Who played the toughest schedule?

Once the schedules are finalized in spring we like knowing "how tough" our favorite teams schedule is. Most fans and media outlets use the records of their opponents previous years to rank them, but we like to use our power ratings on each team to get a better gauge.

As you can see UCLA, Auburn, Colorado, Arkansas and Texas played OUR 5 toughest schedules!

If you base it on the win % of a teams FBS opponents the 5 teams that played the toughest schedule were: Arkansas, Mississippi, Auburn, Miami, Fl and Georgia Tech.

The LARGEST difference between our Strength of Schedule compared to the opponent win % is Navy. The Midshipman faced the #13 toughest schedule ranked by opp win % while facing only the #96 schedule in our rankings.

Let's look to the left at Navy's FBS Schedule so far this year: On the right are tougher opponents with the same record

True Test

These 2 have only met once, a 38-14 win for Nev in 1995. The Wolf Pack will be making their 1st appearance in this bowl while UL finds itself in their familiar role under 4th yr HC Hudspeth as this is their 4th str trip here. Their huge crowd edge (set NO bowl attendance record each year) is a big reason why they've won & covered each of their prev 3 trips despite being a dog in 2 of those gms. While UN HC Polian was an asst at ND, Stanford and A&M, this is his 1st bowl gm as a HC. UN does have plenty of exp in bowls as prior to LY, they had been to 8 str bowls (2-6 SU/3-5 ATS) and their QB Fajardo was the st'r in 2 of them.

After missing out on a bowl game for the first time s/'04 LY, 2nd yr HC Polian has Nevada back in post-ssn once again. Their #65 offense is led by 4-yr st'g QB Fajardo who accounted for 31 ttl td's He broke the MW record for most 100 yd rushing gms by a QB and joined Colin Kaepernick as just the 2nd player in conf history to have 3,000+ rush yds & 9,000+ pass yds in his career. The Wolf Pack avg'd 215 rush ypg (4.9) and were led by Fajardo (997, 6.1) and RB Jackson (932, 4.5). The receiving unit is balanced as they had 3 ply'rs top 500 yds (CS on #2 rec Henderson who was out the L/3 gms). On the other side the #88 D was susceptible defending the run as they all'd 179 rush (4.8) on the yr incl 262 (5.1) ypg their L/3 gms. The unit is led by their LB's as they were the top 3 tkl'rs while they ranked #80 in our pass eff D all'g 271 ypg (65%, 25-13 ratio). The #69 ST's unit had no standout performances but K Zuzo was 3-4 from 40-49 vds.

The 8-4 Ragin' Cajuns are shooting for their 4th consec 9-4 ssn. They ended the ssn winning 7 of their L/8 gms (5-2-1 ATS) & finished 7-1 in SBC play which was their best ever finish in the conf. Their #74 offense is led by the 1-2 punch of RB's McGuire & Harris as they avo'd 228 rush ypg (5.4). A key to their success on the ground was all 5 of their OL st'g all 12 gms TY. The pass gm wasn't as strong as QB Broadway had his worst ssn statistically in his 3 yrs as the st'r (12-9 ratio). On the other side, the #93 D after getting gashed early in the ssn in non-conf play, all'd just 121 rush ypg (3.5) in SBC action. They did struggle in pass D ranking just #114 in our pass eff D rankings as they all'd 275 ypg (66%, 19-7 ratio). The #64 ST's unit was nothing flashy as while K Steven Hunter was 15-18 on the yr, all 15 of his FG makes were from 39 yds in and he was 0-3 from 40+.

The bowl season kicks off w/2 very evenly matched tms. Nevada has the slightest of edges on off (#65-74) and D (#88-93), while UL has the slight edge on ST's (#64-69). With the two tms so similar, we'll defer to a couple of factors: turf/crowd and intangibles. UL will have the crowd edge like they always do here and this is a 10am local start time for the Wolf Pack players. UL moves to 4-0 SU/ATS here.

FORECAST: Louisiana over Nevada POWER SWEEP RATING: 1★

These two have met just twice w/Utah St winning both gms back in the early 60's. The Miners are making their 2nd appearance here as they lost to BYU 52-24 (+11') in the 2010 NM bowl, which was their L/appearance in any bowl (5-8 all-time in bowls). This will be the first bowl gm for UTEP HC Kugler. On the other side, the Aggies are making their 4th str bowl appearance as they beat NIU 21-14 (E) in HC Wells' 1st bowl gm as HC.This is their 1st appearance here but they should be familiar w/the stadium as they beat NM here 45-10 -11) LY while UTEP upset NM at this site earlier TY 31-24 (+7

After going just 5-19 the prev 2Y, the Miners were one of the MIP rms in the country TY going 7-5 SU/8-3-1 ATS and have a soft spot for us as they cashed our 5★ College GOY in a 35-17 (-6) win over NT. The Miners have our #104 offense that is led by the RB Jones, who is the 9th ply'r in school history to rush for 1,000+ yds (1,233, 5.7). QB Showers wasn't asked to throw much (UTEP 67-33% run-pass mix) but he had an efficient 12-5 ratio. WR Hamilton was their deep plaý threat as he avg'd 21.7 ypc while the OL (HC Kugler's specialty) paved the way for 213 ypg (4.9) and all'd just 12 sk. The Miner D (#78) has shown major improvement this yr, as they improved their ppg all'd by 10.6 ppg and their ypg all'd by 98 ypg from LY. The 168 rush ypg all'd was their best s/06 (152, 4.2). They also defended the pass well as they came in at #34 in our pass D rankings all'o just 202 ypg (52.3%, 19-11 ratio). The #96 ST's unit is led by KŘ Golden (24.2, 2 td's), but they did have a mediocre 34.9 net punt avg incl 3 blk'd punts vs them.

The Aggies have now won 9 or more gms in each of the L/3 ssns. In each of the L/2 yrs, they have had to do it w/out All-Conf QB Chuckie Keeton for most of the yr and TY's #94 offense was down to 4th string true frosh QB Myers (69%, 5-2 ratio) in their L/5 gms went 4-1 SU/3-2 ATS). The run gm that avg'd 172 ypg (4.8) features BRB's w/more than 450 yds while the rec unit is led by WR Hunter Sharp who has 918 yds (14.6). Our #34 D is led by MW DPOY LB Zach Vigil who led the league w/145 tkls & 19.5 tfl's and is just 1 tfl away from tying the MW record. His brother Nick also had 116 tkl, 7 sk and 9 tfl's. They don't have a lot of weaknesses in the unit as the rush D all'd just 129 ypg (3.3), they generated significant pressure on opposing QB's w/48 sks (10.3%) and their pass D ranks #15 all'g just 54.1% completions w/a 16-18 ratio. The #27 ST's unit was also solid all-around as they were +2.9 on KR, +5.5 on PR (PR Natson avg'd 12.1 and had 2 td's), and K Diaz was 12-15 incl 3-3 from 40+.

Both tms prefer to run the ball and both D's rank far ahead of the opponent's offenses. UTEP gms have gone UNDER the total in 6 str gms by an avg of 8 ppg. Utah St's D has asset sated they want to atone for the Boise St embarrassment in the reg ssn finale

These two were long-time WAC and MW rivals as Utah owns the series 55-22-2. The L/meeting came in 2010, a 59-6 (-30') Utah me series 55-22-2. Ine L/meeting came in 2010, a 59-6 (-30") Utah win. The Utes are bowling for the 1st time s/"11 as they sport a 6-1 SU/5-2 ATS mark under Whittingham. They are making their 4th appearance in this bowl as they were beat by Boise St 26-3 (+16") in their last time here (2010). CSU is making their 1st appearance in this bowl but did play UNLV here in '11 (lost 38-35, -2"). They will be led by interim HC Dave Baldwin (3 yrs as OC here). The Rams players have bowl exp as they upset Wash St LY 48-45 (+5") thanks to some ? decisions by Wazzu HC Mike Leach

After struggling in Pac-12 play, their 1st 3 yrs (just 9-18), the Utes were 5-4 TY but it is notable that all 5 of their conf wins came by 6 pts or less. The #53 offense avg'd 176 rush ypg (4.1) as RB Booker earned 1st tm P12 after finishing with 1,350 (5.1) yds, but he was held under 100 yds while avg less than 4 ypc in 3 of his L/4 gms. QB Wilson struggled in the middle of the ssn as they contemplated making the switch to Thompson (who is now OFY), but Wilson did finish w/a solid 17-4 ratio. The OL did allow 31 sks (8.9%) which was their 2nd most in the L/20 yrs. However, on D Utah finished with an FBS high 52 sks, as they were led by 1st tm P12 DE Orchard, who finished 2nd in the FBS with 17.5 sks. Overall, the D ranked #32. They also ranked #32 in our pass eff D rankings all'g 59.3% w/a 22-11 ratio vs arguably the best conference in the country as far as QB play went TY. The #1 ST's excelled in every facet. They were +3.1 on KR, +8.0 on PR thanks to Clay's 3 td's, had a superb 42.4 net punt avg and K Phillips was 22-26 incl a sensational 12-15 from 40+

While the Rams feature a 1,000 yd RB in Bama trans & 2nd tm MWC Jr Dee Hart, this #36 offense revolves around MW OPOY Sr QB Grayson, who enters with nearly 4,000 yds while compl 64.3% with a 33-6 ratio. His favorite target is soph WR Higgins, who earned 1st tm MWC & easily led the FBS by avg 149 ypg and also had 17 td's. The #76 D is led by 2nd tm MW LB Aaron Davis, who has finished w/100+ tkls in B2B yrs. They have struggled against the run all'g 188 ypg (4.7). The pass D was adequate coming in at #50 in our pass eff D rankings as they all'd just 54.2% completions w/a 13-12 ratio. The #36 ST's didn't have a lot of standouts and while K Roberts was only 11-18, he was 3-4 from 50+.

While it is noted that Utah is -28 ypg on the yr while CSt is +83 ypg, there is a huge difference in sked strength (#12-97). Whittingham is one of the better bowl coaches (6-1 SU/5-2 ATS) and the Utah players and fans should be excited after missing out on a bowl the L/2 yrs. They shouldn't overlook a former rival and keep in mind, the best D CSt has faced all yr (Utah St) was able to generate 8 sks vs them and now they face the nation's best sk team.

This will be the first meeting between these schools. WM is mak ing their 1st bowl appearance s/'11 (1st bowl under HC Fleck) and this will also be their 1st time playing on the Blue Turf. The Falcons after missing out LY are back in a bowl and they went to a bowl in each of HC Calhoun's first 6 seasons (2-4 SU/3-3 ATS). They do have some experience playing here as they played Boise in '11 (lost 37-26, +29) and LY (lost 42-20, +23').

After a disastrous 1st ssn (1-11) under HC Fleck, the Broncos "rowed the boat" TY improving to 8-4 and notably had a 10-gm ATS win streak in the middle of the ssn. Their #73 offense is led by true frosh RB Franklin who became the 1st player in MAC history to be named both OPOY & the Frosh POY in the same ssn, after running named both OPOY & the Frosh POY in the same ssn, after running for 1,525 yds (5.2) while adding 24 rush td's. However, Franklin did fail to hit the century mark the L/3 gms. 2nd tm MAC QB Terrell led the conf in pass eff (23-10 ratio) & compl % (70.1), while WR Davis was named 1st tm MAC after piling up 1,232 yds (17.6, 12 td) as the Broncos led the MAC in scoring (34.6 ppg). Their #74 D is all'g 143 rush ypg (4.2) incl just 106 (3.3) their L/5 gms. Their #44 pass eff D was led by a great 1-2 punch at CB as Celiscar and Zamort combined for 8 ints and 34 pbu's! Their #48 ST's struggled in the PR gm (ayo just 1.1 ypr) but did excel in the kicking game as they PR gm (avg just 1.1 ypr) but did excel in the kicking game as they had a 39.4 net punt avg and K Haldeman hit 13-16.

After one of the worst ssns in schl history LY (2-10), the Falcons were one of TY's MIP tms as they went 9-3 highlighted by an upset of #21 Col St in their finale. That upset was even more impressive considering they did it w/o their st'g QB Pearson and leading rusher Owens. With a win here, they have a chance at getting to DD wins for the 1st time s/98. Their #78 offense is, of course, led by their ground attack which is avg 272 ypg (4.5). However, TY Pearson gave them a very efficient pass attack with a 14-3 ratio. The aforementioned Owens will miss the bowl gm (foot) but Pearson will return under center. Their #77 D all'd 24 ppg TY, a significant improvement after all'g 40 ppg a year ago. Their rush D all'd 140 ypg (3.9) and they generated 32 sks (8.1%), their most s/08. AF ranks in the bottom half of our pass eff D rankings at #98, but S Steelhammer led the Falcons with 6 int's & earned 1st tm MW honors in the process. The strength of the tm is their #7 ST's unit led by P/K Connant who had a solid 39.5 net and was also 18-20 on FG's (3-4 from 40+). He is the most accurate kicker in schl history and was named MW ST POY.

These two teams are pretty even when it comes to our offensive (WM #73-78) and defensive (WM #74-77) rankings. The diff for us comes at ST's (AF #7-48) and also cch exp in bowls (Calhoun's 7th vs Fleck's 1st). Also notable is the fact the Blue Turf can be intimidating for 1st time visitors while AF has experience playing here

FORECAST: Air Force (+) over W Mich POWER SWEEP RATING: 2★

First ever meeting between these 2 in the inaugural Camellia Bowl. The game will be played at the historic Cramton Bowl, which achieved its greatest fame as the home of the Blue-Gray Football Classic that was played each yr from 1938-2001. This will be the 1st ever bowl game for SA after joining the FBS 2 yrs ago. The Falcons have been to 11 bowls in their history incl B2B trips the past 2 yrs (0-2 SU/ATS). This will be the 1st appearance for HC Dino Babers who was at the FCS level the L/2 yrs but does have playoff exp.

After starting 5-2, the Jags come in reeling losing 4 of their L/5 gms. Their #109 offense is led by QB Brandon Bridge who is compl just 51.9% of his passes and was even benched late in the ssn for Hunter Vaughn. However, Bridge did throw a schl-rec 4 td passes in the ssn finale vs Navy. The Jags avg'd 183 rush ypg (4.4) and featured a RB by-committee. The rec unit was led by Shavarez Smith who had 714 yds (14.3) and 8 td's. On the defensive side of the ball (#73) the Jaguars are all'g 191 rush ypg (4.7) incl 230 (5.1) ypg over their L/4 gms. The pass D was #68 in our pass eff D rankings all'g 200 ypg (55.1%) and a 17-6 ratio. They are led by S Terrell Brigham who has 101 tkls. The #97 ST's didn't have a lot of standouts but K Aleem Sunanon was 15-18 incl 5-6 from 40+.

