgery after the ssn, Marvel led the tm to wins in their final 3 gms throwing for 262 ypg (72%) with a 7-1 ratio in the process. The Boilers have a 3-headed monster at RB in Shavers, Hunt and Bolden who combined for 1,423 yds (5.6). Three WR's had 40 rec's with Edison and Bush combining for 15 td's. The OL (6"4" 296) allowed 22 sks (4.9%) and paved the way for 165 rush ypg (4.5). Overall PU has our #61 off. Perhaps the most disappointing aspect of the Boilers is a D which, despite being led by 1 of the league's most talented DT's, Short (6 sk, 8.5 tfl), still all'd 180 rush ypg (4.7). Lucas led the LB's in tkls with just 63 and the D is designed to funnel plays to the S's with Feichter leading the tm in tkls. PU finished #43 in our pass eff D (228, 57%, 16-14) even though the CB's are on the shorter side with 3 of the top 4 under 6'0". Overall PU has our #68 D. Hope had improved PU's ST's every yr since he arrived until TY when the Boilers finished #65. The K gm was inconsistent with McCarty and Griggs combining to hit 9-13 FG's and missing 5 xp's. P Webster avg'd 42.5 with a 37.2 net although he had 3 P's blk'd. PU led the FBS in KR LY but the numbers dropped a bit TY with Mostert (14, 26.8) missing 5 gms although Hunt (22, 1) had a 100 yd KR td vs OSU. PR's were a problem with PU avg just 3.2. The coverage units allowed 7.5 on PR's and 21.5 on KR's.

After LY's #3 finish the Cowboys had to rebuild on off with just 4 str's back losing #1 DC's QB Weeden and WR Blackmon. Even though frosh QB Lunt won the job out of ty, he saw action in the fewest gms (5) as he was inj'd twice. The more mobile Walsh started 3 gms before suffering a leg inj which was initially thought to knock him OFY but he ret'd as a short yd/GL QB in the L/3. After Lunt ret'd for 2 sts he was replaced after a head inj in the KSU gm by LY's bkp Chelf who started the final four avg 277 ypg (59%) with a 10-4 ratio. The top target is Walsh's HS tmate Stewart who finished #4 in the B12 in rec's. Randle led the B12 in rushing and carries. The OL (6'4" 315) starts 2 Sr's and all'd 10 sks (2.2%) as the QB's get rid of the ball quickly. OSU has our #5 off and #36 D. The bend-don't-break unit thrived on TO's in '11 (FBS best 44) but with those in much shorter supply TY (17) they did improve their yd totals drastically. The DL (6'3" 279) was led by All-B12 DT Barnett who clogged run lanes and led the tm in tfl. The Cowboys used a LB rotation with Elkins leading the tm in tkls with just 73. OSU ranks #41 in our pass eff D allowing 286 ypg (61%) with an 18-9 ratio. The starting secondary has 4 of the tm's top 5 tkrls led by CB Gilbert who led the tm in pd (9). Under Gundy OSU's ST's (#21) are always among the B12's best. K/P Sharp led the nation in FG's (25-31, L/51) and TB (71) while finishing with a 40.0 net. Gilbert (26.4) tied the B12 rec'd with his 5th career KR td TY. Moore was the top PR (7.2) and Craig blk'd 2 vs TT. The coverage units were the reason the ST's didn't finish in the top 10 as they all'd 12.3 on PR and 25.2 on KR with 3 combined td's. PU has already all'd 500 yds or more 4x this season and this will be the best offense they have played to date. With Marvel clearly the st'r down the stretch PU's offense avg'd 482 ypg the L/3 gms. While OSU has ply'd some dynamic offenses, the D has all'd 617 ypg the L/2 and is all g'g 523 ypg away from home. All of Oklahoma St's L/5 gms have gone over this number and they'll push the pace again here.

First meeting between the schools. MSU got its biggest bowl win ever in '10's Gator Bowl when they beat Mich 52-14 (-3) while this is NU's 1st trip to Jacksonville. This is the 1st time MSU has been to 3 str bowls s/98-00 and it is Mullen's 3rd bowl gm as a HC where he is 2-0 SU/1-1 ATS. How important is it for NU to win a bowl game? In LY's bowl Fitz dressed up a stuffed monkey in a #63 jersey which symbolized the number of yrs it's been since the Cats last won a bowl game. NU still lost 33-22 (+9') to an A&M team who fired its HC. It was NU's 9th straight post season defeat incl the L/4 under Fitzgerald (3-1 ATS). The Bulldogs were 1-4 SU/ATS vs bowl tms, being outscored 31-21 and outgained 466-341 while NU was 4-3 SU/5-1-1 ATS outscoring them 28-27.6 despite being outgained 438-317! A look inside the ATS numbers against those same bowl teams show that MSU is perfect as they won fav (1-0) and lost as a dog (0-4) while the Cats were 4-1 ATS as a dog in those gms. The Bulldogs have a slight strength of schedule edge #55-62.

