PRO SELECTIONS TEAM IN CAPS

KEY SELECTIONS

Due to playoff implications and a very solid 23-7-1 77% record on NFL Key Selections in Power Sweep this year, we are passing on Key Selections for this week. We do have two solid 2★ Other Selections and look forward to 3★ and 4★ Key Selections in the Post Season Issues of Power Sweep in the weeks ahead.

OTHER SELECTIONS

2★ NEW ENGLAND over Miami - Who has the edge in the second meeting between a rookie QB facing Belichick's schemes or vice versa? Well in their first meeting 4 weeks ago Tannehill was held to 186 yds and 45% completions. The Pats are still alive for a bye and while we'll be paying the price for an inflated line we don't mind doing that with the #1 offense, off an embarrassing previous home loss against a division foe. While other QB's may be OK with 23 points on the road that is second lowest total of this season for Brady and Co who will want to enter the post season on high note. Miami deserves credit for winning 2 straight but both were at home against cellar dwellers giving them false hope. The Dolphins have totaled under 240 yards in 3 of their L/4 away as the rookie QB as completed 52%, 50% and 40% in those games. The early weather calls for 30° temps and precipitation which Brady enjoys and Tannehill hasn't seen that an NFL'r. Lastly New England has an amazing streak this season of being even or having a TO edge in every game so they rarely beat themselves which leaves it to the talent on the field and the coaching staffs. FORECAST: NEW ENGLAND 40 Miami 17 2★ TENNESSEE over Jacksonville - Talk about disperate results! The Titans were of a Monday Night win at home and played their worst game of the season as they trailed GB 55-0 and only scored with 1:38 left. JAX meanwhile was off a road loss in which they only scored a FG and may have played their best game outgaining NE 436-349. Jacksonville comes into this finale with 2 wins both vs division foes having beaten this Titans squad 5 weeks ago. In that game they took the lead late in the 1Q and led the rest of the way. So do they revert back to two weeks ago? We think so. Two win teams on the road in their last game are 2-7 ATS and a guess is that some may be looking forward to a #1 DC. On the file ide to the standard transfer in the road in their last game are 2-7 ATS and a guess is that some may be looking forward to a #1 DC. On the flip side teams that were embarrassed and lost by 35+ pts are 9-2-1 ATS in their season finale. Chris Johnson was completely taken out of the rush attack LW (28, 2.5) but this proud, experienced veteran has always bounced back and in the last 3 he was held to under 50 yds rushing he avg'd 118 ypg and 5.5 ypc. The Jag's happen to be #31 in rush D which makes for a dynamic finale for the Tennessee offense and they also get revenge.

FORECAST: TENNESSEE 28 Jacksonville 17

OTHER GAMES

BUFFALO 24 NY Jets 21 - Rex Ryan ensured the Jets would again be on the front page of every NY paper promoting McElroy as the starting QB. He was 14-24 with a 0-1 ratio vs San Diego and his struggles to make the correct reads were obvious as he was sacked 11 times. He now makes his first road start and the Bills have shown a propensity to get to the QB having 5 games TY with 4+ sacks. These two also faced off in the season opener with the Jets winning 48-28 and after that explosion NY avg'd just 16 ppg the rest of the way. Buffalo is off a loss at Miami and while they only totaled 7 pts they won the yardage battle 381-301 but were -4 TO's. The Jets know their season is over, they know they'll have a new OC and DC, they know the roster will be blown up and they now also have to deal with feuding QB's to split the team even further. The Bills will pounce on the chance to beat the other state of NY AFC team for the first time in 6 tries and a win here would give them a 3rd place finish leaving the Jets in last. Week 17 road teams are 1-12-1 ATS after losing outright as a HF and lose another here.