Like SA, BG comes in struggling as they have lost 3 str gms incl a 51-17 blowout loss to NIU in the MAC champ gm as we cashed a 3★ Key Selection on these pages on the Huskies. QB James Knapke, outside of his performance vs Indy, has struggled most of the yr and has thrown just 3 td passes in his L/6 gms combined as the Falcons have leaned on the run as of late. RB Travis Greene missed 2+ gms but hit the century mark in both gms since his return. True frosh WR Roger Lewis was named 1st Tm MAC becoming the 1st BG frosh to earn 1st Tm recognition s/82 (Brian McClure). Defensively the Falcons really struggled TY (#117) as they all'd 500 ypg and 34 ppg after being the MAC's best D in '12 and '13. The rush D was gashed for 207 ypg (5.1) while the pass D ranked #86 in our efficiency rankings all'g 292 ypg (60.4%, 24-14). The bright spot on the tm is the #21 ST's unit as they are +3 in ST's td's, sporting a 39.6 net punt avg and K Tyler Tate was 21-26 incl 5-7 from 40+ (L52).

These are two struggling tms that statistically are two of the worst tms in the 2014-15 bowl season. BG finished on a 0-3-1 ATS run while SA finished on a 1-5-1 ATS run to close the ssn. Therefore, we will look at the total in this one w/the checklist near the early Vegas line. BG's D is all'g 39 ppg and 565 ypg away from home TY but their offense has avg'd 30 ppg overall and we expect them to crank up some tempo here. On the other side, SA has all'd 36 ppg in their L/4 gms and has all'd at least 400 ypg in each of their L/5 gms. Finally, early bowl gms usually go over the total as there isn't that long of a layoff here.

The Jets are 1-8 SU/2-6-1 ATS vs foes with a winning record TY being outgained 351-288 (-8 TO's) with a 112.8-63.9 QBR difference. Patriots move to 5-1-1 ATS in their final road game of the year.

with a 112.8-63.9 QBR difference. Patriots move to 5-1-1 ATS in their final road game of the year.

3★ Seattle by 14 over ARIZONA - Sunday Night - The Cardinals are now the 3rd team in the L10Y to win 11 games with 3 diff starting QB's. ARZ also has a situational edge off a Thursday Night win while SEA was in a battle vs SF and now travels. In this matchup however we'll go back to basic handicapping and back a better team looking up in the standings. SEA's D is back to Super Bowl form and has held it's last 5 NFC foes on the road to 251 ypg while outgaining them by 188 ypg. Now that the Cardinals know QB Stanton will miss several weeks Ryan Lindley gets his shot under center starting his first game since 2012 when he had a less then impressive 0-7 ratio with a 4.4 ypa. Add in that with RB Ellington's (660 rush, 395 rec, 5 td's) on the IR it'll be tough to get the benefit of needed play action vs SEA's front. WR Larry Fitzgerald did miss the first game this year but Richard Sherman knows he's up to the challenge as LY Fitzgerald was targeted 10 times but was held him to a combined 5 rec for 35 yards.

OTHER SELECTION

2★ Baltimore by 9 over HOUSTON - BAL is 6-1 SU/5-2 ATS all time vs HOU with this being the 5th straight year they've met. BAL won 30-9 LY as a 1 pt HD as the Ravens broke the game open with a 37-yd Int ret and a 82-yd PR's for TD's in less than 2 min to seize the momentum and hold HOU to 7 FD/107 yds in the 2H. Even with LW's closer than expected with the Ravens control their own destiny and if they win out get a playoff berth. BAL's offense was slowed by JAX stunting the run game but the defense kept to its blitz heavy style and the #2 pass rush has 20 sks the L4W. In their L6 games they are allowing 76 ypg (3.7) rushing which is key as the Texans offense will be going thru Foster (102 ypg 4.4 since ret from injury) here. HOU lost Fitzpatrick (brkn leg) and likely #3 QB Savage (knee) vs IND and may be going with Thad Lewis (182 ypg 59% 4-3 LY with BUF) who was signed 11/24. HOU is 1-6 SU/ATS after losing to the Colts, have been outgained by 60 ypg at home TY, are fielding a makeshift QB situation and will be welcoming their former HC in Gary Kubiak home.

OTHER GAMES

Tennessee at Jacksonville - Thurs- This is the 1st fav role for JAX s/Sept '12. JAX 5-1 ATS vs TEN and this is their only primetime game for '14. LY JAX won only one home game but it was also their only prime-time of the season. Can TEN sweep a div foe for the first time S/'08 or will JAX get revenge for a 2 pt loss earlier TY when they had a 55 yd FG blocked with :04 left? Grab this Marquee after Noon ET on Thursday!

San Diego at SAN FRANCISCO - Saturday - One of the things that's haunted the 49ers is the loss of their home field edge. In their L8 HGs they are 5-3 SU/1-7 ATS avg 18.9 ppg despite being +40 ypg. After 3 years of excellent health they've been chewed up on the OL/LB and Kaepernick has failed to adjust to being a pocket passing QB. SD is 2-1 SU/ATS vs the NFC West TY outgaining them by 23 ypg (-1 TO) and a 25-21 avg score with Rivers avg 271 ypg (72%) 5-2 for a 101.4 QBR. SF went 1-2 SU/0-3 ATS vs the AFC West for -33 ypg (-2 TO's) losing by a 28-17 avg score with Kaepernick avg 225 ypg pass (56%) 4-3 and a 75.8 QBR. SF is formally out of the playoffs for the 1st time in Harbaugh's tenure and lost both RB Gore/Hyde LW while SD has struggled since their amazing win over BAL. We'll have a marquee selection on this game come Saturday 12/20/14.

Philadelphia by 13 over WASHINGTON - Saturday - Chip Kelly is 3-0 SU/2-1 ATS vs the Redskins putting 33, 24, 37 pts on them. WAS had a 511-379 yd edge in TY's meeting with 5 drives of 75+ yds. McCoy had just 22 yds rushing (1.2) partially due to a concussion but they were adjusting to not having LG Mathis when Ctr Kelce was inj'd early 3rd Qr. WAS has a slight situational edge with PHI off SNF vs DAL. If PHI lost they'll come in with vengeance with B2B home losses and if they won they will still have fire in their blood as they'll be playing for seeding. While just 2-2 ATS as an AF, Kelly has kept stability with the Eagles despite their QB/OL issues while WAS has struggled. In WAS's 6 game losing streak have given up 24 or more 5 times with only 1 game vs a top 10 offense. While WAS will have to deal with another week of uncertainty at QB we'll side with the Eagles with a better offense and motivation to bring the hammer here.

MIAMI by 9 over Minnesota - MIA is 5-11 ATS after facing the Patriots scoring 13 or less in 3 of their L4 games. MIA had a 271-102 yd edge in the 1H but were blown out in the 2H giving up 27 unanswered points. Tannehill is 2-0 SU/ATS vs a Mike Zimmer defense winning by just 4 and 2 pts with 431 total yds passing (69%). MIA does have the edge of MIN in its 2nd straight road game having just played at DET and Dogs are 4-14 ATS after facing the Lions. MIA has been outgained 405-309 with a 192 (5.3)-78 (4.0) rushing deficit vs 3 playoff teams and a Jets team that didn't want their mistake prone QB coming off the bench to touch the ball. They now get a MIN team off a tough loss where they had a 127 yd edge with Bridgewater having a decent game. The Dolphins still have a good shot at finishing with a winning record, have a quality

Green Bay by 13 over TAMPA BAY - TB has the situational edge with GB off NE, a MNF shootout vs ATL and a road game vs BUF with a big battle vs DET at home on deck. GB is 7-1 SU/4-3-1 ATS vs foes owning a losing record right now with Rodgers avg 312 ypg (68%) with a staggering 25-3 ratio (127.8 QBR) and a 37-23 avg score. Rodgers is off his lowest QBR (34.3) and comp % (40%) as a starter. The Bucs haven't handled the transition to a Lovie Smith defense well getting outgained by 103 yds by a QB who hadn't played since Wk 1. TB is 0-6 SU/1-5 ATS at home TY being outgained by 45 ypg (-6 TO's) rushing for 80 ypg (3.6) in their L4 HG's. TB has allowed 117 ypg (4.0) rushing in their L6 games also. What makes TB's #25 defensive ranking even more damning is that they've only played 5 games with an offense in the top 10. This has become a must win for GB after LW's loss and we'll take the vastly superior offense vs a system that Rodgers knows well (9-2 SU/ATS) when Smith was with the Bears.

Detroit by 10 CHICAGO - DET is 8-1 ATS vs the Bears with a 474-269 yd edge with 72 of CHI's yds coming on their final drive which was int'd in the Thanksgiving game. The Bears are off LW's MNF game vs NO and their psyche is unknown here with OC Kramer having been the source leaking Cutler info to the media. Their 0-3 SU/ATS in their final home game and 2-11 ATS in Div play losing by 18 ppg TY. Despite 10 wins the Lions have not secured a playoff spot and lead the NFC North with GB's loss LW. The Lions drove into the MIN 15 on 3 straight drives in the 2H but settled for 3 FG's as they escaped with the win. They have gone 10 games holding foes to 100 yds or less rushing with 17 or less pts allowed in 5 of 6 games. The Bears do not have ability to bring pressure from their interior like MIN does and Stafford has avg'd 281 ypg (63%) 9-3 in his L4 games vs them. CHI has given up 27 or more in 5 of their L7 games with the other 2 games being vs the Bucs in poor weather and MIN coming off their bye. The Lions win big to set up a potential SNF flex game for the NFC North.

NEW ORLEANS by 9 over Atlanta - The home team has covered 6 straight but that's complicated with NO's 0-4 SU/ATS run where they lost by 15 ppg. The Saints are off LW's MNF game vs CHI and win or lose will be in desperation mode here. In NO's L4 home losses they've avg'd 379 ypg which would be 9th on the year but the defense has been horrendous. They've allowed 204 ypg (5.8) rushing with a secondary allowing 225 ypg (62%) with an 8-0 ratio and just 6 sks with that home crowd edge. The Falcons were without Julio Jones LW but Ryan still put 310 yds passing on the Steelers in the loss. Their lack of pass rush did them in as their 17 sacks is 32nd in the league with just 3 in the L4W. Vs Brees, Eli, Stafford, Rodgers and Roethlisberger the Falcons have allowed 58% conv on 3rd Dns, 415 ypg passing (65%)

8-2 with just 3 sks. With a win, NO would not only KO the Falcons from the playoff picture they'd likely end the Mike Smith era and we'll call for them to break their home losing streak.

PITTSBURGH by 6 over Kansas City - The Chiefs are 12-3 ATS on the road under Reid with a 26-19 avg score. The Steelers are 8-4 ATS at home but this is not a good matchup for the Chiefs who bring the #28 run defense to town. PIT has rushed for 137 ypg (4.9) the L4W even with LW's effort vs ATL where they didn't have to run with Roethlisberger being so effective. KC is allowing 163 ypg (5.0) rushing the L5W and also leads the league with 62 rush plays of 10 or more yds allowed. PIT is on pace to allow less than 40 sacks for just the 2nd time in 9 years which is key as KC brings the #7 pass rush. PIT is +78 ypg (+0 TO's) at home, have more playmakers in the passing game (Brown has 84 more rec yds than Kelce/Bowe combined), KC has just 4 int's TY and PIT won't look past a team that's competing with them for a playoff spot.

has just 4 int's TY and PIT won't look past a team that's competing with them for a playoff spot.

CAROLINA by 10 over Cleveland - The Manziel era started LW and it came with a loud thud. CLE went 3 and out on 6 of 9 full drives with the rest ending in 2 int's and a punt. Manziel was woefully ineffective with 80 yds (56%) with 2 int's while the defense was pushed all over the field giving up 128 yds (6.1) in the 1H alone. CLE was without its top 3 CB's in the 2H vs CIN and the 107 yds offense was a season low in the NFL Road teams are 23-10 ATS off a shutout home loss but CAR finds themselves in the hunt for the NFC South with their win LW. Over the L4W CAR has outgained foes 407-288 (+2 TO's) with 10 sks. The Browns have been eliminated from the playoff hunt and their psyche has to be damaged after Manziel failed miserably in his 1st start. CAR is used to defending mobile QB's in practice and their LB unit is one of the best and we'll call for the home team by 10 and wait for the word on Newton.

unit is one of the best and we'll call for the home team by 10 and wait for the word on Newton. ST LOUIS by 3 over NY Giants - This is the Giants 3rd road game in 4 Wks and teams in that role (bye or home game in stretch) are 14-20 ATS TY. The Giants have only covered at WAS on Thur Nite and TEN and in the other 5 road games have been outgained 411-291 with a 31-15 avg score with a 181 (5.4)-83 93.3) rush deficit. The Rams may have the extra rest but home teams off a Thursday loss are on a 1-8 ATS run. After avg 135 ypg (4.8) in their 4 previous games the Rams were held to a season low 69 yds (3.5). The Rams had just 1 sack after tallying 34 in their previous 8 but they now get a Giants team that has faced TEN/WAS who have 34 sacks combined in their L8. Manning has been sharp in his L4 games with 274 ypg (68%) with a 8-2 ratio but the run game has been very hit or miss TY (49 yds 2.2 LW) and the Giants pass rush has been on fire the L3W with 22 sks. The Rams are very capable of slugging it out with big name teams but they don't yet have the offensive talent withstand a comparable physical team as LW's matchup vs ARZ showed. We'll call for the home team by a FG with Fisher being 5-2 ATS off a loss TY.

Buffalo by 3 OAKLAND - This is BUF's 1st role as an AF in a yr with a decent 9-5 ATS mark as a chalk and have a shot at their 1st winning ssn s/04. December AF's that won SU as a HD are 8-19 ATS and are off a

Buffalo by 3 OAKLAND - This is BUF's 1st role as an AF in a yr with a decent 9-5 ATS mark as a chalk and have a shot at their 1st winning ssn s/'04. December AF's that won SU as a HD are 8-19 ATS and are off a massive upset over the Packers holding 4 straight QB's to under 59.0 QBR's (195 ypg 54% 0-7!!). BUF's run game (102 ypg 3.8 L4W) has done just enough to keep Orton out of trouble and give the #5 defense favorable situations to bring their #1 pass rush. The Bills get a plus matchup with Carr having been beat up LW vs KC (4 sks 11 QB hits) and their 11th game under 100 yds rushing TY. Carr was held to 222 yds passing on 56 pass att's (0 int's though) and now faces a Bills team that held Rodgers to a career worst game. After facing a formidable GB secondary the Raiders 98.3 opposing QBR is 26th and they are allowing 128 ypg (4.1) rushing at home. Must be leery as OAK has proven that they can post upsets off bad road losses vs KC and SF.