Fitzgerald has his alma mater bowl elig for the 6th str season and playing on NY's day for the 3rd time in the L/4Y. The Cats dual QB system features Colter who finished with more rush yds (820, 5.2, 12 td) than pass yds (796, 6.9%, 8-2) while 6'3" 210 So Siemian is a strong armed passing QB (99 ypg, 59%, 6-2). Colter's option wizardry combined with RB Mark's blazing speed made a headcase for opp LB's as Mark became the 1st Cat to rush for 1,000 yds since Tyrell Sutton in '06. The off became predictable at times which caused opps to stuff the box after falling behind early and with NU content to sit on the ball they blew DD 2H leads in all 3 of their losses TY. The rec corps was shockingly weak with just two 100 yd gms on the ssn and 1 came from Colter when he started at WR vs Indy and became the 1st player in FBS history to have 150 rush yds (161) and 100 rec yds (131) in the same gm. Christian Jones led the rec's with just 373 yds. The OL measures 6'5" 307 with 3 Sr str's led by LT Ward. The Cats improved across the board defensively coming in as our #55 stop unit. The DL allowed just 123 rush ypg (3.6) and is led by DE Scott who finished #4 in the B10 with 7 sks. The LB's are the tm's top 3 tkrl's with Proby, Nwabusi and Arizugo combining for 285 tkls and 18 tfl. NU ranks #55 in our pass eff D with the secondary taking a big hit when top CB VanHoose missed 3 straight gms incl the Michigan contest when his replacement batted a desperation Hall Mary to Wolves WR Roundtree which set up the gm tying FG on the last play of regulation. The Cats have our #32 ST's led by the exciting Mark whose 20.1 ypr on PR would lead the FBS if he had enough ret's to qualify. He surprisingly avg'd just 19.7 on KR. The coverage units allowed 4.3 on PR and 19.9 on KR. K Budzian hit 17-18 FG's while P Williams had a 37.8 net with 19 inside the 20.

Things were looking bright for MSU as they started the season 7-0 heading into their showdown with top ranked Bama, but after that crushing 31 pt defeat, they limped to the end of the season having lost 4 of 5 and their once dominant off only avg 315 tfl ypg in those losses. First yr st'r QB Russell had a fine ssn and although he never eclipsed the 300 yd mark, he did enjoy a fine 22-6 ratio. WR Bumphis had four 100 yd rec gms, incl making 9 catches for 140 yds vs the vaunted LSU def. RB Perkins had 2 100 yd rush gms, but those were vs lowly SBC D's, Troy and MT. The OL avg 6'5" 307 and after avg 181 rush ypg (4.9) in the 1st 7 gms, they were held under 100 yds in 4 of their L/5 gms incl 3 times under 50! Overall MSU has our #42 ranked off. MSU has a slightly better D in terms of ranking (our #34) and is led by Sr LB Lawrence, who has led the Bulldogs in tkls in B2B years. The DL improved in rush yds allowed from 175 (4.4) LY to 166 (4.3) TY, but the sacks dropped from 27 LY to just 19 TY. After holding opponents under 20 ppg the L/2Y, MSU has given up 22.4 ppg TY. MSU has our #53 pass eff D, but with an impressive 17-16 ratio. The Bulldogs made a huge jump in our ST rankings from #62 LY all the way up to #26 TY. KR Jameson Lewis is #17 in the nation avg 28.1 ypr.

While on the surface you may think this is a mismatch with an SEC tm going against an over-matched, slower, typical Northwestern team, the checklist disproves that. Also, we feel this Wildcat team is undervalued at 9-3, as all 3 of their losses were blown 4Q leads and they very easily could have found themselves playing in a much bigger bowl. Nonetheless, the NCAA record 9 game bowl losing streak has to end at Fitzgerald everyday and now he finally has a legitimate chance to end the Wildcats drought. NU picks up its first bowl win since 1948.

The losers of the SEC/B10 title games meet here for the 2nd time in their history with NU winning the 1st meeting 45-6 in the '69 Sun Bowl. The Huskers make their 2nd straight trip to Orlando where they are 0-2 SU/ATS incl LY's loss 30-13 loss (+2) to SC, as we won our 2011 Bowl GOY on the Gamecocks. NU HC Pelini is 3-2 SU/ATS in bowls but has lost his L/2 and this is his 2nd matchup vs an SEC tm. NU is allowing 30 ppg and 400 ypg in their L/17 away from home (8-9 SU). The Huskers have played our #44 schedule. UGA has now been to a bowl in each of HC Richt's 12 seasons going 7-4 SU (6-5 ATS) including twice to this very bowl in '03 and '08 coming out victorious in both (8th NYD bowl under Richt). UGA has played our #38 toughest schedule incl 6 bowl caliber squads going 4-2 SU (5-1 ATS) outscoring them by a 30-17 margin (outgained those foes 395-362).

NU came into this season looking to win its 1st conf title s/99 and get to its first BCS bowl s/01. After the Huskers longest in-conf win streak (6 games) s/01 they fell far short of their goal after an embarrassing 70-31 pasting by Wisconsin in the B10 Title game. The hurry up offense is run by the school's all-time leading passer Martinez who led the B10 in pass eff but also had 8 TO's incl 2 pick sixes in NU's 3 losses. He did lead the Huskers to four 4Q come-from-behind wins which clinched the Legends div. RB Burkhead was considered a darkhorse Heisman candidate coming into the season but battled injury's which caused him to miss 6 games although he still avg'd 7.2 ypc. Speedy Abdullah led the Huskers with 1,089 (5.0) as a soph. The WR corps is among the B10's best with Bell being the big play threat while #2 Enunwa is a physical downfield blk'r. The OL (6'4" 300) features 3 ex-walk-ons and all'd 30 sks (8.5%) with C Jackson (ankle) missing the B10 Title game. NU has our #18 off and #35 D. The smallest DL (6'4" 266) all'd 418 rush ypg (8.1) in their 3 losses TY incl a school record 539 rush yds to Wisky where they greatly missed Sr Steinkuhler (knee, CS). DE Martin (8.5 sk) is #3 in the B10 in sks. Compton leads the tm in tkls but the LB's are still a unit in transition from the B12 to the more physical B10. The Huskers have our #9 pass eff D (148, 46%, 13-11) as they led the FBS in pass D using press coverage. The ST's (#92) were a disappointment as the coverage units all'd 11.5 on PR and 21.3 on KR. The return units were better with PR Abdullah (13.1) and KR Bell (23.2). K/P Maher hit 19-25 FG's incl 3-5 from 50+ although his net was just 36.5.