CINCINNATI 17 Baltimore 13 - Two weeks ago we went vs the overrated BAL Ravens with our NFL Game of the Year and Denver led 31-3 and crushed them. Since then the Ravens' D has gotten a little healthier and Ray Lewis could return here. BAL has struggled away and is avg just 298 ypg on the road (382 at home). LY in the season finale, CIN was playing with playoff need thinking they needed to win to make the playoffs (ended up getting in by backdoor) while BAL had the playoffs wrapped up but the Ravens still came into CIN and left with a 24-16 win after leading 17-3 at the half. These two played earlier this year and BAL at home on Monday Night led 17-10 at the half then rolled to a 44-13 win with a 430-322 yd edge (+2 TO). CIN's problem has been vs the Big boys of the North as they are 1-5 ATS vs PIT and BAL. CIN has the #6 D giving them a large edge as BAL comes in #20. On the season, CIN's outgaining their foes and BAL is being outgained. Two years ago BAL did lose here at CIN in the opener by 5 and have actually dropped 2 of their last 3 so we'll call for the Bengals by 3 and let the linesmakers decide who we like.

PITTSBURGH 24 Cleveland 21 - The last time Pittsburgh lost to Cleveland at home was 2003 and they won 15 of the next 16 before losing 5 weeks ago behind 3rd string QB Batch. The last 2 years these two have met in CLE for the season finale with Pittsburgh being playoff bound and the Browns staying home. The Gold & Black won 13-9 and 41-9. Now Pittsburgh plays this finale knowing they are eliminated from the playoffs while also being the most injured team leading the NFL with starts lost. Cleveland meanwhile has an aura of excitement under their new owner and in fact the Steeler win earlier was his first. The rivalry continues to be important for the Browns and their trio of rookies who lead the team in passing, rushing and receiving will play this out. Would usually back PIT off a previous home loss but they've now lost 3 straight at home and both the team and the fans who were in playoff mode prior to LW will be a no-show in spirt. What better way for the youngest team in football to go into their offseason than to sweep the Steelers for the first time since 1988!

Houston 31 INDIANAPOLIS 27 - Houston took their "week off" as they were outgained 345-187 in a 23-6 loss vs Minnesota. That loss however now has Houston needing to win this game to secure a bye. The Colts punched their post season ticket in a win over KC but a quick check shows that were run over with 352 yds and 7.6 ypc rushing. Thanks to being +3 in TO's Luck was able to lead a 73/13pl 4Q GW drive and this game is irrelevant to them as their seeding is locked in. The Texans who rolled through the early portion of the season have posted some alarming numbers down the stretch as they've been outgained in each of their L/4 road games. So it's simple right back the team with playoff need? That's exactly why Vegas inflates the number in this situation. While we will call for Houston to win, we clearly feel the numbers will be higher by weeks end. Luck's ratio at home (10-5) is far superior to on the road (10-13) yet 2 weeks ago at Houston he still came away 2-0. The Colt's also allowed 5 sacks that game and the OL will benefit from the quick turnaround. Call it Houston by 4 and follow the line moves.

NY GIANTS 27 Philadelphia 13 - The Giants still need a win to make the playoffs and PHI of course has nothing to play for and a lot of high priced talent that's merely playing out the string at the end. LY vs WAS they actually had a 183-141 yd edge at the half but trailed 13-10. The NYG have been a very poor HF as they came into the season 6-14-1 and opened 1-4 in that role but have won their last 2 with a 28 pt win over GB and a 25 pt win over NO. Earlier in the year PHI upset the NYG which should have them a little more focused for this. The key to this probably comes in the 3Q as if the Eagles are competitive we could see them playing the entire game. PHI has had a couple of blowout losses on the road this year including losing to ARZ by 21 and the Saints by 15. They are an unusual team in the fact they outgained their foes by 28 ypg on the road and are being outgained at home. The Giants only play their best when they play an "A" game. While there is playoff need, this doesn't look like an "A" game. We'll just call for the superior team at home to win this by a couple of td's and would actually lean with the Eagles if the line gets inflated too much due to playoff need.