Indianapolis by 10 over DALLAS - IND clinched their div with a 17-10 win versus HOU LW and while they Indianapolis by 10 over DALLAS - IND clinched their div with a 17-10 win versus HOU LW and while they already lost to both NE and DEN they have finished up the regular season 4-0 SU/ATS under Pagano covering by 13 ppg. Luck now gets a chance to shake off a subpar game for him (18-34, 5.5 ypa) and can do so verses a Cowboys D that is #28 allowing 66.7% completions and also #28 with only 19 sacks. DAL meanwhile is off the NFC GOY having traveled to PHI with the NFC East on the line and either way they return to Jerryville where they have gone 4-16 as a HF while losing the L3 SU and while getting outgained by 96 ypg. The Cowboys have been able to control the tempo in their games as they lead the NFL in 3D% but that will be much more difficult here as the Colts defense will not allow that as their stop unit comes in ranked #1 in 3D%.

Denver at CINCINNATI - Monday - Obvious playoff ramifications for both teams. The Bengals have struggled under the prime-time lights going 2-8 ATS the L5Y including an embarrassing 24-3 loss to CLE early this year. CIN has however has gone 8-1 ATS as a non-div HD the L6Y but that is balanced by DEN going 9-3 as an AF vs the AFC with a pair of those losses taking place at NE. Both the Monday Night Magic and Marquee will be available after Noon ET!

at Marlins Park. BYU has been to a bowl every season under Mendenhall going 6-3 SU/ATS in that span while 3rd yr HC Fuente has the Tigers back in the postssn for the 1st time s/'08 with an opportunity to get to 10 wins for the 1st time since 1938!

BYU was a trendy pre-ssn pick to run the table, but those dreams fell apart when star QB Hill was inj'd. Sr Stewart came on and after 4 str losses, the Cougars have won 4 str since. While he couldn't match Hill's outstanding comp % (66.7 vs Stewart's 58.5), he does have a solid 22-6 ratio. FB Lasike is the leading non-inj'd RB's w/353 yds (top 2 rushers Williams and Hill OFY) but BYU does enter with a solid 191 (4.4) rush ypg avg. WR Mathews leads the tm w/840 yds & 8 td's but they will be without deep threat Pearson (16.9) who is OFY w/a broken collarbone. No pi'r on the #56 ranked D st'd all 12 gms & the 384 ypg all'd is their most s/'05. Saf PoVey not only leads the tm w/70 tkls, but he is also tied for the tm lead w/2 int's & BYU has our #65 ranked pass eff D as they've all'd 58.4% completions & a 21-11 ratio. The ST's are much improved TY (#23 from #102 LY) as KR Hine avg's 26.9 on KR's & P Arellano has a terrific 41.2 net. PK Samson went just 1-2 from 40+ w/a long of 41.

HC Fuente has done a great job as the 9 wins by Memphis this yr is their most s/'03 & a win here would be their most wins s/1938! The #46 O avg'd 423 ypg, which is their most s/'07. QB Lynch is much improved in his 2nd yr as he's passed for 2,725 yds comp 64% with a 18-6 ratio. The rush attack is led once again by RB Hayes, who leads w/900 (5.2) & MU avg's 192 (4.2) rush ypg, their most s/'08. Lynch does a great job of spreading the ball around as Frazier led w/43 rec's & 5 plr's have 25+ rec's. Malone leads in yds w/480 while the deep threat is Henderson (14.1 ypc). The D is a tad overrated (our #46, NCAA #22) & leading tkl'r LB Jakes has almost double the #2 man S Etienne. Jakes also led the tm w/6 sks & 9.5 tfl's. The 343 ypg all'd is their best s/'03. MU ranks #20 in our pass eff D as they allow just 54.2% completions & have a solid 11-14 ratio. The ST's are among the nation's best (#9) as they are +5.2 in KR and +6.3 in PR. PK Elliott was unreliable however as he was just 5-14 from 40+ after going 7-8 from 40+ LY.
Both tms offenses (BYU #40-46), defenses (Memp #46-56) and ST's (Memp #9-23) are relatively close and our checklist has this near the early Vegas line. Therefore, we'll defer to the total in this one and find some value. BYU's offense is avg 36 ppg and all'd 33 pts to UVA, 35 to Utah St, 31 to UCF, 42 to Nev, 55 to Boise and 35 to Cal. Meanwhile, on the other side, the Memphis offense avg's 35 ppg and they haven't faced a Top 90 offense in each of their L/6 gms as their 13 ppg all'd in those contests gives us some value.

First annual Boca Raton Bowl between a pair of teams that have battled 7 previous times (most as former MAC members) with the Huskies holding a 4-3 overall edge (last game was in '01). NIU HC Carey has now taken his Huskies to the postssn both ssns under his guidance and also served as the interim HC in the '12 Orange Bowl (0-2 SU/ATS). MU HC Holliday meanwhile has led the Herd to bowl bids 3 of the past 4 ssns winning both of his postssn trips SU/ATS.

The Huskies have now won 11 or more gms in 5 consec seasons and in their L/gm they beat BG 51-17 (-6') in the MAC Champ Gm easily cashing a $3 \pm$ Key Selection on these pages. NIU has our #59 off led by QB Hare who passed for 2,097 yds (59.9%) and a very impressive 17-2 ratio. Hare also found himself near the top of the Huskies rushing charts w/850 (5.9), just 45 yds behind leading rusher Stingily (895, 5.1, 13 td). WR Brown eclipsed the 1,000 yd mark against BG in the Title Game (1002, 15.7) while the OL featured five 13-game starters who helped pave the way for 253 ypg (5.2) while all'g just 11 sks (3.1%). The Huskies have our #75 D led by LB Lemon who finished 2nd on the tm w/86 tkls. S Moore led the tm w/93 tkls as NIU had our #56 pass eff D all'g 224 ypg (57.3%) w/a 15-14 ratio. While P Wedel was able to post a 40.0 net avg, the big reason for NIU's #85 finish was the struggles in the kicking game (14-23 incl 3 blks).

While a trip to South Florida isn't a bad way to spend the postssn, you would have to think that the Herd were thinking of something bigger before their hiccup in their regular ssn home finale against WKU that cost MU a perfect ssn. They also might have preferred a bowl vs a Power 5 conf tm. The Herd boast one of the more highoctane offenses in the FBS (#12) led by Sr QB Cato (3622, 58.5%, 37-13) and the RB duo of Johnson and Butler who combined for 2,417 (8.2) and 23 rush td's. WR Shuler is nearing the 1,000 yd mark for the 3rd time in his career w/953 (12.9) while the OL led by C Jasperse is helping to pave the way for 276 ypg (6.9) while all'g just 19 sks (4.4%). The Herd all'd just 17 ppg and 320 ypg in their 12 wins TY but were destroyed by the Hilltoppers all'g 67 pts and 738 yds and finished #48 in our def rankings. LB's Hewitt (114 tkl) and Holmes (96 tkl) finished as the top 2 tkl'rs while DE Blackmon led the tm w/8 sks. MU finished with our #28 pass eff D all'g 195 ypg (54.6%) and a 20-13 ratio while their ST's (#14) were solid in every area highlighted by K Haig who hit 16-20 FG's on the year.

The Boca Raton hit a home run w/their first ever bowl getting 2 conf champs and 2 of the better non-Power 5 programs. While Marshall is clearly the better tm (see checklist to the left), this gm comes down to intangibles as NIU is excited to be here while the Herd had different plans. Also notable is the fact NIU sports a perfect 7-0 SU/ATS record as a dog of 12 or less dating back to 2010!

FORECAST: N Illinois (+) over Marshall POWER SWEEP RATING: 2★

All 3 previous meetings between these 2 tms have occurred in this stadium (home of the Aztecs) including one matchup in this very same bowl in '10 (SDSt has won all 3 SU/ATS). This will be the Midshipmen's 4th Poinsettia Bowl s/'05 (1-2 SU/2-1 ATS) while the Aztecs are making heir 3rd postssn appearance here as they lost 23-6 (+3) just 2 yrs ago against BYU. Navy HC Niumatalolo hás now taken hís squad to a bowl in 6 of his 7 ssns while also serving as the interim in '07 (2-4 SU/3-3 ATS). SDSt HC Long has now posted 4 consec winning ssns since joining the Aztecs while going 1-2 SU/ATS in their bowl trips.

Navy comes in riding a 3-gm winning streak and now have a chance to reach the 8 victory plateau for the 3rd consec ssn. Their #38 offense is led by veteran QB Reynolds whose biggest game of the ssn came against GSU when he rushed for 277 yds and 6 td's. Reynolds leads the tm in rushing w/1,082 (5.3) and 20 td's while RB Copeland is a close 2nd w/859 (8.2). Jamir Tillman is the only real rec threat w/338 yds and a solid 18.8 ypc. The OL led by RG Zuzek is paving the way for 358 ypg (6.4), their best mark in more than 20 yrs. Their #110 ranked def is an issue as they've all'd 29.9 ppg and 426 ypg (worst S/'07). LB's Drake (85 tkl) and Gonzales (73 tkl) are the tm's top 2 tklr's but the big problem was the lack of a pass rush as Navy has recorded just 5 sks all ssn tying w/NMSt for the fewest in the FBS. Their #115 pass eff D all'd 226 ypg (67.8%) and a 22-11 ratio. The Middles had our #75 ST's led by P Beltran who had a solid 40.7 not Hewever, the return with 16.4 SP(66.7.8%) who had a solid 40.7 net. However, the return units (3.4 PR/19.7 KR) were the main culprit for their subpar finish.

SDSt won their L/2 gms of the ssn to earn a postssn trip to their home venue. SDSt struggled on offense this year finishing with our #92 ranking. Following a solid '13 ssn in which he threw for 3,007 yds (59.6%) and a 19-9 ratio, QB Kaehler regressed some TY as he passed for just 2,016 yds (56.4%) and a poor 9-10 ratio in his 10 sts. After finishing 2nd on the tm LY in rushing (752, 6.0), RB Pumphrey became the bell cow for the offense with 1,761 yds (6.9) on the ground (3rd FBS) and 19 td's (9 gms of 100+ rush yds). No NR has reached the 500 yd mark w/Judge serving as the deep hreat (439, 19.1). HC Long is a def-oriented coach so you know they'll boast a solid unit each ssn (#41, 338 ypg). LB's Gavert (78 tkl) and Munson (77 tkl) finished as the top 2 tklr's while the secondary finished with our #27 pass eff D all'g just 192 ypg (56.0%) with a great 10-14 ratio. The Aztecs have our #44 ST's led by K Hageman who hit 5-6 from 40+ w/a long of 49.

There might not be a better coach in the country than SDSt's ong when it comes to defending the option. TY his stop units held AF and NM to ssn lows. SDSt's offense is run heavy and likes to work the clock and SDSt gms are a combined 1-10 O/U TY!

While this is the inaugural Bahamas Bowl, these two squads WKU (7-5) met in the postssn 2 yrs ago in Detroit where the Chips knocked off WKU 24-21 as a 6 pt dog (WKU 1st /only prior bowl). CM has been ATS: 6-6 O/U: 8-4 to 7 bowls all-time as an FBS member (3-4) while current HC Enos has been part of just one, the previously mentioned Little Caesars Pizza Bowl. This is WKU Brohm's 1st yr as a HC but he does have plenty of bowl experience as an asst, most notably at Louisville.

A win here by CM will give them their most wins s/'09. QB Rush leads the #93 offense & he's been much improved in his 2nd ssn as the st'r throwing for 2,664 yds (63.8%) w/a 20-12 ratio. All 5 OL started every gm & the unit was anchored by 1st Tm MAC honorees C Beamish & LG Phillips as they helped pave the way for 159 (4.0) rush ypg, their most s/'09. Mich trans RB Rawls has 1,103 (5.3) yds & 10 td's despite st'g just 6 gms (inj'd L/gm CS). WR Davis was a 1st Tm MAC selection & he leads CM w/54 rec's, 843 yds, 15.6 ypc & 9 td's. The D is solid (our #59, NCAA #16) as they all'd 331 ypg, which was their best in 20+ yrs. LB Cherocci is the leading tkl'r for a the 3rd str ssn w/107 & he was named 1st Tm MAC. CB Annese is #2 in tkl's w/65 & CM has our #67 ranked pass eff D all'g 211 ypg (57.2%) w/a 19-14 ratio. The ST's unit is awful as they're -2.0 in KR, -9.0 in PR. P Coluzzi has a net of just 33.9 while K Eavey has att'd just 9 kicks all ssn w/a long of 43.

After moving up from the FCS level in '07, WKU failed to become bowl elig their F4Y, but they've now won 7 or more gms the L4Y. Despite QB Doughty leading the FBS in pass yds (4,344) & td's (44), WKU runs a pretty balanced offense (56% pass, 44% run). The #16 offense avg 525 ypg, easily their most in schl history. The aforementioned Doughty was named CUSA MVP.2nd Tm CUSA RT Clemmons anchors an OL that paved the way for 160 (4.8) rush ypg with 2nd Tm CUSA RB Allen rushing for 1,490 (5.8) yds & 12 td's. 2nd Tm CUSA WR Dangerfield leads the tm in rec's (64) & td's (10) while Taylor leads in yds (739) & is the deep threat (16.8 ypc). Defense is an afterthought as the Hilltoppers enter with our #122 ranked unit all'g 502 ypg, their most in schl history. LB's make up the #1, 2 & 5 leading tklr's w/Holt having a tm high 103. The #125 pass eff D all'd 272 ypg (63.7%) w/a 26-12 ratio, but features 2nd Tm CUSA CB Terry. The lone bright spot among the #119 ST unit is K Schwettman, who is 16-20 incl 2-3 from 40+ but his long is just 42.

While our checklist to the left has a slight lean with CMU (WKU is -3), we think there is more value in the total in this one. This is by far the best offense CM has faced all yr (#16) and in their only gm vs a Top 40 offense (Toledo), they all'd 42 pts. On the other side, CM's triplets of QB Rush, RB Rawls and WR Davis should be capable of scoring 30+ pts vs a WKU D all'g 48 ppg away from home TY.