The Bulldogs have our #11 ranked offense avg 37 ppg and 458 ypg. Jr QB Murray leads the unit starting all 40 games in his career and trailing just David Greene and Eric Zeier for the all-time passing mark here. UGA features a solid true frosh RB duo in leading rusher Gurley and #2 Marshall who have combined for 83% of the tm's rushing yds and 24 of their 31 rushing td's. King and Mitchell are the top 2 receiving targets here but they will be forced to play without their #3 WR Brown after he tore his ACL vs Ole Miss. The OL avg 6'4" 309 and paved the way for 184 ypg (4.9) on the ground while all'g 25 sks (6.8%). The Bulldogs have our #11 ranked D that allows 19 ppg and 351 ypg. The 3-man DL unit (6'3" 308) struggled in stopping the run TY as they all'd 178 ypg (4.1) on the ground, their worst mark since the 1994 season. The group recorded just 3.5 of the tm's 27 sks (13%) and will once again be without starting DE Abery Jones (26 car sts) who also missed the L/6 games of the regular season. While Ogletree leads the tm in tkls despite playing just 9 games, the real story at LB has been the continued dominance of Jarvis Jones who is tied for 4th in the nation in sks while leading the FBS in tfl. UGA finished with our #48 ranked pass eff (174 ypg, 57%, 11-11 ratio) led by #2 tk'l'r SS Williams. Georgia had our #24 ranked ST's which had Gurley avg 34.7 yds per KR (1 td) in his 7 att's on the yr (Malcolm Mitchell 23.1 per KR).

While the checklist does favor Nebraska here, we do think Richt is one of the better bowl coaches which negates that. Therefore we'll look at the total and see that Georgia comes in with 6 of 7 Unders and clearly both of these teams champ games have inflated the number. If you read our system on pg 32 which told you to play the Under in this game, it should have read that if a 9+ win tm lost by 14+ and all'd 40+ in their last gm to play the under and that is the play here.

KEY SELECTIONS

3★ PITTSBURGH over Cincinnati - This game has huge playoff implications in deciding the #6 seed in the AFC. PIT has won and covered 5 straight vs CIN including a 24-17 win as a 1 pt AF in the 1st meeting. It wasn't as close as the score indicated as they logged a 22-11 FD and a 431-185 yd edge with a 15 min TOP edge. Roethlisberger hasn't dominated CIN in these games (224 ypg 66% 5-3 ratio) but the defense has dominated Dalton in his 3 meetings holding him to an avg of 137 ypg (49%) w/a 4-3 ratio. The Bengals have won 4 of their 6 road games this year avg 395 ypg BUT those foes had an average defensive ranking of #22 with 4 of them ranked #23 or higher. The Steelers #1 D has shut down their opponents holding their L/8 to 242 ypg and 15 FD's/gm. In Big Ben's first game back the expected rust showed but he still totaled just 340. Now being off B2B home losses this will be a circle the wagons game. Better D, better team looking up in the standings makes this a classic contender vs pretender. FORECAST: PITTSBURGH 27 Cincinnati 10

OTHER SELECTIONS

2★ Indianapolis over KANSAS CITY - This is the 3rd straight meeting with the Chiefs winning LY's contest 28-24 as a 1 pt AD. This game is a prime example of how the league is QB driven with Colts having the #3 offense with a rising rookie QB and the Chiefs having the #22 due to their issues. Indy has won the yardage battle in 7 straight before LW while KC has been outgained in 6 of their L9. The Colts have won 7 of their last 8 with the only loss coming at NE where Indy actually had a yardage edge. Some may write that Luck is starting to wear down only completing 50% his L/4 games but we feel that's he now accustomed to the offense. In his first 6 games he had a ypa of 6.7 while in his last 7 he's stretched the field and his ypa has increased to 7.6 now facing a KC secondary that ranks dead last in QBR defense with a 7-21 ratio. Two teams headed in different directions and KC's only win at home TY was their rally game after the tragedy. Indy is also 4-0 off a SU loss if they fell to Houston LW. FORECAST: Indianapolis 31 KANSAS CITY 17

2★ NY Giants over BALTIMORE - This is the 3rd road game in 4 weeks for the Giants who are 11-3 ATS in Dec road games while Baltimore is 1-4 ATS at home. Neither team can afford to let up as they position themselves for playoff seeding. This is the second time this year that Eli will face the same team Peyton did the previous week but in the first the Giants lost due to being -3 in TO's. Taking a look at the season you'll see that the Ravens have been outgained by 32 ypg vs the #23 schedule while the Giants played a tougher schedule (#17) and are only -3 ypg. The Ravens had won 21 of 22 home games after they beat Cleveland earlier this year but since have lost ATS to Dallas and Pittsburgh and while they beat Oakland they were outgained by all 3 by an avg of 82 ypg. That bodes well for the Giants who thrive as a dog going 11-2 ATS with 9 upsets and their only 2 non-covers were LY vs SF the week after upsetting NE and at NO on MN. Baltimore may have taken Super Bowl 35 but the Giants take this one. FORECAST: NY Giants 34 BALTIMORE 20

PLEASE NOTE: This Double Issue has 2 weeks of NFL write-ups with this being the second week. If a major injury or a drastic shift in the expected line occurs we reserve the right to differ from the Other Selections below. WE WILL NOT GO AGAINST A STAR RATED PLAY!