WASHINGTON 24 Dallas 23 - The last time the Skins played a season finale with a possible playoff berth RG III was leading Copperas Cove HS to the Texas 4A championship game which they lost. Ironically that game was also at home vs Dallas. Washington has reeled off 6 straight wins and remember 2 weeks ago its was Cousins starting on the road while last week RG III had a limited game plan as he ran only twice for 4 yards. That won't be the case here another week removed from his injury. The Cowboys did what they do best which is lose as a HF (0-7 ATS TY) to the New Orleans Saint but it was not the fault of Romo who continues his torrid streak (416, 60%, 4-0). One of the Cowboy's losses at home was to these Skins on Thanksgiving as Dallas was a 3 pt fav. As a dog the Cowboys are 4-2 ATS with 3 upsets while the Skins have been upset as a fav by St Louis, Cincinnati and Carolina, needed OT to beat Baltimore and were outgained by Philly 411-313. The qb matchup has the makings of a classic and we'll call for the Skins by 1 and we'll back the dog.

Chicago 30 DETROIT 24 - Detroit was called out as a team that quit by HC Schwartz after a loss at Arizona and they followed that up with a festive night for Calvin Johnson (11-225) as he topped HOF'r Jerry Rice. Unfortunately they were -3 in TO's and lost their 7th straight. While winning doesn't seem to motivate them maybe the entire teams goal will be to get CJ to 2K yds. Chicago has also slumped to the finish line losing 5 of 6 before LW but those losses are easily explained as each is a playoff contender with 3 being div leaders. Those 5 teams are all also okay on D as they were ranked #2, #3, #7, #14 and #20. LW vs Arizona the Bears gained some confidence back albeit vs a QB who was signed just weeks ago. Chicago is in a situational disadvantage on the road for a second straight and third in 4 weeks. Technically the Bears are 8-3-1 ATS as an AF covering at TEN and JAX by 27 ppg. Detroit meanwhile is home for a second straight with an extra days rest but are only 1-5-1 ATS at home. The Lions game plan worked perfectly LW giving up an early lead to throw into a prevent defense and that should work again to get want they want the most, a new benchmark receiving record.

Green Bay at MINNESOTA - The nation saw the Lions focus their game plan on getting CJ the record and if you thought the Vikings would do that vs Houston you were dead wrong. Minnesota has been a quite playoff contender staying under the radar but going into Houston and holding them to 11 FD's is quite a feat. The Vikings have only been a HD 3 times this year wining each outright and covering by 18 vs SF, 12' vs DET and 10 vs CHI. GB was upset in their first 2 roles as an AF (Sea & Indy) and while they have covered the other 3 times they done so by 5, 1 and 5 pts. The Packers have had their share of defensive injuries and after allowing 87 ypg and 3.7 ypc from games #2.#9 they allowed 143 ypg and 5.2 ypc the next 5 with AP and the Vikings doing the most damage (240, 8.6). With this being written prior to the Sunday Night 49ers game we'll pass and wait for the playoff implications to pan out. We do expect Peterson to get to 2000 yds though.

ATLANTA 31 Tampa Bay 27 - The Falcon's made no secret of wanting to clinch home field advantage at Detroit and they did just that. The Falcons quieted may critics with their Nationally televised win the week after beating the NY Giants 34-0. This week however they are clearly in a letdown spot taking on the Bucs. Tampa has been the epitome of a roller coaster team starting 1-3 with a new HC, winning 5 of 6 with a college type enthusiasm and once the rah-rah approach wore off they've now dropped their L/5 games. With the bye in hand Atlanta will not roll over to a division foe which they needed to come from behind and beat by 1 pt, will clearly want to finish with a prefect home record and will not want players to go 2 full weeks without game action. Expect the Falcon's to go into HT with a solid lead but it'll depend on how the #2's play D in the 2H. We'll call Atlanta by 4 and see where the line finishes.