These 2 squads meet for the 1st time since they were former WAC members from '99-'04 (FSU 6-0 SU all-time, 3-3 ATS). The Bulldogs are very familiar with Aloha Stadium having played in the Hawaii Bowl on 2 occasions (incl a 43-10 defeat at the hands of SMU 2 yrs ago as a 13 pt favorite) and MW trips every other ssn against the Warriors. Rice meanwhile has never made a bowl appearance in Honolulu but has made 3 trips to the islands in team history ('99/'01/'03). While FSU HC Deruyter is 0-2 SU/ATS in bowl games with the Bulldogs, he did pick up a win as interim HC at A&M in 11. Rice HC Bailiff is now making his 3rd consec postssn appearance and 4th overall with the Owls (2-1 SU/ATS).

It's been a ssn of streaks for FSU as they had 2 separate 3 gm winning & losing streaks in a rare 13 gm reg ssn. The #75 offense avg'd 418 ypg, their lowest s/11. QB Burrell has 2,576 (58.7%) w/a 22-16 ratio. The 5 OL never missed a st & is anchored by 2nd Tm MW RG Wichmann, who helped pave the way for 184 (4.6) rush ypg, their most s/'09. 2nd Tm MW RB Waller has 1,292 (6.2) & 11 td's. 2X 1st Tm MW WR Harper led the tm w/86 rec's, 1,072 yds & 7 td's & he has nearly 3X the number of catches as their #2. The #87 D is all'g 456 ypg (most s/95) incl 207 (4.7) rush ypg (most s/09). 3X 1st Tm MW DL Davison leads the tm w/8 sks, while LB Wilson leads w/88 tkls. The #112 pass eff D is all'g 249 ypg (60.2%) w/a 29-9 ratio, but does feature 3X 1st Tm MW S Smith. The #89 ST's unit is +1.3 KR & +1.9 PR. P Swanson has just a 36.8 net while K Kroening is just 1-2 from 40+ w/a long of 44.

The Owls'24 victories is their most in a 3-yr span in school history. The #88 offense is avg 394 ypg, which is their lowest s/11. 1st yr st'g QB Jackson has thrown for 2,524 yds (57.3%) w/a 21-8 ratio. All 5 OL st'd every gm w/2nd Tm CUSA LG Carlson anchoring a unit that paved the way to 171 (3.9) rush ypg. RB Davis leads w/910 (3.9) rush yds, but was held to a ssn-low 19 yds his L/gm, while Dillard is #2 w/651 (4.9) & a tm-high 10 td's. 2nd Tm CUSA WR Taylor leads w/49 rec's & 781 yds despite missing 3 gms. The deep threat is Hull, who is #2 w/29 rec's & 539 yds, but leads w/7 td's avg 18.6 ypc. The #95 D is all'g 397 ypg. 1st yr st'g DE Nordstrom leads CUSA w/18.5 tfl's & earned 1st Tm Conf honors. The #104 pass eff D is all'g 245 (55.6%) w/a 27-7 ratio & features 2nd Tm CUSA CB Callahan. The #121 ST's unit was done in by their KOR unit (all'g 28.1 ypr) & P Farrimond has just a 36.3 net while the K combo of Hairston/Farrimond comb'd to hit just 3-9 from 40+ w/a long of 40.

LT went on the road to Champaign as a 2' pt fav in UI HC Beckman's 1st ssn (2012) and delivered a 52-24 beat down of the Illini (only previous meeting). The Illini and Bulldogs have never made a trip to the Heart of Dallas Bowl (established '11) and this also marks both Beckman and LT HC Holtz's 1st postssn trips with their current tms (Beckman prior bowl exp w/Toledo, Holtz w/USF & ECU).

Wins at home vs Penn St and on the road at NW got the Illini to 6-6 and their 1st bowl in 3 ssns despite the fact that they were outscored by 7.3 ppg and outgained by 104 ypg on the ssn. UI has plyd musical chairs at the QB position due to inj's and poor play at it appears that O'Toole will get the start here after passing and rushing for 147 yds each w/3 td's in the finale. On the yr O'Toole has thrown for 1,049 yds (58.7%) w/a 9-7 ratio. RB Ferguson leads the tm in rushing w/685 (4.9) and 8 td's while WR Dudek has nearly double the amount of yds of their #2 (69, 965, 14.0). LG Heitz is the only OL to start all 12 as their 117 rush ypg (3.7) is their lowest s/03. The def had their own share of struggles finishing #96 all'g 464 ypg. Four players had 90+ tkls TY with LB Monheim and S Petty each eclipsing the 100 tkl mark. UI had our #94 pass eff D all'g 215 ypg (58.5%) with a 19-7 ratio while their ST's finished #60 hitting just 7-13 FG's on the ssn. P DuVernois did put together a solid avg (44.4) and net (40.2) while Bentley had 21.6 KR and 10.2 PR avg.

The Bulldogs blew a 7 pt lead heading into the 4Q of the CUSA Title game losing to Marshall 26-23 (+7') giving them 2 defeats in their final 3 gms. Their #60 off is led by the combo of QB Sokol (3189, 58.6%, 29-13 ratio) and RB Dixon (1236, 5.2) who finished with 21 rush td's on the yr. WR Taylor is by far their leader (814, 13.1). LT had no consistency in the starting lineup at OL this ssn with no player starting all 13 gms but they still surprisingly all'd just 17 sks and paved the way for 151 ypg (4.3). The Bulldog defense had a strong ssn all'g 356 ypg ranking as our #40 unit. Even more impressive was their secondary that finished with our #21 pass eff D all'g 238 ypg (59.5%) and an 18-25 ratio led by leading tkl'r S Brice (80) and #3 tkl'r Woods (62, 5 int). The 25 int's are tied w/Louisville for the FBS lead. While KR Henderson had a solid ssn (25.9, 1 TD), the kicking game was very poor as they finished #102 in our ST rankings. P McPherson had just a 33.3 net while K's Barnes and Fischer hit just a combined 17-26 FG's incl 6-13 from 40+.

While LT is statistically much stronger than Illinois, this gm comes down to intangibles. The Illini find themselves a TD dog to a non-Power 5 conf tm and come in confident after winning their final 2. They have a chance to finish w/a winning ssn while LT is playing w/o 5 st'rs who are academically ineligble incl their top 2 LB's and top 2 OL. QB Sokol is also playing w/a banged up shld'r (7-20 vs Marsh)

Rutgers and UNC have met on 6 previous occasions incl 4 times in the past 10 yrs (series tied at 3-3). With the changes in this bowl's affiliations and Rutgers just joining up with the B10TY, it's no surprise that both are making their 1st ever trips to Detroit. Since taking over for Greg Schiano in 12, RU HC Flood hasn't missed a beat as the Knights are making their 3rd consec postssn trip under him but they are 0-2 SU/1-1 ATS. The Tar Heels were banned in Fedora's 1st yr of '12 (8-4 record) so this marks his 2nd bowl trip for UNC under his command winning LY's Belk Bowl vs Cincy 39-17 (-2').

Rutgers exceeded expectations in their 1st ssn of B10 play, but they did struggle vs the conf's elite. The #68 offense was dealt a blow when RB James went down w/inj in their 4th gm. True frosh Hicks is the leading rusher over their L/3 gms but on the yr has just 238 (4.8) yds. All 5 OL st'd every gm & the 379 ypg the O avg's is their most s/'08. QB Nova improved under new OC Friedgen & has thrown for 2,667 vds w/a 20-12 ratio. WR Carroo has 1,043 vds (19.7) on 53 rec's & earned 1st Tm B10 honors while Turzilli finished #2 in yds despite just 9 rec's (34.8 ypc)). Soph LB Longa is the leading tkl'r for the 2nd str ssn w/93 as the LB's rank 1, 2 & 4 in tkl's for the #65 D. The secondary has struggled as they enter with our #96 ranked pass eff D. They've all'd 58.7% comp & a 16-7 ratio. The #81 ST's unit was done in by a punting unit that had a net of just 34.7 & PK Federico was just 5-9 from 40+ w/a long of 45.

With a win here North Carolina will extend their streak of 7+ win ssn's to 7 str. They struggled early on using a 2 QB system, but once Williams took over for good, the #34 offense started to click. QB Williams has had a solid yr throwing for 2,870 yds (62.7%) w/a 20-9 ratio. He's also the leading rusher w/737 (4.1) & 12 td's (did have a poor outing in the finale). RB Logan is #2 w/472 (4.5). WR Switzer leads w/55 rec's for 703 yds while the deep threat is Hollins, who is #4 in rec's, but #2 in yds w/611 & avg's 18.0 ypc w/a tm leading 8 td's. The defense ranks all the way down at #100 as LB Schoettmer & S Scott are tied for the lead in tkls w/72. The Tar Heels have really struggled defending the pass as they have our #111 pass eff D all'g 264 ypg (59.4%) w/a 29-12 ratio. ST's has also been an issue, which is surprising after being great the L2Y. The #98 unit avg just 4.9 on PR's & the K duo of Moore/Weiler comb'd to go 0-3 from 40+ w/a long of just 30.

While UNC has the offensive edge (#34-68), Rutgers has the defensive (#65-100) and ST's edges (#81-98). Our checklist actually likes the Knights outright despite the fact they are a FG underdog. While they were outclassed against the likes of Ohio St, Neb and Mich St on the road, they did beat Wash St, Navy and Maryland outright (all as a dog) and those tms are much closer to UNC

NC State and UCF have met twice in their history splitting those contests in '07 & '10. The Wolfpack will be making their 1st trip here to St. Petersburg (started bowl in '08) while UCF is making their 3rd appearance to Tropicana Field in the past 7 yrs (1-1 SU/ATS) and their campus is just 100 miles away (Raleigh is 670 miles). NC State 2nd yr HC Doeren is taking his tm to a bowl for the 1st time but he has coached in 1 bowl (N Illinois '11 1-0 SU/ATS) prior to his arrival. UCF HC O'Leary meanwhile has now led his Knights to the postssn in 5 of the L/6 yrs incl LY's 52-42 upset (+16') of Baylor in the Fiesta. He has now won and covered each of his L/3 bowl gms.

It didn't take HC Doeren much time to turn things around for NCSt after a 3 win ssn LY, as a win here would give them their most wins s/11. The #45 ranked offense is led by Florida trans QB Brissett, who has thrown for 2,344 yds (59.9%) w/a fine 22-5 ratio. RB Thornton is the leading rusher for a 3rd str ssn & he enters w/811 (5.5) & a tm leading 9 td's. NCSt is avg 206 (5.4) rush ypg, their most in 20+ yrs. The rec unit is led by true frosh WR Hines (42-537-12.8). TE Grinnage is tied for #3 in rec's but #2 in yds w/331. RFr LB Fernandez is the tms leading tkl'r w/76 despite st'g 9 gms & Saf Jones is #2 w/72. The pass eff D is ranked #78 all'g 198 pass ypg (57.7%) w/a 16-9 ratio. Punter Baumann highlights the #54 ST unit as he earned 1st Tm ACC honors & has a fine 40.3 net avg. The KR avg is -0.6 & the PR is -4.4. K Sade has been effective going 5-7 from 40+ w/a long of 48.

While UCF didn't have the same type of success as LY, a win here would give them DD wins for the 4th time in 5Y incl 3 straight. The #91 O struggled after losing a #1DC QB as the 363 ypg avg was their lowest s/'09. QB Holman grew more consistent as the ssn went along & he's thrown for 2,661 (59%) w/a 20-13 ratio. He was no doubt helped by 1st Tm AAC WR Perriman who is #2 in rec's w/41, #1 in yds w/906 & avg an amazing 22.1 ypc w/a tm high 9 rec td's He was last seen pulling in the Hail Mary to pass that gave UCF the win at EC and a share of the AAC crown. RB Stanback also earned 1st Tm AAC honors despite just 6 sts (659, 3.7). The major reason for UCF's success was due to their #26 D as they all'd just 283 ypg, their best ever in the FBS. 2X 1st Tm AAC LB Plummer leads the tm w/92 tkls. Their pass D is even better, ranking #16 in our pass eff D & is led by co-AAC DPOY soph CB Glenn, who has a tm high 7 int's & 11 pbu's. SS Geathers is the #2 tkl'r w/83 & also earned 1st Tm AAC. The ST unit took a step back (#86 TY, #29 LY) They are +5.5 KR, +2.2 PR, but P Houston has a net of just 34.4 & K Moffitt was just 4-8 from 40+.

Our checklist to the left only has UCF by 3 but we do like the fact, they have the better D and the turf/crowd edge. It's also tough going against O'Leary with rumors that this could be his final gm.

The Hokies and Bearcats have met 10 times in their history (5-5) incl a 27-24 Cincy win 2 ssns ago (+6') and a VT 20-7 win (+2') in the '08 Orange Bowl. The Military Bowl (previously EagleBank) has been in existence s/'08 with neither team having been part of it. VT HC Beamer has plenty of bowl experience with the Hokies taking his team to the postssn in each of the past 22 yrs going 9-12 SU/9-11-1 ATS. UC HC Tuberville has now taken his tm to a bowl in each of his 2 yrs here and has past bowl experience as the HC at TT, Aub and Ole Miss.

VT needs a win here to avoid their first losing season s/92. The Hokies struggled mightily on offense, entering #86. TT trans QB Brewer threw for 2,598 yds (59.5%) w/a 17-14 ratio. True frosh RB Williams is the leading rusher but w/just 475 yds (3.8) as the unit dealt w/injuries all yr. Four plr's finished w/40+ rec's led by true frosh WR Ford's 665 yds. 6-6 TE Hodges is #3 in rec's, #2 in yds & #1 w/7 td's. The D is what kept VT in their gms and they have our #18 unit. S Jarrett is the #1 tklr w/86, while DL's Nicolas (tm high 9 sks) & Marshall earned 2nd Tm ACC honors. The 145 (3.9) rush ypg was their most all'd s/'10 however. The pass D is elite, ranking as our #9 pass eff D as they all'd just 187 ypg, 47.6% completions & an 11-10 ratio. Soph CB Fuller had 14 pbu's & is the lone Hokie to earn 1st Tm ACC. After yrs of outstanding ST play, VT has struggled for a 2nd str ssn TY with our #87 unit. They avg just 18.5 on KR's & 6.8 on PR's while K Slye is just 2-8 from 40+ w/a long of just 42.