OTHER GAMES

Atlanta at DETROIT - Saturday. The Falcons had everything cliched going into Carolina and were embarrassed in the loss. They hosted the Giants LW and you know they expended energy against the defending Super Bowl champs and now travel on a short week. The Lions are playing for pride but unfortunately all we know at presstime is that they dropped 4 straight and just traveled to GB and Arizona. Have to feel with the Lions already having 4 home losses incl 3 straight that the crowd will be far less than excited in this meaningless game. NFL Marquess are 53-19 74% the L2Y and this Saturday Night Play will be available after 11AM est gameday.

GREEN BAY 34 Tennessee 17 - Tough spot for Tennessee off LW's MN game vs the Jets and now travel to a playoff need GB team in cold weather. Tennessee lost 2 starting OL prior the Jets game and against 3-4 defenses they are 1-4 SU/ATS with the only win vs a tired PIT team travelling on Thursday. GB is 7-0 SU/ATS at home in Dec w/a 37-15 avg score prior to DET and they have a huge edge with Rodgers (255 ypg 67% 14-5 at home TY) vs the #18 pass defense w/a 24-10 ratio. We aren't worried about RB Johnson influencing the pace of the game here as GB has only allowed 76 ypg (3.7) vs foes w/a losing record TY. We also like the matchup of Capers w/a defense that is expected to get healthier vs a young QB here. We'll call for the home team by 17 in a higher scoring game at this point.

CAROLINA 31 Oakland 20 - Here we go again is the phrase heard around Oakland. The Raiders have made a debacle of hiring HC's as Allen was the 8th in 12 years and the rumors are flying again. How much motivation can the Oakland players have on a 6 game losing streak, traveling cross county and playing at 10 AM local time. The Raiders lost their two earlier trips to the east coast to Miami and Baltimore by a combined 57 points and have 5 road losses by 23 ypg. Carolina may finish with fewer wins than LY but they are still playing competitively and with excitement as the D has allowed 328 ypg the L9W. In their L/4 home games the Panthers have only avg'd 15 ppg but that was against defenses that ranked #3, #4 and #11. In the 4 games prior to press time Newton had accounted for 10 td's and 0 TO's and now faces a defense that is allowing 67% completions. The Panthers impress in their home finale.

Buffalo 21 MIAMI 17 - It's a 3-way battle for 2nd place in the AFC East and while all 3 teams may have losing records it would be important for these 2 teams. Miami is 1-6-1 ATS hosting a DIV foe and BUF took advantage of a MIA team travelling on a short week with a 19-14 win (-2.5) earlier TY. While BUF held a tired MIA team to 184 yds (11 of 12 drives under 35 yds) they only managed 4 FG's on their 4 drives inside the MIA 20 in the 1H. Tannehill had a nice stretch in games 2-4 (438 ypg) but since that time teams have shut down the rookie led offense holding them to 280 yards or less in 7 of 9 games and under 15 FD's/gm. LY the Bills collapsed down the stretch going 1-8 SU and have to feel they learned from that disappointing lesson. The D has led the way the L/5 games as they are #3 in the NFL allowing 273 ypg and that includes NE's #1 offense and Indy's #3! We'll always take an experienced QB with a rush attack gaining 5.1 ypc down the stretch while the DL is only allowing 3.1 ypc. Bills DL has 12 sacks the L4W while Miami will clearly be feeling the loss of LT Long they will need to start keeping a RB in which will change their offense.

New England 31 JACKSONVILLE 10 - This is the biggest mismatch game of the week and NE is 13-5-2 ATS as an AF of 7 or more. For most teams this would be a letdown situation with NE off the Jets, Dolphins and back to back primetime games vs the Texans and 49ers with Miami on deck. However, the Patriots are still fighting for playoff position here and Brady has avg'd 310 ypg (65%) with a 16-3 ratio and NE has outgained foes by 73 ypg (+13 TO's) on the road TY. The Jag's top yardage output of 458 yds was vs Houston in an almost full OT session and NE has topped that 4 times TY. Jacksonville is averaging 11 ppg at home. Henne has only avg'd 269 ypg (59%) w/a 6-6 ratio (1-4 SU/3-2 ATS) vs NE but this is the least talented team he's worked with. It might surprise you that NE has rushed for the second most att's in the NFL and now they take on a DL that allowed 398 yds rushing its L/2 games. With JAX having just 14 sacks TY look for NE's #1 offense to make Jaguars the #32 defense after this.

DALLAS 27 New Orleans 21 - DAL is 0-9 ATS at home pending LW's game and 6-20-1 ATS as a favorite. However, they have a bit of a situational edge having been at home LW while NO is paying for their #1 schedule from LY having faced SF, ATL, NYG and an improved TB unit. The line is likely to be inflated due to America's Team facing playoff need and they are 2-6 ATS in Dec. Entering LW the Cowboys had the stat edges with the #10 and #11 units on the year vs NO's #3 and #32 units. Brees has had to play perfect ball for NO to win as they are 0-4 SU/ATS when he throws 2 or more ints. Can't lay too much with this poor HF and Brees always has backdoor potential so we will call the Cowboys by 6.