NEW ORLEANS 34 Carolina 33 - Most QB's have much more success at home compared to on the road but Newton is not one of them. As a visitor he's thrown for 1802 yds (1,649 home), 59.4% (56.9), 8.7 ypa (7.6) with an 11-4 ratio (7-6) and his teams is 3-0 ATS as an AD TY. Newton also torched the Saint's #31 D in their first meeting (70%, 12.7 ypa, 129.2 QBR). The Saints were hearing all about of the demise of Drew Brees who in B2B weeks complied a 1-7 ratio although it was against the top NFC team and the defending SB champ. All he's done the L2W is beat TB 41-0 (4-0 ratio) and go into Dallas and throw for a season high 446 yds with a 3-0 ratio. The calendar may not say 2013, but they are playing this game as the first towards that season and this conf has the making of one of the NFL bests for next year. Can the Panthers head into 2013 with a 5 game win streak and a sweep over the Saints or will New Orleans make it a clean 6-0 SU/ATS run against NFC South teams at home the L2Y? We'll grab any points available and enjoy the scoring.

DENVER 23 Kansas City 6 - The season long Chiefs skid continues and on the road the anemic

DENVER 23 Kansas City 6 - The season long Chiefs skid continues and on the road the anemic offense has avg'd 9 ppg, 14 FD/hm and 253 ypg. The "bad news" is that none of those 5 opp's have a winning record and that why this line is inflated. Denver knows they still have to win to secure a playoff bye but no way will they will risk the health of Manning and once a lead is established expects a conservative ground game. The Bronco's are the ONLY NFL team with both their offense and defense ranked in the top 5 but in the last 7 weeks they're avg only 28 ppg making it tough to cover this spread. The Chiefs topped 500 yds LW with 352 (7.6) rushing but those numbers will not happen against a Broncos team with a #2 rush D. Again be careful of the inflated lines.

SAN DIEGO 20 Oakland 13 - Atlantis, Stonehenge, the Bermuda Triangle and SD's 2012 offense! The Chargers finished '10 as the NFL's #1 unit and followed that up with a #6 finish in '11. They came into TY with 10 off starters returning and put up 416 yd in their home opener. But, after avg 9 pg and 240 ypg the L/3 their home avg is 298 ypg. Injuries to Matthews and the OL can explain a lot but LW they got 2 OL starters back and still only totaled 223 yds. The Raiders snapped a 6 gm SU/ATS losing streak by shutting out KC in their home finale but went back to their previous form by losing at Carolina and they've now gone 8 straight Q without a td. They now have to travel again for their finale with rumors circulating of yet another coaching change (would be 8th HC in 11Y). Can't lay too much with SD's struggling offense but expect a spirited effort in Turner final game here.

with SD's struggling offense but expect a spirited effort in Turner final game here.

SAN FRANCISCO 28 Arizona 10 - Regardless of what happened LW the 49ers simply have to win here to secure the NFC West Title. SF is 20-6-1 ATS at home and have dominated teams with a losing record TY going 6-0 SU/ATS. They have logged a 22-14 FD and 394-238 yd edge in those games with a 31-10 avg score. ARZ inserted QB Hoyer who was claimed off waivers 12/10 due to system comfort after the half LW. It is quite likely he starts here despite just 105 yds (58%) w/0-1 LW in order to evaluate him. While ARZ's OL is improved over the 1st meeting TY (4 sks 7 yds rush 0.8) SF opposing QBR of 78.7 prior to SEA was top 10. At the very least SF's #2 defense will be making a big push for Aldon Smith (19.5 sks) to break Strahan's sack record as he strives for Defensive MVP. LW was only the 2nd time in 6 Wks that ARZ broke 200 yds offense and their 241 ypg offense on the road is 33 yds less than what SF is giving up. If SF is off a loss (16-4 ATS) Harbaugh will have his team charged up here and if off a win they'll want to go into the post season hot.