Cincinnati again has a chance to win 10+ gms, which would be their 6th time in 8 yrs. The balanced offensive attack is ranked #31 & is led QB Kiel, who had a solid initial campaign throwing for 3,010 (60.2%) w/a 30-11 ratio. RG Ehinger & LT Lefeld were named 1st Tm AAC & anchored an OL that paved the way for 158 (4.5) rush ypg. True frosh RB Boone leads the tm w/601 (6.6) yds & a tm high 9 td's. WR Washington leads w/61 rec's while McKay leads in yds w/690. The D is a liability as they all'd 448 ypg, their most s/'98 & enter ranked #82. Three of the top 4 tklr's are LB's, led by FSU trans & 1st tm AAC Luc w/121 tkls. Saf Edwards & LB Temple also have 100+ tkls. The #97 ranked pass eff D all'd 266 (60.8%) ypg w/a disappointing 21-7 ratio. The ST's unit was improved from LY (#56 vs #124) but they still avg'd just 19.6 on KR & 6.6 on PR's. K Gantz is solid as he's 5-7 from 40+.

Both of these tms played Ohio St in non-conf play and if you judge by the results of that gm, VT should be a 6 td fav in this one! We'll use better reasoning, however as to why we back the Hokies here. 1st they have plenty of motivation to avoid their 1st losing ssn in 20+ yrs. Second, our checklist actually calls for them by 3.5 and enter here a FG dog. Finally while Cincy has reeled off 7 str wins, VT has by far the best D (#18) they've faced in that stretch.

First ever meeting between the Blue and Sun Devils with Duke also making their very 1st trip to the Sun Bowl. ASU meanwhile has plyd in postssn action here on 4 previous occasions (2-1-1 SU/2-0 ATS) with their last trip coming in '04. Duke HC Cutcliffe has now led his tm to bowl appearances in each of the past 3 yrs (0-2 SU/1-1 ATS) as the Blue Devils had gone from '95-'11 without a postssn bid beforehand. ASU HC Graham has been a winner wherever he's gone (Rice, Tulsa, Pitt) and is now 4-1 SU/ATS in bowls.

Duke has 9+ wins in B2B ssn's for the 1st time in schl history. The #51 offense is led by 2nd yr str QB Boone, who is the winningest QB in schl history. He has 2,507 yds (56.9%) w/a 17-7 ratio. The OL missed just 1 st & is anchored by 1st Tm ACC RG Tomlinson & paved the way for 183 (4.9) rush ypg, their most in 20+ yrs. True frosh RB Wilson led w/590 (8.0) despite not st'g a gm. WR Crowder earned 1st Tm ACC & led the tm w/78 rec's & 942 yds. He is the #2 rec in ACC hist w/276 rec's. 3 plr's have 100+ tkl's, led by 2nd Tm ACC LB Helton, who is also on pace to lead the entire conf in tkl's for a 2nd str ssn. Duke has our #68 D & the 400 ypg all'd is their best s/'09. The #37 ranked pass eff D features 2nd Tm ACC S Cash, who has 103 tkls, 5.5 sks & has 4 FF's. They're all'g 204 pass ypg (54.5%) w/a 12-11 ratio. The #5 ST's unit features 1st Tm ACC RS Crowder, who avg'd 10.1 on PR, while Edwards avg'd 25.4 on KR's. P Edwards has a net avg of 40.1 while K Martin is 4-6 from 40+ w/a long of 49

HC Graham has done a fabulous job at ASU as a win here would give them B2B ssn's of 10+ wins, which hasn't been done here since they did it 4 str yrs from '70-'73. QB Kelly leads the #24 offense with 1,874 (57.8%) pass yds w/a 20-5 ratio. Bercovici filled in nicely when Kelly was out w/inj and also replaced him in the finale. The OL missed just 1 st & is anchored by 1st Tm P12 LT Douglas. 2nd Tm P12 RB Foster rushed for 1,022 (5.5) w/9 td's. 1st Tm P12 WR Strong is the leading rec for a 2nd str yr w/75 rec's for 1,062 yds & a tm high 10 td's. LB's make up the #3, 4 & 5 tkl'rs for the #47 ranked D, which all'd its most ypg (419) s/11. Saf Randall is the #1 tkl'r w/101 & also added 9.5 tfl's to earn 1st Tm P12. He highlights the #51 ranked pass eff D that allows 262 (60%) pass ypg w/a 19-13 ratio. The ST unit ranks #74 as they are -1.9 in KR & -5.4 in PR. K Gonzalez is just 5-9 from 40+ w/a long of 49.

We originally thought we were going to have a heavy lean on the Sun Devils here as they have played 7 tms TY with 7 or more wins while Duke has only played 1. Also HC Graham prior to getting upset as a 2-td fav LY was a perfect 4-0 SU/ATS in his prior 4 bowls w/an avg cover of 34 ppg! However, Duke and HC Cutcliffe have gotten some pretty bad breaks as large dogs in each of the L/2 yrs and we'll lower our rating a bit as the Blue Devils are due for a break.

While the Hurricanes and Gamecocks have met on 15 prior occasions (UM 8-5-2 series lead), their last meeting came way back in '87. UM has never made a postssn trip to Shreveport while SC ATS: 4-8 O/U: 6-6 has had one appearance back in '05, a 38-31 loss to Mizzou. UM HC Golden has had the Hurricanes bowl eligible in each of his 4Y but due to postssn sanctions, this will be just the 2nd bowl under him (36-9 loss to L'Ville in LY's Russell Athletic). SC HC Spurrier has had his tm eligible for a bowl in each of his 10 yrs here (4-4 SU/3-4-1 ATS) as they were passed over in '07 at 6-6.

Miami comes to Shreveport riding a 3-gm losing streak. UM did see the emergence of true Fr QB Kaaya TY who started all 12 gms throwing for 2,962 yds (58.6%) and an ACC-leading 25 td's. The #35 Hurricane O (431 ypg) was led, however, by a strong run game highlighted by Johnson and his 1,520 rush yds (7.0) and 10 td's. Johnson also finished 3rd on the tm in rec (370, 11.2) behind deep threat WR Dorsett who had 826 yds on just 31 rec (26.6 ypc T-#1 FBS). Mackey runner-up TE Walford (676, 15.4) will be out for this gm. The 328 ypg that UM (our #29 D) is currently all'g is their best mark s/'10 and they are led by LB Perryman whose 102 tkls is nearly double the Canes #2 tkl'r. UM also has our #29 pass eff D all'g just 184 ypg (57.0%) w/a 12-10 ratio. With RS Coley avg 22.5 on KR and 7.0 on PR the Canes finished #45 in our ST rankings. P Vogel put together a fine ssn w/a 41.6 net while K Badgley hit on 5-6 from 40+ w/a long of 48 (K Matt Goudis out here w/a back inj).

While they finished 6-6 on the ssn, SC could have easily gotten to the 10-win plateau with 4 close losses in SEC play against Mizzou (1 pt), UK (7 pts), Aub (7 pts) and Tenn (3 pts in OT). SC finished #18 on off avg 451 ypg. QB Thompson took over the reigns from Shaw TY and passed for 3,377 yds (59.5%) w/a 24-11 ratio while the RB duo of Davis (927, 5.0) and Wilds (567, 5.6) kept the offense balanced WR Cooper became one of the SEC's top playmakers pulling in 60 rec for 966 yds (16.1) and 8 td's. The OL is led by 4-yr starting LG Cann who helped SC rush for 169 ypg (4.5). The defense struggled mightily as they finished #81 all'g 434 ypg (worst in school history). SC's leading tkl'r is underclassmen LB Moore (82) with S Gurley a close 2nd at 80. SC has our #81 pass eff D all'g 219 ypg (62.5%) w/a 15-10 ratio. They also struggle in ST's with are #78 ranking and poor KR (18.8) and PR (5.4) marks. The bright spot on the unit is K Fry who hit 7-11 from 40+ with a long of 47.

Against the other two top 20 offenses Miami faced TY, they all'd 41 to Neb and 30 to FSU. Meanwhile, the Canes offense scored 47 pts vs NC and 55 pts vs Cincy, the only two D's ranked worse than SC's. The Gamecocks scored 33 or more pts 8 times TY and have played 5 D's ranked higher than Miami's.

PSU has a commanding 19-4 all-time edge against the Eagles although they have lost each of their previous 3 meetings ('92, '03 & '04). The Pinstripe Bowl has only been in existence s/'10 so it's not a surprise that neither team has made this trip before. PSU HC Franklin is in his 1st ssn with the Nittany Lions. At his previous stint w/Vandy, you'll see that he's been a constant overachiever guiding the 'Dores to a bowl in each of his 3 ssns (2-1 SU/ATS, VU made just 1 other bowl between '82-'10). BC HC Addazio has also delivered some success at Temple and now at BC taking them to their 2nd consec bowl (lost 42-19 LY to AZ).

PSU returns to bowl action after a 2-yr absence due to reduced NCAA sanctions. While PSU doesn't put up a lot of pts in their #106 off, they do have a solid pair of RB's in Lynch and Belton who combined to run for 1,121 (4.4) and 10 td's. The big difference between TY and '13 were the struggles at QB as Hackenberg went from 2,955 yds (58.9%) and a 20-10 ratio under off guru O'Brien to 2,606 yds (54.4%) and a poor 8-15 ratio. Hamilton led the tm in rec w/75 catches for 848 (11.3) but pulled in just 1 td. The OL struggled as they've all'd 42 sks (43 sks prior 2Y combined!), which is their worst s/99 while paving the way for just 104 ypg (3.0), their worst ypg in the modern era. Fortunately PSU had a stellar def that finished #10 (270 ypg) led by LB Hull (134 tkl) who more than doubled their #2 tkl'r. PSÚ's secondary was even stronger as they placed #7 in our pass eff D rankings all'g just 185 ypg (52.8%) with an outstanding 8-16 ratio. They had our #105 ST unit as P was a huge problem avg just 37.6 (34.7 net). K Ficken did however connect on 23-28 incl 8-10 from 40+ (L/50).

BC had a fine ssn getting to the 7-win plateau for a 2nd consec yr under Addazio and had narrow losses to the likes of Clemson (4 pts) and FSU (3 pts). Former UF QB and grad trans Murphy led the Eagles in both passing (1526, 55.9%, 11-10 ratio) and rushing (1079, 6.3, 10 td's - ACC sing ssn record for QB). RB Hilliman was 2nd rushing for 712 (3.8) w/12 td's. Their leading rec TY was former QB Bordner who pulled in 342 (13.2) and 3 td's for the Eagles as clearly the run game was the tm's primary focus (252 rush ypg, 5.1, 73-27% run/pass ratio). BC also performed well on def finishing #38 all'g just 313 ypg. Four different players had at least 60 tkls while LB Keyes led the tm in sks (4) and tfl (7.5). The Eagle secondary did struggle some as they were #74 in our pass eff D all'g 218 ypg (61.7%) w/a 16-9 ratio. BC had our #76 ST with clear issues at K as 3 players comb to hit on just 11-18 while missing 7 PAT's!

These two tms are pretty even as Penn St was +56 ypg vs our #52 sked while BC was +71 ypg vs our #56 sked. However, our checklist favors the underdog Nittany Lions as they have a sizeable edge on defense and should be sky-high for their first bowl gm in 3 yrs.

TROJINS

Nebraska & USC have met 4 times in their history with the Trojans holding a 3-0-1 edge. The Cornhuskers have been to the Holiday Bowl on 3 occasions since 1998 going 1-2 SU/ATS while USC has surprisingly never been here despite being just 120 miles away from SD (Lincoln 1600 miles away). With the departure of Pelini, Barney Cotton will serve as the interim HC for the Huskers but don't be surprised if new HC Mike Riley gives a suggestion or two (played USC TY). Sarkisian meanwhile has guided USC to a bowl in his 1st ssn here after previously leading Wash to bowls in each of his L4Y with the Huskies (1-2 SU/2-1 ATS, didn't coach LY's bowl). Ironically, his SU win was as a DD dog vs a Nebraska tm in the '10 Holiday Bowl.

NU has been a model of consistency, with 7 str ssn's of 9+ wins, but it wasn't good enough to save Pelini's job. The #26 ranked offense revolves around 2nd Tm B10 RB Abdullah, who would be a 1st teamer in any other conf as he's rushed for 1,523 (6.4) yds w/18 td's. 2nd yr st'g QB Armstrong was improved & threw for 2,314 yds (51.7%) w/a 19-11 ratio & is the #2 rusher w/664 (5.0) yds. His fav target is 1st Tm B10 WR Bell, who leads the tm w/717 yds, 5 td's & a 17.9 ypc avg. The #44 D is all'g 373 ypg, their most s''07. LB Anderson leads the tm w/95 tkls & 10 tfl's. 2X 1st Tm B10 DE Gregory has a tm leading 7 sks. The best unit on the tm are the DB's, as Nebraska has our #8 ranked pass eff D all'g 196 (47.5%) ypg w/a 12-12 ratio. ST's is also elite as they have our #12 ranked unit, which is highlighted by true frosh PR Pierson-El, who leads the FBS w/589 yds & is tied for #1 w/3 ret td's while also avg 17.8 ypr. True frosh K Brown has struggled hitting just 2-7 from 40+ w/a long of 44.

A win here would give USC its 10th 9+ win ssn in 12 yrs. The #19 offense avg'd 453 ypg, the most s/11. 2nd yr st'g QB Kessler was solid LY & even better TY, passing for 3,505 (70.7%) w/a 36-4 ratio. His fav target is 1st Tm P12 WR Agholor, whose 97 rec's & 1,223 yds is nearly double the #2 man. 1st Tm P12 RB Allen leads the tm w/1,337 yds (5.3) & 9 td's. The D is highly underrated (our #14, NCAÁ #68). 2X 1st Tm P12 DL Williams is #2 w/71 tkl's & is a proj 1st rounder. LB Pullard leads the tm in tkl's for the 2nd str yr w/87. The #10 ranked pass eff D is all'g 266 (58.2%) ypg w/a 17-13 ratio. 1st Tm P12 Soph S Cravens has 10 pd's & leads the tm w/11 tfl's while true frosh CB Jackson has 9 pbu's & was named the P12 frosh DPOY. The #47 ST's unit features PR Agholor, who ret'd 2 for td's & KR Jackson, who avg'd 27.7 ypr w/a td. P Albarado has a net of just 35.8 while K Heidari is 8-10 incl 2-2 from 50+.

While Nebraska got to 9 wins, they did so vs a manageable slate and keep in mind vs the two legitimate tms they faced, they were down 27-3 at Mich St before coming back and were blown out at Wisc 59-24. USC has a Top 20 off and def and will cruise.