Washington 31 PHILADELPHIA 24 - The Redskins are actually 4-1 ATS at PHI and this is all but certain to be Reid's final home game with the team. PHI does have the extra rest after facing Cincy LW on Thur and DIV home teams are 12-4 ATS. WAS shredded PHI 31-6 after their bye as a 3.5 pt HF with a 361-257 yd edge as Griffin completed 14 of 15 passes (200 yds) with 4 tds in Foles (204 yds 46% 0-2) first career start. PHI is not only getting playing time for a young QB for the next coach but they dumped the wide-9 defense after the DAL loss and are evaluating youth on that side as well. Foles has now entrenched himself as the QB by leading the Eagles to a come from behind win at TB. At the same time as that comeback RGIII fought through an injured knee and he and Cousins led the Skins to OT and a win over the Ravens. Washington may still be alive for the playoffs but that creates pressure, an inflated line and more incentive for the Eagles.

TAMPA BAY 23 St Louis 20 - This game will probably have no playoff implications. Both are similar as we feel each is heading in the right direction under new HC's. Tampa has a middle of the road off (#14) vs St Louis' above average D (#10) while the Rams #25 off gets to face the Bucs #29 D. We're seeing the maturation process of these Rams as since their bye they tied SF (+13), upset Arizona on the road, beat SF (+7.5) and improved to 5-1 ATS on the road after upsetting Buffalo. Tampa Bay failed in their first test as the hunted losing outright on the final play vs Philly as a 7.5 pt fav. Now they return home after a trip to the Super Dome. The Buc's have lost 3 straight up to this printing deadline and with a possible 4 game losing streak it will be interesting to see how Schiano's disciplined approach works when everything is not going well.

HOUSTON 27 Minnesota 20 - This is a letdown spot for HOU after 3 straight road games with NE on MNF followed up by their 1st matchup vs Luck. However, DD non-conf HF's in DEC are 14-5 ATS. This is MIN's 4th road game in 5 weeks and they are 7-17-1 ATS away pending STL. They are also 4-10 ATS vs the AFC and this is Peterson's biggest test of the year vs the #2 rush defense. You need multiple weapons to attack this Texans D and missing Harvin clearly hurts Minnesota here. Andre Johnson meanwhile gets to attack a Vikings secondary allowing 65% completions. The Texans are still defending a first round bye while Vikings D is wearing out having allowed a season high to GB while Chicago got their #2 offensive performance on the road.

DENVER 34 Cleveland 20 - The mention of this matchup is like nails to a chalkboard for Browns fans going through the "drive" and the "fumble". This is the biggest test for the Browns defense as they haven't faced a top tier QB with a full set of weapons yet. CLE is 2-6 ATS as a NDIV AD while Denver had covered 4 straight vs NDIV foes prior to LW. Weeden's road stats are respectable as he's avg'd 295 ypg (61%) w/a 9-5 ratio and 7.5 ypa. However, CLE has scored 20 or less in their L3 road games despite only being outgained 18 ypg on the road TY. DEN has outgained foes 438-268 in their L4 HG's w/a 33-8 avg score. The one thing you can't afford to do when facing Manning is to give him time. There have been 7 games this season when Denver has allowed under 2 sacks and he's thrown for 295 ypg and 74% completions and Cleveland has failed to reach 2 sacks in 4 of their last 6 games. We don't feel the Browns offense on the road which scored 20 pts vs Oakland's #30 D, 20 vs Dallas' #11 D and 13 vs Indy's #22 D will be able to keep it close vs Denver's #4 D.

Chicago 23 ARIZONA 16 - A month ago this would have been marked as an easy win for the Bears but injuries at OL and to Urlacher as well as the possible return of Kolb have changed that. CHI is 7-2-1 ATS as an AF but ARZ is 6-2 ATS as a NDIV HD. The Bears could be off 3 straight losses but still in the hunt for a playoff berth. Their losses TY have been to GB, Houston, SF, Seattle and Minnesota while as a fav of over a FG they are 7-0 SU and 5-2 ATS winning those 7 by 19 ppg. Arizona started off 3-0 SU at home but since has gone 0-3 SU/ATS failing to cover by 12 ppg. We've got the NFL's #1 QBR defense that is #9 in sacks against the Card's who are last in sacks allowed and have an offense that can't run (#32) or pass (#28). The only thing could make the Bears an even stronger play would be ST's which is where they excel as they hold down our #1 ranking. The Bears still have a lot to play for while the Card's are trying not to become the first in over 25 years to win their first four and lose their final 12.

SEATTLE 17 San Francisco 16 - The 2011 NFC West champ travels to face the 2010 champ in what may be the game that decides the 2012 champ. The first meeting ended as you would expect with 2 top 4 defenses as both team combined for 19 pts, 31 FD's and 564 yards. Seattle's "12th man" has led to a perfect 6-0 SU/ATS record with their last home loss coming LY in their home finale against this same 49ers team (SF -1, 19-17). Since Kaepernick took over his 2 road games were at NO and St Louis where they scored just 13 points as a 7 pt fav. The Seahawks have shut down every opponent at home except NE as in their other 5 games they're allowing 238 ypg and two of SF's 3 losses were when they were held to under 100 yards rushing. SF is on a second straight away and off prime timer at NE and we'll call for Carroll to get an early Christmas present and beat Harbaugh for the first time in 4 NFL meetings.