SEATTLE 23 St Louis 16 - The schedule makers did the Rams no favors by finishing with B2B road games and 3 in the L4W all in different environments (BUF, TB, SEA). They are in a poor situational spot after travelling out to TB LW and now having to fly up to SEA where they are 0-5 SU/ATS with a 29-8 avg loss. STL's victory LW is also a bit misleading as they converted 5 TO's into 21 pts while being outgained 429-285. In Bradford's L3 road games he's avg'd just 209 ypg (49%) with a 5-3 ratio. Prior to LW SEA was allowing 200 ypg pass (57%) w/a 4-9 ratio at home. While STL's defense is vastly better (and healthier) than LY's they have given up 129 ypg rush (4.4) the L8W as they still lack depth up front. Wilson has only thrown 1 int at home TY vs 12 TD's and his lowest home QBR has been 88.0 vs ARZ. STL's defense had a big edge LW at TB as they have one of the worst home attendance marks in the NFL. Now the Rams have to deal with a rowdy 12th man on the road again and we'll take the Seahawks here by a TD.

To Read rankings - YPC is yards per carry for each team's offense and defense. Turnover edge is the amount of turnovers that team is + or - OFF YPP is offensive yds per point. This shows the avg amount of yds a team travelled per point scored. The lower the number the more efficient the off. DEFYPP is defensive yds per point. The higher the number here, the better the def is at making their opponents work at scoring points. The remaining columns show the team's rank in that category. Next to the passing ratings there may be a \star or an X. On the offensive side a \star means they are completing over 59% of their passes while the X shows that their QB's are completing less than 53%. Defensively, the opposite holds true as the ★ has that team's def holding its oppunder 53% completions and the X shows that they allow over 59% completions.

There are 3 main methods of handicapping Fundamental, Situation & Technical Fundamental handicapping, or the analysis of personne matchups & power ratings, is our main method of handicapping. This accounts for roughly 50% of how we view a game. Situational handicapping (analysis of letdown, look ahead, systems takes up approximately 25% of our handicapping. Technical handicapping (analysis of angles takes up the rest. You should never base your final selection on 1 factor. To be a complete handicapper you must look at all 3 methods. For more complete analysis you should read Te Indiducable you must now at all 3 memous. For more complete analysis you allow a very sole of Mining Season. Each week in Power Sweep we provide the angle section to add to your handicapping arsenal. Many times we will agree with the angle plays. Sometimes the Fundamental & Situational aspects of a game will outweigh the angles & we have the other side written up in Power Sweep. We want to make it clear that the side we write up in Powe Sweep is the side we are on. We are NOT Technical handicappers, but we do use them in ou handicapping analysis. Each week in Power Sweep we provide pro angles for the current week games. For the angle plays the number in the () indicates how many angles apply to that tean The higher the number the stronger the angle play.

O

There are 3 main methods of handicapping, Fundamental, Situation & Technical. Fundamental handi capping or the analysis of personnel matchups & power ratings is our main method of handicapping This accounts for roughly 50% of how we view a game. Situation handicapping (analysis of letdown look ahead, systems, etc...) takes up approximately 25% of our handicapping. Technical handicapping (analysis of angles) takes up the rest. You should never base your final selection on 1 factor. To be a complete handicapper you must look at all 3 methods. Each week in Power Sweep we provide a system to add to your handicapping arsenal. This is done at the request of our subscribers who want handicapping tips & methods. Many times we will agree with the side that the system chooses Sometimes the Fundamental & Technical aspects of a game will outweigh the system & we have the other side written up in Power Sweep. We want to make it clear that the side we write up in Power Sweep is the side we are on. If that is ever the case during a week, keep the system for future use but be aware that the side we write-up in the Power Sweep Selections page is the side we are on.

This is the 29th season of our System Section & it has been a consistent winner. Each week we release a super system which pertains to that week's games. Here is an NFL Week 17 System:

Go against a division favorite off of a SU overtime loss.