The #6 pass eff D is all'g 226 (52.1%) w/a 14-11 ratio & is highlighted by 1st Tm B12 S Joseph, who is #2 in tkl's w/82. The #22 ST's unit is WV's best s/'06 as KR Alford has 2 KR td's & 2nd Tm B12 K Lambert set an NCAA rec w/15 fg's made from 40+ A&M st'd the ssn winning 5 str and "Joe Public" quickly anointed them a Top 5 tm. However, that proved to be fool's gold as they limp into this bowl having lost 5 of 7. The #27 offense is avg 449 ypg, their least s/10. It was the Kenny "Trill" show early (sigh), but after struggling, the switch was made to true frosh QB Allen, who st'd the L/4 & threw for 1,028 yds (61.1%) w/a 12-6 ratio. 3 RB's share duties & comb'd for 1,296 (5.1) yds & 14 td's. LT Ogbuehi earned 1st Tm SEC honors but A&M is rushing for just 143 ypg (4.6), their lowest s/'08. Four diff plr's have 44+ rec's w/WR Reynolds leading w/762 yds, 16.2 ypc & 12 td's. The top 2 tklr's are both DB's, which makes sense when you see that A&M is all'g 449 ypg & ranks #64. The #48 pass eff D is all'g 226 (57.5%) ypg w/a 16-5 ratio. The best pl'r on the D is true frosh DE Garrett, whose 11 sks is 7.5 more than any other pl'r on the tm. A&M excels at ST's, ranking #2. They're +4.5 in KR, +4.7 in PR. P Kaser has an excellent 41.0 net & K Lambo has (8.5%) missed just twice all ssn.

Their offenses have also scored pts in bunches in past bowl gms. FORECAST: OVER W Vir/Texas A&M

It is notable that for the ssn WV was +114 ypg vs our #8 sked while A&M after starting the ssn +168 ypg in their 1st 7 gms, were outgained by 234 ypg in their L/5. The reason we don't lean w/WV in this one is the uncertainty at QB at presstime so we will defer to the total as both HC's will crank up the tempo to outduel one another.

The Mountaineers and Aggies have never met while each team has made a postssn trip to the Liberty Bowl just once (WV '64, A&M 75). There are some similarities however, especially on the offensive side of the ball as WV HC Holgorsen actually served as A&M HC

Sumlin's OC/QB cch for 2 yrs at Houston ('08-'09). Holgorsen has now guided WV to bowl gms in 3 of his 4 ssns (1-1 SU/ATS). Sumlin meanwhile has led A&M to 3 consec bowls going 2-0 SU/1-1 ATS. After a slip up LY, WV has now won 7 or more gms 12 time in the last 13 yrs. The #15 offense may be w/o Sr QB Trickett (conc. CS), who was among the most improved plr's in the country, passing for 3,285 yds (67.1%) w/a 18-10 ratio. Backup QB Howard st'd just 1 gm (reg ssn finale) but has a 5-0 ratio. The OL missed just 1 st & is anchored by 2nd Tm B12 RG Glowinski, who helped pave the way for 188 rush ypg (4.2), their most s/'08. RB's Shell & Smallwood each st'd 7+ gms & comb'd for 1,411 (4.6) yds w/9 td's. The #37 D is all'g 389 ypg, their lowest s/'11. LB Kwiatkoski leads the tm in Sooners with OU holding the 2-1 advantage (last game in '88's Citrus Bowl). Since this bowl relocated from Miami to Orlando in 2001 the Tigers have made 2 trips here ('02 & '05) while the Sooners are making their 1st appearance. CU HC Sweeney took over midway through the '08 ssn and hasn't missed a beat guiding the Tigers to 7 consec bowls with a 3-3 SU/ATS mark. OU HC Stoops is also

s/10. QB Stoudt st'd the ssn as the st'r, but was ineffective & true frosh Watson took over. Watson was electric while he was in but he was inj'd mid-ssn & after returning late in the yr, will miss this bowl gm after tearing his ACL. RFr RB Gallman leads the tm w/714 (5.0) yds. WR Williams leads w/918 yds & is the deep threat avg 19.1 ypć while true frosh Scott leads w/68 rec's. The #3 defense all'd just 260 ypg, easily their best in 20+ yrs while they all'd just 12.6 ppg their L/8. LB Anthony leads w/73 tkls, while DE Beasley leads w/11 sks. He threw for 2,197 yds (58.1%) w/a 14-9 ratio but missed the final 3 gms (CS) while his replacement Thomas comp just 46%. True frosh RB Perine re-set Melvin Gordon's single gm rushing record vs KU but then suffered a severe sprained ankle (CS) in the finale after rushing for 1,579 yds (6.6) & 21 td's en route to being named the B12 Frosh POY, LT Thompson & RT Williams both earned 1st Tm B12 honors & anchor an OL that's paved the way for 269 rush ypg (6.1), their most in 20+ yrs. 1st Tm B12 WR Shepard leads w/50 rec's, 957 yds, 19.1 ypc & 5 td's. LB's consist of 3 of the top 4 tklr's for the #17 D, with Striker earning 1st Tm B12 as he leads w/7.5 sks & 6.5 tfl's. The #12 pass eff D is all'g 273 (55.2%) ypg w/a 20-12 ratio & is highlighted by 1st Tm B12 CB Sanchez, who has a tm high 6 int's. The #15 ST's unit is led by KR Ross, who avg's 32.0 ypr w/2 td's. LSU (8-4)

±11.2 nng

While these 2 former Southwest Conf members have met 77 times, most occurred prior to '91 before Ark moved on to the SEC and UT later to the B12. Many Longhorn and Razorback fans still consider this an important rivalry despite the fact that they've met just 4 times S/'99 with the most recent matchup coming in '08. The most famous gm, of course, was the 1969 Game of the Century where Darrell Royal's Longhorns won 15-14 over Frank Broyles Razorbacks and then President Nixon awarded UT the Nat'l Champ much to the chagrin of Penn St fans. This is the 1st trip to the Texas Bowl for both squads and also the 1st postssn appearance for Strong (3-2 SU/ATS at Louisville/Interim HC at Fla '04) and Bielema (2-4 SU, 3-3 ATS at Wisc) with their new schools.

HC Strong kept the morale of the tm up despite a 3-5 start as they won 3 of their L/4. The #67 O avg 361 ypg which was their least in 20+ yrs. QB Swoopes has a respectable 58.8% compl rate but was inconsistent. As talented as the RB's are, it's been disappointing that neither Brown (683, 3.9) nor Gray (628, 4.5) have turned into one of the premier RB's in the nation. Sr WR Harris saved his best for last as he finally fulfilled his potential & leads the tm w/64 rec's, 1,015 yds & 7 td's. The D doesn't get the credit it deserves (our #8, NCAA #27) as they held 4 diff foes incl OU, Ok St & TCU to their ssn lows in vds. 2nd Tm B12 LB Hicks leads the tm w/140 tkls. The leader of the Ď is NT Brown, who has 70 tkls & 6.5 sks earning 1st Tm B12 while being a finalist for the Nagusrski & Outland awards. The #4 pass eff D features 2nd Tm B12 Diggs & UT had a fine 11-15 ratio. This may be the worst ST's unit in schl history (#108) as they all'd 30.1 on KR's & 9.7 on PR's. K Rose is 7-11 from 40+.

Ark has a chance at a winning ssn for the 1st time s/11. QB Allen threw for 2,125 with a fine 18-5 ratio. After both approached 1,000 yds LY, RB's Williams (1,085, 5.8) & Collins (1,024, 5.5) provided possibly the best 1-2 RB punch in the nation for the #30 offense. They avg 220 (5.2) rush ypg, their most s/'07. The OL missed just 2 ttl sts. TE Henry earned 2nd Tm SEC & has 495 yds while WR Hatcher leads in rec's (39), yds (517) & tds (5). Hard hitting LB Spaight is the leading tkl'r with 123 w/LB Ellis a distant #2 (68) for the #12 overall D. Ark all'd 345 ypg, their lowest s/06. The #49 pass eff D all'd 55.6% completions & a 19-11 ratio. ST's took a step back TY as they have our #71 unit, mostly due to the K combo of McFain/ Henson who comb'd to make just 8 ttl fg's incl 1-4 from 40+.

This matchup features 2 Top 12 D's that rank far ahead the opposing offenses. The 2 tms are a combined 8-16 O/U TY and if you're worried about the total line being in the 40's, they are a combined 3-7 O/U TY in gms with a totals line somewhere in the 40s. Finally our computer projects just 33 total pts making this a play.

FORECAST: UNDER Texas/Arkansas POWER SWEEP RATING: 3★

These 2 schools have previously met on 10 occasions splitting them at 5 apiece. The most recent matchup occured in the '06 Sugar Bowl, a 41-14 (-8') LSU win and they also played in the '97 Independence Bowl, a 27-9 (-6') LSU win. While neither school has participated in the Music City Bowl in the past, both Brian Kelly (2-2 SU, 1-3 ATS) and Les Miles (6-3 SU, 5-4 ATS) have plenty of experience with their current squads in the postssn

There may not be a tm that has fallen harder than the Irish as they were undefeated & ranked #5 in mid-Oct (1 offensive PI call vs FSÚ from possibly being ranked #1 or #2), but they've lost 5 of 6 incl 4 str to close the ssn. QB Golson st'd strong (no TO's 1st 3 gms) but turned into a TO machine down the stretch and was replaced by Malik Zaire in the reg ssn finale vs USC (HC Kelly opened up the competition in bowl pract). Golson still threw for 3,355 yds (60.1%) w/a 29-14 ratio. RB Folston is the workhorse as he had four 100 yd efforts in the L/6 gms & enters w/816 (5.3) yds. WR Fuller leads w/71 rec's, 1,037 yds & 14 td's. The deep threat is CJ Prosise, who leads the tm avg 18.5 ypc. The #57 D was done in by inj (CS on DL Day) & is easily the youngest & least exp'd in recent memory here. LB Smith does lead the tm w/103 tkls, but #2 tkl'r Schmidt has been OFY in the L/4 gms and that was one of the reasons for their downfall. The #75 ranked pass eff D all'd 60.7% completions & a 22-16 ratio as CB Luke leads the tm w/15 pd's. The #83 ranked ST's unit was mostly done in surprisingly by Sr K Brindza, who was just 5-11 from 40+ w/a long of 48.

With 8 wins entering the bowl, LSU is guaranteed their lowest win total since at least '09. Poor QB play by Jennings led to him being benched for Harris, before he regained his st'g spot & has compl 48.8% w/a 10-7 ratio (like ND, HC Miles opened up the QB competition in bowl pract). LT Collins earned 1st Tm SEC & true frosh RB Fournette has 891 (5.1) yds & is coming off a car high 146 yd effort as the Tigers avg of 220 (4.5) rush ypg (most s/97). WR Dural leads w/37 rec's, 758 yds & 7 td's, but no other receiver has more than 17 rec's. LSU has our #2 ranked D & it's truly a collaborative effort. The LB's finished as the top 2 tklr's w/Alexander having a tm leading 79. The 306 ypg all'd is their lowest s/'11. The #3 pass eff D is all'g just 50.4% completions & has all'd just 9 td's w/10 int's. The #19 ST's unit features PR White who avg's 11.0 ypr. Punter Keehn has an outstanding 41.4 net avg & K Delahoussaye is 3-4 from 40+.

This gm could serve as big springboard for next yr as both tms should be much improved. Our checklist calls this one near the line and it's tough laying more than a TD w/an LSU offense avg just 15 ppg away from home. However, the LSU rush attack should feast upon a beaten and battered ND defensive front 7 and check out that computer projection.

First meeting. While this will be UGA's 1st trip here, UL lost to NC State in this bowl in '11 31-24 (+2). Both coaches have plenty of bowl exp however as UL HC Petrino has posted winning records in 9 of his 10 ssns coaching FBS ball (UL, Ark, WKU) going 4-3 SU (3-4 ATS) in postssn appearances while UGA HC Richt has led his Bulldogs to a bowl in all 14 ssns here going 8-5 SU (7-6 ATS). Petrino and Richt have split their head-to-head matchups ('09 & '10). It is also notable that former UGA DC Grantham ('10-13) is now in his 1st yr as DC for UL and should know the UGA players' strengths and weaknesses.

A win here by Louisville will give them DD wins for a 3rd str yr. The #37 offense has been plagued by QB inj's as original st'r Gardner was hurt twice, the 2nd time resulted in him being OFY. #2 QB true frosh Bonnafon was inj'd in the finale & #3 QB Bolin came in & led the comeback win over UK. Bonnafon could return here (CS). Whoever is pl'g QB will have 2nd Tm ACC WR Parker to throw to as after missing the F/7 gms, had 100+ yds in 4 of his 5 gms & leads the tm w/735 yds, 5 td's & 21.0 ypc. The rushing gm is a committee approach w/ Radcliff leading w/648 yds (5.2) & 11 td's while Aub trans Dyer was #2 w/481 yds (4.4). UL's D is slightly less dominant than advertised (our #20, NCAA #6) & is all'g 293 ypg. LB's make up 2 of the top 3 tklr's incl Kelsey leading w/78. DE/OLB Mauldin leads the tm w/13 ttl tfl's & earned 1st Tm ACC honors. The secondary is tremendous, ranking #5 in our pass eff D, led by 1st Tm ACC soph S Holliman, who tied the NCAA rec w/14 int's. The ST's unit is #59 & their best pl'r is K Wallace, who is 6-8 from 40+ w/a long of 51.

After an 8 win ssn a yr ago, a win here will give Georgia their 3rd DD win ssn in the L4Y. The #9 offense avg'd 455 ypg, their lowest s/11. 1st yr st'g QB Mason passed for 2,019 yds (67.9%) w/a 20-4 ratio. 1st Tm SEC true frosh RB Chubb filled in admirably for Gurley & has 1,281 yds (6.9) w/a tm-high 12 td's, running behind an OL that hasn't missed a st. WR Bennett leads w/35 rec's while WR Conley leads w/577 yds & 7 td's & is the deep threat avg 18.0 ypc. LB's are the top 3 tklr's for the #19 unit w/Herrera (112 tkls, tm-high 7 tfl's) & Wilson (102 tkls, 5 tfl's) both earning 2nd Tm SEC honors. UGA is all'g 334 ypg, the fewest here s/11. The #23 ranked pass eff D is all'g 158 ypg (54.6%) w/a 12-13 ratio & is highlighted by 2nd Tm SEC CB Swann, who is tied for the tm lead w/7 pd's. The #24 ST's unit is led by elite RS true frosh McKenzie, who has 3 td's incl 2 on PR's. K Morgan is just 2-5 from 40+

In their 1st 7 gms vs FBS foes, UL's D faced an avg off of #72 and all 7 went UNDER. However, in their L/4 gms, they have faced an avg off of #38 and all 4 have gone OVER. Now they face the best off (#9) they've seen all yr. They have also been much more explosive w/the return of WR Parker (5 str gms w/30 or more pts).