San Diego at NY JETS - This is the SNF "we missed the playoffs" game of the week. At the time of this game we expect at least one of these two teams to already have made management changes. The Jets have lost both primetime home games this year but that was vs NE and Houston which they did cover against. The Chargers were "going through the motions" having lost 4 straight prior to the PIT win, but what still is surprising is their offense has only avg'd 320 ypg in that span. The more excited team should take this and we'll have it as our Sunday Night Marquee after 11 am est gameday.

Linebacker (LB) is the key position for both teams. OU's LB unit is considered a strength, while A&M's LB unit is a weakness. The game is expected to be a defensive struggle.

This is the Aggies 4th str bowl gm (1-2 SU/ATS) but 1st under HC Sumlin who was 1-2 SU/ATS at Houston (did not coach LY's win over PSU). Once the initial outrage over the Sooners losing out on a BCS bowl died down, OU realized it got a nice conciliation prize of facing B12 turnout Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl. This is just the 2nd Cotton Bowl in OU history with the Sooners (-13) beating Ark 10-3 in 2001. Obviously, the former South rivals are quite familiar with one another with OU leading the series 11-5 SU (7-9 ATS) in B12 play including LY's 41-25 (-13) win. 'Big Game Bob' Stoops is just 7-6 SU/5-8 ATS in bowls and faces his former pupil here in Sumlin who served as an assistant in Norman from '03-'07.

It was a memorable ssn in more ways than one for the Aggies. While many thought they would struggle in their 1st yr of SEC play under new HC Sumlin, the Aggies did just the opposite. They obtained their 1st DD win ssn s/'98 which incl their 2nd win over a top ranked tm. QB Manziel broke the SEC record for total off and may become the first freshman to be given the Heisman. He led our #2 ranked fast-paced off to a schl rec'd 45 ppg, while also being the #1 rusher. The Malena/Michael 1-2 punch at RB combed for 1,169 yds (5.4) and 19 td's and the run/pass mix (52-48) was well balanced despite using 4-5 WR sets a majority of the time. Rfr Evans was a pleasant surprise leading the Aggies in rec while the reliable Swope is A&M's all-time leader. The OL (avg 6'4" 308, 1 Sr str) should get a majority of the credit for the success as they all'd just 23 sks (5.0%) while paving the way for 235 rush ypg (5.6). They are headlined by two future high draft picks in OT's Joeckel and Matthews. It's tough to judge the success of TY's #32 D as the SEC doesn't feature the high-powered off that the B12 has, but it fared adequately in the trenches all'g 3.7 ypc. Their star is converted DE Moore who is among the best in the NCAA in sks and tfl and leads the tm in tfls. Their 3 LB's are #2-3-4 in tfls as the Aggies all'd just 22.5 ppg a year after all'g 28.2 ppg LY. A&M ranks #38 in our pass eff D all'g a respectable 56% with a 16-11 ratio while the #48 ST's has been hit or miss. K Bertolet is 1-6 from 30-39 but 3-4 from 50+ while P Epperson is among the nation's best for a 2nd yr in a row (40.3 net). Their coverage units rank among the Top 30 (PR 5.9, KR 20.1) while PR Harris leads the nation w/434 yds (13.2).

The Sooners' national title dreams were shattered when they lost at home to KSU on Sept 22 although they rebounded to win 7 of their final 8 games to take a share of their 8th B12 Champ. OU has lost just 2 gms TY to tms with combined rec'ds of 23-1 (KSU & #1 ND). The offense (#7) is led by OU's all-time leading passer Jones who is the 1st QB in FBS history to throw for 3,000 yds and 26 td's in all 4 ssn's. The pass gm did struggle early on due to inexp as 7 of their top 8 WR's or TE's are in their 1st yr in the program. Fresno ST transfer Saunders (1065, 21.3 at FSU in '11) was finally declared elig prior to the Texas gm which stabilized the unit as he can play the slot freeing top WR Stills to go back outside. JC transfer Williams cooled off after a hot start with Clay filling in to run for 157 vs LSU when Williams was inj'd. Bkp QB Bell is essentially the short yd RB in the Beldozzer pkg running for 24 td's in the L2Y. Despite losing 59 career sts in the pressn and RT Williams for the L/2 the OL (6'5" 300) all'd just 14 sks (2.7%). With Mike Stoops back in the fold as DC the Sooners have our #18 D although their base 4-2-5 has struggled vs physical off allowing 181 rush ypg (4.8). The DL (6'3" 285) had depth issues and compiled just 12.5 of the tm 25 sks with DE Ndulue leading the squad with 5. MLB Wort was the top LB tkl'r (T-#4) despite being replaced at times with the more athletic Shannon. OU is #2 in our pass eff D (198, 5%,- 9-12) with 4 str's of the secondary being the tm's top 4 tkl'r's led by the S combo of Jefferson and Harris. The #12 ST's feature P Way (37.6 net) and strong PR (#6 FBS 14.9, 2 td) and KR (26.5, 1 td) units. K Hunnicutt hit 15-19 FG's although only 2-4 from 40+. The coverage units all'd 8.1 on PR and 18.3 on KR.

At the start of the year, OU's Jones was considered a Heisman hopeful and now at the end of the season, he may actually be facing the Heisman winner. OU won 9 of the last 10 vs A&M in Big 12 play including last year by a score of 41-25. While A&M is playing in its home state, OU is just as close coming in with its only 2 losses vs the BCS #1 and #5. This year A&M did knock off both LSU and Bama, but both were great situations for the Aggies and we'll call for the Boomer Sooner.