FORECAST: OVER Louisville/Georgia POWER SWEEP RATING: 2★

First ever meeting between the Terps and Cardinal although MD does have some experience traveling to the Bay Area to play in this bowl (previously Emerald Bowl 07 at home of SF Giants). Stanford has plyd in 4 consec BCS bowls and while they've never played a postssn matchup here, Palo Alto is just 15 miles away from Santa Clara (College Park, MD 2,850 miles away). MD HC Edsall has now guided his squad to consec bowls (lost Military Bowl to Marshall LY) while SU HC Shaw is 1-2 SU (1-1-1 ATS) and takes his Cardinal to their 4th bowl in as many yrs.

A win here would give Maryland their most wins s/'10. The #55 offense is led by QB Brown who has passed for 2,083 yds (53.2%) w/a 13-9 ratio & is also the tm's leading rusher w/569 yds (3.8) & a tm high 7 td's. RB Ross is the #2 rusher w/387 yds (5.0). The Terps should have 2nd Tm B10 WR Diggs back for the bowl after he missed the L/3 reg ssn gms due to a lacerated kidney. The #60 D is all'g 438 ypg incl 202 rush ypg (4.5), with both being their most all'd s/11. S Davis & LB Farrand finished 1-2 in tkls LY & both are competing for the top spot TY as Farrand leads w/111 while Davis is #2 w/108. The #54 pass eff D is all'g 237 ypg (54.7%) w/a 17-9 atio & features 1st Tm B10 CB Likely, who leads the tm w/6 int's. The #4 ST's unit is +1.2 KR & +3.7 PR but P Renfro has just a 35.4 net. The star of the unit is Groza Award winner K Craddock, whose one miss was from 54 yds & his long was a schl rec 57 yd'r.

Stanford needs a win here to ensure they won't finish with their east amount of wins s/'08. Despite an OL that has only missed 1 st & features 1st Tm P12 LT Peat, the #48 offense is avg just 155 rush ypg (4.3), its least s/'07. QB Hogan has passed for 2,603 yds (65.7%) w/a 17-8 ratio and had by far his best gm of the yr in the vin over UCLA 16-19-234-2-0. RB Wright leads the tm w/552 yds 4.3) & 8 td's & no other RB has more than 57 rush att's. WR Montgomery leads w/61 rec's & 604 yds (CS here) while WR Cajuste is he deep threat avg 17.0 ypc. 2nd Tm P12 TE Hooper is #2 in rec's w/35. What the offense lacks, the #1 D obviously makes up for as the 287 ypg all'd is their best in 20+ yrs. LB Martinez leads w/96 kls & 1st Tm P12 DL Henry Anderson has a tm-high 7 sks. 2nd Tm P12 LB Tarpley is #2 in tkl's w/77. The #1 pass eff D is all'g 176 ypg (57.1%) w/a 12-11 ratio & features 1st Tm P12 S Richards, who is #3 w/76 tkls & has 7 pd's. The #53 ST unit features 2nd Tm P12 RS Montgomery, who is avg 19.8 on PR's w/2 td's. P Rhyne has a poor 34.2 net avg while K Williamson is 4-6 from 40+.

MD was outscored by 32 ppg vs the 3 most physical tms it played TY (Ohio St, Wisc, Mich St). If you're worried about laying DD's w/a Cardinal offense avg just 26 ppg TY, don't be! They are a perfect 4-0 ATS as a DD fav TY and are 14-7 ATS in that role under Shaw.

While Ole Miss is 5-1 all-time against TCU, their last meeting came back in '83. The Rebels have been to the Peach Bowl just once in school history while this will mark TCU's 1st trip here. UM HC Freeze has now made it to a bowl in each of his 3 yrs with the Rebels going a perfect 2-0 SU/ATS in that span. TCU HC Patterson will be in his 9th bowl with the Frogs in the past 10 yrs (6-2 SU/2-5-1 ATS).

HC Freeze has UM trending in the right direction as for just the 2nd time in 20+ yrs, they have B2B 8+ win ssns. QB Wallace leads the #22 O as he's passed for 3,000+ yds in B2B ssn's while compl 61.2% with a 22-11 ratio. RB Walton leads a committee approach & he's coming in off a ssn high 148 (10.6) yds in the Egg Bowl. WR Treadwell leads w/48 rec's (just 13.2) but he's OFY & Sanders has the most yds (696) while 1st tm SEC TE Engram is #2 w/651 yds & a respectable 17.6 ypc. The #5 D is clearly the strength of the tm and it's amazing to see 15 ply'rs between 28 and 66 tkls on the yr. UM has our #14 pass eff D led by 1st tm SEC CB Golson, who has 9 int's & 8 pbu's & S Prewitt, who's 1 of 5 plr's w/60+ tkls. UM has all'd an excellent 8-19 ratio. K has been an issue for the #65 ST unit as the combo of Fletcher/Wunderlich are just 8-13 incl 2-5 from 40+. P Gleeson does have an outstanding net of 41.7.

After finishing w/11+ wins 6 of 7 yrs from '05-'11, TCU again has won 11 gms. HC Patterson shifted his offensive philosophy, which resulted in finishing the reg ssn w/our #2 O. QB Boykin is much improve w/3,714 yds & a 30-7 ratio. The 542 ttl ypg avg is easily their most in 20+ yrs. When Boykin wasn't running behind an OL that missed just 1 st, RB Green was & he enters w/854 (7.7) yds & has 100+ rush yds in 3 of the L/4 gms. WR Doctson has a tm leading 59 rec's for 959 yds (16.3) & WR Listenbee (status ?) emerged as the deep threat avg 18.7 ypc. The #16 D is led by LB Dawson, who will finish the ssn as the tm's leading tkl'r for a 2nd str yr & he also has a tm leading 18.5 tfl's. TCU is all'g 117 rush ypg (3.0), their lowest s/09. The pass D is phenomenal, ranking as our #2 pass eff D as they are all'g just 49% completions & a tremendous 17-23 ratio. The #29 ST's unit showcases KR Catalon, who when given a chance is among the premiere RS in the nation as he's avg 31.8 per KR. Echols-Luper is avg 11.1 on PR's & K Oberkrom is 22-26 incl 6-8 from 40+.

While TCU is the better tm, this game comes down to motivation. This was a tm that thought they would be in the CFB playoff (#3 on 12/6), meanwhile Ole Miss should be happy to be here w/3 losses. Those 3 losses are a bit misleading as they lost by 3 in Death Valley at night, should have beaten Aub as WR Treadwell broke his leg and fumbled going in for a td and they were -5 TO's in the loss to Ark. TCU HC Patterson is 0-5 ATS his L/5 bowls and our checklist actually favors the Rebs, despite the fact they are a FG underdog.

FORECAST: Ole Miss over TCU POWER SWEEP RATING: 3★

These 2 teams have never met. The Broncos have taken part in 2 memorable Fiesta Bowls in recent history with their monumental OT upset of Oklahoma in '06 and their win over TCU in the battle of unbeatens in '09. The Wildcats have also been to the Fiesta on 2 occasions with their most recent trip being in '93 when they shutout Miami 29-0. This is BSU Harsin's 1st bowl as a HC (did not coach bowl LY w/Ark St) while Rich Rod has guided AZ to a bowl in all 3 ssns going 2-0 SU (1-1 ATS). He was 2-4 SU/1-5 ATS while at WV/Michigan. The Wildcats also have the clear edge of distance to Glendale as they are just 120 miles away compared to BSU and their 900 miles.

After missing out on DD wins for the 1st time in 7Y LY, Boise is back in their familiar role. The #20 offense is QB'd by 2nd tm MW Hedrick, who rebounded from a slow start to finish w/3,387 yds (70.9%) & a 22-13 ratio. RB Ajayi was again named 1st tm MW as he's rushed for 1,689 (5.2) yds & 25 td's. Their 496 ttl ypg avg is their most s/'10 while their 218 rush ypg (4.9) avg is their most s/'04.WR Williams-Rhodes leads w/68 rec's while Sperbeck led w/678 yds & is the deep threat avg 17.4 ypc. While LB's rank #1, 3 & 4 in tkl's for the #51 D, DE Correa (10 sks) & S Thompson (#2 tkl'r) earned 1st tm MW honors. LB Vallejo leads the tm w/86 tkls & earned 2nd tm MW. The #46 pass eff D is all'g just 57.5% completions w/a very good 17-20 ratio. Boise is #73 in our ST rankings after finishing #12 LY as they avg'd just 18.9 on KR's & while K Goodale is 15-20 on the yr, he's just 3-7 from 40+ w/a long of just 43.

Arizona's 10 wins TY is their first DD win ssn s/98. The #32 O avg'd 462 ypg. RFr QB Solomon st'd every gm & has 3,458 yds & a fine 27-7 ratio. 2nd tm P12 C Gurrola anchors an OL that missed just 4 sts & the 184 rush ypg (4.6) was led by true fosh RB Wilson, who has 1,289 (5.9) yds w/a tm high 15 td's. WR Jones leads w/65 rec's, 902 yds & 9 td's. The D is much better than the stats suggest (our #45, NCAA #104) & is led by P12 DPOY LB Scooby Wright, who leads the tm w/153 tkl's & 28 tfl's incl 14 sks. The rush D, which all'd 170 (4.0), has all'd 218 (4.4) their L/4 gms. The pass D has been a disappointment all'g 65.1% completions (2nd highest in 20+ yrs) w/a poor 27-12 ratio & are #84 in our pass eff D rankings. The #38 ranked ST's is led by 2nd tm P12 P Riggleman, who has an outstanding 40.3 net avg. They are +2.5 in KR & +1.6 in PR while K Skowron has struggled hitting just 17-25, missing 5 between 30-39 yds.

While Bronco backers have fond memories of Fiesta bowl wins, keep in mind those were undefeated tms and TY's squad would not have made a major bowl in the BCS era. Boise is 0-5 SU/1-4 ATS as a dog in the L/2 yrs and have lost those gms by an avg of 17 ppg. Despite getting trounced in the P12 Champ gm, the Wildcats should be plenty excited playing close to home in their 1st major bowl s/'94

While these 2 have never met in a bowl, GT has won all 4 in the series dating back to 1908 (0-2 ATS '08-'09). GT has a clear edge when it comes to trips to the Orange Bowl as this will mark their 7th overall visit (3-3 overall) with '09's loss (24-14, +6) to low being their only lined matchup (1966 was their previous trip). MSU meanwhile hasn't been here since 1940 (1-1 all-time). GT HC Johnson has had the Jackets in a bowl in each of his 7 ssns here but has won just once (2012) in 6 tries (1-5 ATS) while GT as a team has made the postssn every yr s/'97. MSU HC Mullen has now guided the Bulldogs to 5 consec bowls going 3-1 SU (2-2 ATS) in that span.

GT already has its most wins s/'09 & a win here would match their most in 20+ yrs. QB Thomas led the tm in rushing w/965 (5.5) yds & had an excellent 17-5 ratio. GT's 51.8% compl was the 2nd highest s/03. The #21 O avg'd 469 ypg incl 334 rush ypg (6.0), which was their highest in 20+ yrs. RB Laskey had a tm high 9 td's & earned 2nd Tm ACC, while Perkins led the tm avg 9.1 ypc. WR Smelter led the tm w/715 yds w/a tm leading 20.4 ypc but he tore his ACL in the UGA gm and will miss this gm (accounted for 41% of their total receiving yds). The D is better than advertised (our #35, NCAA #65) & is led by LB's Davis & Nealy, the top 2 tklr's. The 396 ypg all'd is their highest s/'99, however. While the pass D is below avg in our pass eff D rankings (#87), they do have a solid 16-17 ratio. The #34 ST's unit avg'd a solid 39.1 net punt avg, but all'd 23.2 on KR's & K Butker has struggled outside of the UGA gm, going just 11-18 incl 6-13 from 30+.

MSU has their most wins s/'99 & 1st ever 10-win reg ssn. The #10 O is led by 1st tm SEC QB Prescott, who was a Heisman candidate & one of the most impr'd plr's in the nation TY. He has nearly 3,000 pass yds while compl 61.2% of his passes with a 24-10 ratio. The OL is led by 2nd tm SEC OL Beckwith & the entire line missed just 3 sts all ssn. 1st yr st'g RB Robinson has 1,128 (6.4) yds & MSU avg'd 240 (5.3) rush ypg, their highest in 20+ yrs. The rec unit was a collaborative effort with Wilson leading the tm in rec's & yds while Brown is the deep threat avg a tm high 17.2 ypc. The D is highly underrated (our #31, NCAA #81) & is led by a LB trio that finished as the top 3 tklr's w/McKinney earning 1st Tm SEC honors. DE Smith leads the tm w/9 sks & also earned 1st Tm SEC. The #21 pass eff D all'd just 52% & has a respectable 16-15 ratio. The ST unit ranks #30 with punter Bell having a great net avg of 39.3 while K Sobiesk is 10-12, but only had 2 att's from 40+.

While we love the job GT HC Johnson did TY (outside of the Duke gm), it's been a struggle in bowl gms for him here (1-5 ATS) GT's option plays into the hands of Miss St's strength on D and they can load the box even more w/GT deep threat WR Smelter out.

FORECAST: MISS ST OVER GA TECH POWER SWEEP RATING: 1★

These 2 have met 3 times in their history incl 2 bowl matchups in recent yrs with Aub knocking off UW in the '03 Music City 28-14 (-3') and the Badgers returning the favor with their 24-10 (+10) upset in the '05 Capital One. This is UW's 5th appearance in this bowl (1-3 SU/2-2 ATS, last trip in '07). Aub meanwhile has made the more recent trip to Tampa getting a 38-35 (-9) win over NW in '09 (2-0 SU/1-1 ATS). UW HC Andersen shockingly left and at presstime we're not sure if the HOF Alvarez will be the interim like he did 2Y ago. Malzahn is in his 2nd straight bowl w/Aub incl LY's narrow defeat in the BCS Champ game. This is the 13th consec ssn that UW has made a bowl although they have dropped each of their L/4.

UW's 10 wins is their most s/11. The #25 O is led by Heisman candidate RB Gordon, the nation's leading rusher w/2,336 yds (7.6) & 26 td's. He had 5 gms of 200+ yds & was the B10 OPOY. The 314 (6.9) rush ypg were their most in 20+ yrs & all 5 OL st'd every gm w/RG Costigan & RT Havenstein earning 1st tm B10. However, Čt'r Voltz has been banged up in the L/2 gms and is ? here. WR Erickson led the tm w/51 rec's, 734 yds & 14.4 ypc, while TE Arneson led w/4 td's. No other pl'r had more than 16 catches. QB McEvoy st'd the ssn as the st'r but ineffective play led to switching to LY's st'r Stave, but he has also been inconsistent. S Caputo (2nd tm B10) led the #6 D in tkls w/the LB trio finishing 2-4, led by 1st tm B10 Landisch, who has a tm leading 9 sks. 2nd tm B10 CB Hillary highlights the #24 pass eff D & while they had just a 13-6 ratio, their 47.5% all'd is their best in 20+ yrs. The #63 ST's unit was hurt by P Meyer's 33.8 net avg, but helped by K Gaglianone, who is 17-20 incl 5-7 from 40+.