BOWL TEAMS TOUGHEST UNITS FACED

Here is a chart showing how difficult of a schedule each bowl team faced in opposing units. For example, Oklahoma ranks #25 in the NCAA in pass D. The Sooners however have taken on the 12th toughest slate of passing offenses including 4 in the top 20 and our pass eff D ranks them #2. Don't be misled by pure stats. This chart is very helpful to look at bowl matchups. For instance if team A is playing Team B who has a strong rush offense, you will want to see how strong the rush defenses were that team B faced this year to get an idea of how they matchup vs their bowl opponent.

First meeting. New coach, same result. For the 2nd str y ASU finds itself the SBC Champ and in the GoDaddy.com Bowl with a 1st yr HC that has left to take an SEC job. LY Hugh Freeze left to become HC at Ole Miss prior to the bowl and TY Gus Malzahn left for Auburn as ASU will look for its first ever bowl win (1-1 ATS) in this, its 3rd try. The SBC crown came down to the final gm of the ssn and ASU responded with its most impressive win of the ssn as they handled Middle Tenn 45-0. ASU was 3-3 SU/4-2 ATS vs bowl eligible tms, outscoring them 33-29 and outgaining them 454-431. Those numbers are more impressive when you factor in that ASU played both Oregon and Neb. HC Darrell Hazell in just his 2nd ssn at Kent St, led the Flashes to just their 2nd bowl appearance (1st s/71) and just their 2nd winning ssn in the last 25 yrs! His remarkable job didn't go unnoticed as he left to take over at Purdue and both tms will be led by interims here. Kent St was 4-1 SU/5-0 ATS vs bowl eligible tms, outscoring them 35-28, but was OUTGAINED 452-376.

Ark St despite incorporating a new, although somewhat similar, system finished #17 FBS (our #30 off) avg 482 ypg. The more the ssn went on, the better the tm performed as they grew comfortable with Malzahn's new schemes. ASU avg an eye popping 528 tll yds over the 1st 5 gms! Veteran QB Aplin (36 car sts) leads the up tempo off as he threw for over 300 yds in 5 gms and his 23-4 ratio was a key to his #18 FBS ranking in pass eff. WR McKissic, just a rFr, responded well to the changes, finishing in the top 10 in rec/s gm, and has a great chance to break into triple digits. Tenn trans David Oku provided ASU with a consistent running gm, finishing with over 1,000 yds while finding the endzone in each of the L7 gms. The OL avg 6'3" 295 with 1 Sr str and saw their rush ypg explode from 154 (3.9) LY to 217 (5.2) TY, while their sks all'd decreased from 27 (5.4%) LY to just 13 (3.4%) TY. Our #69 ranked D is led by LB Herold. The rush D improved significantly as the ssn wore on. Over the 1st 6 gms vs FBS foes the Wolves were allowing 224 ypg (4.7), but over the L/5, the numbers dropped to just 79 ypg (2.8). ASU has our #89 pass eff D. One area where ASU was dominated in was ST's. After finishing near the top of our rankings LY (#19) the Wolves have taken a steep drop all the way down to #122 TY! Their net punting (#120 FBS), PR avg (2.3, #116 FBS), and KR avg (18.9, #103 FBS) all rank near the bottom of the country.

Kent St truly was the surprise tm of the MAC TY as they made it to the conf champ gm, before falling in 2OT to NI as the Flashes were 1 win away from playing in a BCS bowl! They did have a bit of luck as evidenced by their +21 TO margin. Our #60 off is a run-oriented attack with a 2-headed monster in the backfield. Durham (250 lbs) is the starter and softens up the defense in time for Archer (4.3 spd) to come in and provide a huge change of pace that gives D's fits. Both had over 1,000 rush yds as Durham had six 100 yd gms while Archer had 5, but 2 were for over 200 yds! The OL avg 6'3" 303 and has 3 Sr str's. They are one of the most improved units in the country as they improved their rush ypg from 108 (3.0) LY to 228 (5.4) TY while decreasing their sks from 30 (8.6%) LY to 20 (6.2%) TY. QB Keith is the true definition of a gm manager. If he has to throw, the Flashes are likely in trouble. In the MAC Champ gm, Kent St's rushing attack was stymied, forcing Keith to throw and he suffered tremendously (40.5% comp). While Archer is the leading pass catcher, Boyle is Keith's fav target from the WR position but he has been held to just 5 rec's the L/5 gms. LB Batton has reached 100+ tkl in B2B ssn and leads our #75 def. The rush D has been consistent for much of the ssn, holding 3 FBS foes under 100 yds, but did allow over 300 to both Army & NI. Pass D is a strength as Kent St has our #73 pass eff D, due in large part to their 26-23 ratio. The Flashes enter the gm with our #9 ST ranking, a huge improvement from their #109 ranking LY. P Melchiori is a big key Kent St ranks #12 in the FBS in net punting avg (40.1).

ASU's offense led them to the SB Title. Kent St, meanwhile, came up short in the MAC Championship, but has learned how to win gms as they were #1 in NCAA in TO margin. Dynamic skill players on both sides and we'll take the better D that is more excited, with a powerhouse backfield.

CFB fans and TV executives couldn't have asked for a better matchup here as Bama tries to stamp its legacy as a dynasty w/3 titles in 4 yrs while ND tries to recapture its former glory. The Irish are 5-1 vs the Tide but they have not met s/87. They did meet twice in bowl gms w/the title on the line and ND won both incl the '74 Orange, 13-11. Bama HC Saban is looking for his 4th title as HC which would cement his status as one of the all-time greats and he is 7-6 SU/ATS overall in bowls (3-0 SU/ATS in title gms) incl 4-1 SU/ATS at Bama. The Tide have not played here s/99. Kelly, in his 3rd ssn, has the Irish undefeated after playing a sked that has had them log more than 9,000 miles from Ireland to LA and from Norman to Boston. ND, gunning for its 1st Nat'l Title s/88, is making its 1st BCS bowl appearance s/06 (0-3 SU/ATS in BCS bowls) and has never played in Sun Life Stadium (5x at Orange Bowl). After an NCAA rec'd 9 gm bowl losing streak, ND has gone 2-1 in its L/3 post ssn appearances and Kelly is 3-2 SU/1-4 ATS in bowls incl an Orange Bowl loss in '08. The two have one common op in UM as the Tide beat the Wolves 41-14 (-13') in the opener (outgaining them 431-269) while ND won 13-6 (-6) thanks to 6 UM TO's (only gm all yr ND was outgained). ND did play 10 bowl op (6-3-1 ATS) outscoring them by an avg of 26-12 (+181 ypg) while Bama played 7 bowl op (2-5 ATS) outscoring them by an avg of 32-16 (+77 ypg).

The Tide's #15 off is driven by QB McCarron who led the NCAA in pass eff w/a 26-3 ratio. Starting w/ LY's champ gm, he has become much more than a gm manager as the Tide have one of the more balanced attacks (225 ypg run vs 215 pass) in the country. The 1-2 punch at RB features two 1,000 yd rushers incl the veteran Lacy (power) being spelled by the super true frosh Yeldon (speed). At WR another frosh, Cooper, easily led the way recording more rec yds than the #2-3 rec's combined. TE Williams is used mainly in the run gm but is a threat at the GL (3 td's). The best OL in the country (avg 6'5" 314) w/2 Sr str's paved the way for 5.6 ypg (best in 20+ yrs) while all'g 7.6% sks. They have 3 All-Americans while another is a PS#1. The Tide D which has been the main reason for their great success over the L/5 yrs is #1 again but doesn't have the star power that past Bama tms featured. NG Williams leads a DL that has great size and depth but lacks a true pass rusher. Their LB's are #1, #2 and #3 in tkl's but Mosley had 43 more than any other ply'r. The secondary features Thorpe winner CB Milliner as the Tide have our #3 pass eff D (166, 54%, 7.7). LY the ST's were a liability (#50) but this yr they have improved to #13. It starts w/short range K Shelley who is perfect from inside 40 while long-range K Foster has 3 FG's of 50+. P Mandell has a net of 39.2 (#24) while the KR unit avg 24.8 ypr (give up 21.9) and the PR unit avg 10.2 ypr (give up 7.7).

As with most Kelly tms, the QB position was shuffled around as LY's str's Rees (susp'd opener) was used much like a relief pitcher coming in to lead victories over Purd, UM and Stan and started the BYU gm w/ Golson out to inj. However, it's been Golson's show as he has gradually improved his decision-making (7-2 ratio L/4) while the playbook has opened up all'g him to use his legs (-11 rush yds 1st 4 gms, 316 yds L/7). ND features a 1-2 punch at RB in Riddick/Wood and while Wood is more of a home-run threat (6.7), Riddick is more versatile (35 rec). The rec corps is led by Mackey winner Eifert who (all-time ND TE) at 6'6" is a nightmare for opposing D's. The OL (avg 6'4" 304) excelled paving the way for 203 ypg and ND's best ypc (5.0) s/93 while all'g just 16 sks (4.5%). Overall ND has our #29 off. The Irish's strength, of course, is their #3 D which has all'd just 10 td's all yr (#1 NCAA) and their 27.8 ypg is the best we've seen in at least 20 yrs. It starts with the massive 3-man DL (6'4" 312) led by soph Tuitt who had 12 sks (most by underclassmen in ND hist) and they give up just 92 rush ypg (3.2) and 2 td's. The LB corps naturally is led by Heisman finalist Te'o who has had 3 str 100+ tkl ssn's and his 7 int's are the most by a LB in the NCAA in 12 yrs. The secondary was a concern coming into the yr w/3 new full-time str's incl 2 frosh but finished as our #10 pass eff D (194, 59%, 7-16 ratio). The #34 ST's are led by K Brindza who set a single ssn schl rec'd w/23 FG's on the yr. P Turb avg'd 40.6 (38.0 net) but the return units are mediocre at best.

This clearly is a dream matchup for CFB fans pitting two of the most storied programs in history. To Read rankings - YPC is yards per carry for each team's offense and defense. Turnover edge is the amount of turnovers that team is + or -. OFFYPP is offensive yds per point. This shows the avg amount of yds a team travelled per point scored. The lower the number the more efficient the off. DEFYPP is defensive yds per point. The higher the number here, the better the def is at making their opponents work at scoring points. The remaining columns show the team's rank in that category. Next to the passing ratings there may be a ★ or an X. On the offensive side a ★ means they are completing over 59% of their passes while the X shows that their QB's are completing less than 53%. Defensively, the opposite holds true as the ★ has that team's def holding its opp under 53% completions and the X shows that they allow over 59% completions.