AU has won a minimum of 8 gms 16 of the L/20 yrs despite 4 diff HC's. The #5 O runs thru QB Marshall, who relied on his arm more this ssn as he raised his compl % & increased his pass yds while his rush yds were down a bit. 1st tm SEC RB Artis-Payne was the workhorse & has 1,482 (5.4) yds. 4 of the 5 OL st'd every gm & 1st tm SEC center Dismukes anchors an OL that paved the way for 259 (5.5) rush ypg. WR Williams led w/45 rec's & 730 yds while WR Coates is the deep threat avg 23.9 ypc. The D is underrated (our #39, NCAA #61) all'g 389 ypg, their best s/10 (but DC Johnson was still let go). Both CB's Mincy & Jones earned 2nd tm SEC honors & along w/leading tkl'r S Ford highlight the #39 pass eff D that is all'g 58.1% completions w/a 21-19 ratio. The ST's unit had a significant dropoff from LY (#62 from #14) but PR Bray has an excellent 18.1 avg w/2 td's. K Carlson is solid, going 17-21 incl 4-7 from 40+

The dynamics to this gm changed completely when UW HC Andersen shockingly left for Oreg St. Now we get Malzahn and Aub's high-powered offense taking on a Wisc D that started to show some weaknesses even before the Big Ten Champ gm.

These 2 squads have met just once prior, a 28-10 Spartan win way back in 1968. MSU has never played in the Cotton Bowl while the Bears have made 2 appearances ('74 & '80). MSU HC Dantonio has now taken his team to bowls in each of his 8 yrs (3-4 SU/4-3 ATS) with the Spartans incl 6 NYD Bowls. While he lost his 1st 4 bowls here, he has pulled the outright upset in each of the L/3. BU HC Briles has now taken the Bears to 5 straight bowls (2-2 SU/ATS) after BU failed to reach the postssn from '94-'09.

MSU had 1 DD win ssn from 1966-2009 & now under HC Dantonio they've had 4 in 5Y. When you think of MSU you think defense rightly so, but they actually have our #7 O avg 497 ypg, their most s/'05 QB Cook earned 2nd Tm B10 after throwing for 2,900 yds w/a 22-6 ratio. 1st Tm B10 C Allen anchors an OL that paves the way for a 235 rush ypg (5.1), their most s/'04. RB Langford has 1,360 (5.5) yds w/19 td's. 1st Tm B10 WR Lippett led w/60 rec's for 1,124 (18.7) which is nearly 3X the #2 rec in yds. MSU all'd 294 ypg, their most s/10, but they still rank #11 on D. Saf Drummond leads w/65 tkls, & DE Calhoun is tied for the tm lead w/11 tfl's & both earned 1st Tm B10. Our #11 ranked pass eff D is all'g under 200 ypg for the 4th str ssn, with a great 50.3% completion rate & 13-17 ratio. ST's is an issue as the #90 ranked unit is -5.1 PR & has a net punt avg of just 35.5, while K Geiger is 3-8 from 40+ w/a long of just 42.

HC Briles now has 3 DD win ssns the L4Y after BU went 30 str yrs w/o doing so. While BU didn't match LY's ypg ttl, they still avg 581 ypg & are #3 in our rankings. QB Petty earned 2nd Tm B12 after throwing for 3,305 yds while compl 62.1% w/a 26-6 ratio. RB Linwood has 1,226 (5.1) yds w/16 td's & earned 1st Tm B12. Three wr's had 50+ rec's w/2nd Tm B12 WR Coleman leading the way. BU's D doesn't get the credit it deserves as they all'd 368 ypg & their 108 (2.9) rush ypg all'd is their best in 20+ yrs. They finished #28 in our D rankings (#41 NCAA) w/both DL Billings (tm leading 9.5 tfl's) & DL Oakman (tm leading 10 sks) earning 1st Tm B12. LB Hager is the leading tkl'r w/101, while also having 11 tfl's. The #36 pass eff D all'd a respectable 54.3% completions but did allow a 22-11 ratio. The lone area BU struggled was ST's as they have our #93 ranked unit. Norwood avg's just 5.4 on PR's & 20.7 on KR's & K Callahan has hit just 1-3 from 40+. Punter Roth is the star as he earned 2nd Tm B12 with a solid 40.9 net.

A great bowl matchup here as both tms are outgaining their foes by more than 200 ypg this ssn. The diff is while no tm is better in the country at home than BU (+358 ypg), they are just +86 ypg away from home while MSU is #1 in the country on the road TY at +180 ypg. BU HC Briles also campaigned very hard for the Bears to be included in the CFB playoff while MSU's Dantonio thrives in this overlooked underdog role (3-0 SU/ATS L/3 bowls)

While the Gophers and Tigers have met on 8 prior occasions (Mizzou 4-3-1 edge), their most recent meeting occurred in 1970. Neither team has been to the Citrus bowl in their history (Minny has never prior been to a bowl gm in the state of Florida). Both Minny HC Kill (0-4 SU/ATS w/Gophers and NIU) and Mizzou HC Pinkel -5 SU/6-3 ATS w/Tigers) have plenty of bowl experience.

Minnesota has won 8 gms in B2B yrs for the 1st time s/'02-'03. Their offense is better than you might expect (our #61, NCAA #108) & their 356 ypg avg is their best s/10, while their 225 (4.8) rush ypg avg is their best s/'05. It is also notable that they have scored at least 24 pts in 9 str gms and the only tm to hold them under that number TY was TCU. QB Leidner isn't much of a passing threat (49% completions, 10-8 ratio) but he can manage the game & he is a threat to run (602 gross rush yds, 10 td's). RB Cobb has B2B ssn's 1,000+ yds & improved to 1,548 (5.3) TY with 13 td's. TE Williams earned 1st tm B10 honors & leads the tm w/29 rec's, 471 yds & 7 td's. No WR had more than 15 rec's, but Jones is their deep threat & enters avg 23.0 ypc. Their #33 D is led by 1st tm B10 LB Wilson, who leads the tm w/111 tkls, 4 sks & 6.5 tfl's. 1st tm B10 CB Boddy-Calhoun has a tm high 12 pd's incl 4 int's & heads our #45 pass eff D. ST's is a major strength for the Gophers as they have our #10 ranked unit, are +3.7 KR, +3.2 PR & punter Mortell has an outstanding 40.0 net avg. PK Santoso is the lone below avg contributor as he only hit 11-17 incl just 3-7 from 40+.

Missouri has now won 10+ gms 5X the L10Y incl B2B ssns in the premier college football conference. Their #62 Off is led by QB Mauk, who after a mid-ssn slump, has turned things around & has 2,551 pass yds, but completed just 52.9% with a 23-11 ratio. His leading receiver is Sasser, who earned 2nd tm SEC & is closing in on 1,000 yds with 935 (13.4) & 10 td's. Their deep threat is 2nd leading rec Hunt, who is avg 17.5 ypc with 7 td's. RB Hansbrough leads with 970 (5.1) rush yds, while Murphy is the #2 rusher w/767 (4.6) yds. Their #25 D has arguably the best DL in the nation. 1st yr st'g DE Ray has a tm high 14 sks & was named the SEC DPOY, while DE Golden earned 2nd tm SEC & was #2 in sks w/8.5 & led the tm w/7.5 tfl's. S Webb leads our #52 pass eff D. He earned 2nd tm SEC honors & leads the team with 4 int's while also being their #3 tkl'r. Their #25 ST unit features one of the premier RS in the nation in Murphy, who has 3 ret td's TY while P Brinser has a solid 38.6 net avg & PK Baggett hit 16-23 incl 6-11 from 40+.

Both tms overachieved expectations TY and find themselves in a NYD's bowl. For Minny, it's their first major bowl since the 1961 Rose. Also notable is their current streak as a dog going 9-1 ATS w/5 outright upsets the L/2 yrs w/an avg cover of 12 ppg in those 9 ATS wins.

First all-time meeting between these 2 squads and while FSU has never played in the actual Rose Bowl game, they did win the National Champ on this very same field LY. The Ducks on the other hand, have played in the actual Rose Bowl on 6 occasions incl a 45-38 (-5) win over Wisc in 11 while also playing the Bruins in the regular ssn TY (42-30, -2'). FSU HC Fisher has led his 'Noles to a bowl in each of his 5 yrs with the tm going 4-0 (3-1 ATS) while UO's Helfrich is going to his 2nd bowl in as many yrs.

FSU has won 29 str gms & finished undefeated in B2B ssn's for the 1st time in schl history. LY's Heisman winner QB Winston hasn't had the same type of statistical ssn as a yr ago, but he has delivered in crunch time when needed the most. FSU's O ranks #28 & true frosh RB Cook has emerged as a playmaker w/905 (5.8) yds despite not pl'g much the F/5 gms. WR Greene has 1,306 (14.0) yds to finish w/1,000+ in B2B ssns & his 93 rec's is almost double the next highest amount. O'Leary won the Mackey Award as the nation's top TE. While the D has been criticized, they are underrated (our #21, NCAA #52). However the 378 ypg all'd is their most s/'09. LB's Northrup & Smith are the top 2 tklr's. The pass D is below avg, as they rank #71 in our pass eff D & has all'd a 20-13 ratio. The is top notch as they rank #13 with P Beatty having a solid 38.8 net & PK Aguayo is the best in the nation for the 2nd yr in a row as he missed just 2 fg's all ssn & went 3-3 from 50+

UO has now finished w/DD wins in 7 str yrs. They have the #1 O in the nation & the Heisman winner. QB Mariota has thrown for 3,773 yds while compl 68.3% w/a phenomenal 38-2 ratio. True frosh RB Freeman has 1,299 (5.6) yds w/16 td's. While UO's 237 (5.5) rush ypg is their lowest s/'09, their 545 ttl ypg avg is their 2nd highest in 20+ yrs, just slightly lower than LY. After leading the tm in rushing LY, Marshall leads in rec TY w/61 rec's for 814 yds. The D's 414 ttl ypg all'd is their most s'97. Three of their top 5 tklr's are LB's & DL Buckner leads the tm w/11.5 tfl's. The 260 pass ypg all'd is the most s/'08, but they still rank #30 in our pass eff D rankings as they feature 3-time 1st tm P12 CB Ekpre-Olomu. The #41 ranked ST's unit is -0.8 in KR & +8.2 PR while the PK duo of Wogan/Schneider are 15-18 but have att'd just 2 from 40+ & missed 3 PAT's

If you weigh in each tm's performance this ssn especially ATS wise, you see why Oregon is nearly a DD favorite as they have covered 8 str gms while FSU is 3-10 ATS. However, this is the 1st time for Helfrich on the nat'l stage in a big bowl (LY's Alamo doesn't count) while Fisher is unbeaten in bowls. Also notable is that the fact FSU finds itself an underdog for the 1st time in 49 gms and in their largest underdog role s/09. Our checklist to the left actually favors the 'Noles in this one and we'll gladly take the pts!

The Bucks and Tide have met 3 previous times and the Tide have won all 3. OSU has earned 4 previous trips to the actual Sugar Bowl and one other visit against LSU in the '07 National Champ where they lost 38-24 (+4). Including the '11 National Champ gm vs LSU, the Tide are 9-6 (3-2 ATS) all-time in the Sugar Bowl although they did drop LY's clash with Oklahoma outright as a 15 pt fav. With OSU's bowl sanctions in '12 this is just Meyer's 2nd bowl with the Bucks although they did lose outright in LY's Orange Bowl as a 2 pt fav vs Clemson. He is 7-2 SU/ATS in his career. Saban meanwhile has now reached a bowl in each of his 8 ssns w/Bama going 5-2 SU/ATS. Saban is 2-1 SU/ATS against Meyer head-to-head all-time.

OSU has won DD gms 9X the L10Y with the lone exception being in '11 w/an interim HC. The #6 O avg's 508 ypg incl 261 (5.8) rush. Even w/o Heisman candidate QB Barrett, OSU still had 558 ttl yds incl 301 (7.9) on the ground w/soph QB Jones behind center in the B10 Champ. RB Elliott has 1,402 (6.5) yds with 3 str gms of 100+ incl setting the B10 Champ gm record w/220 yds. WR Thomas leads w/43 rec's but Smith has a tm high 799 yds avg an incredible 26.6 ypc w/11 td's. The leading tkl'r for the #13 D is 2nd Tm B10 LB Perry. B10 DPOY DE Bosa has a tm leading 13.5 sks. The leader of the secondary is 1st Tm CB Grant, who has a tm high 14 pd's. They are #13 in our pass eff D rankings as they are all'g just 54.6% completions with a fine 13-21 ratio. Our #20 ST's unit is +5.4 KR & +5.7 PR while P Johnston has a tremendous 41.3 net. The unit was let down by true frosh K Nuernberger, who was just 5-10 from 40+.

Bama has now won DD gms in 7 str ssns. The #4 O is QB'd by 1st yr st'r Sims, who's thrown for 3,250 yds, compl 64.8% w/a 26-7 ratio & earned 2nd Tm SEC. Under OC Kiffin they're avg 491 ypg their most in 20+ yrs. They avg 209 rush ypg (5.1) led by 2nd Tm SEC RB Yeldon & bkp RB Henry as both avg over 5 ypc & each has 10 td's. AA WR Cooper's 115 rec's is 3X the number of the #2 & his 1,656 yds is over 3.5X more than the 2nd leading rec. S Collins is the leading tlk'r w/91 & he along w/LB DePriest earned 1st Tm SEC for the #4 D. However, the 312 ypg all'd is their most s/'07, Saban's 1st yr. The #25 ranked pass eff D all'd a solid 54.5% completions & a 17-10 ratio. The #32 ranked ST's is highlighted by 1st Tm SEC punter Scott, who has an amazing 43.2 net. They're -0.4 KR & +2.4 PR while K Griffith is just 4-8 from 40+.

This gm matches two of the storied programs in CFB history and the best coaches of this generation w/6 nat'l titles between them. While we shudder to think what Saban and DC Smart can do w/a month to prepare against 3rd string OSU QB Jones. However, Meyer's 13-0 ATS run as a dog (excluding his LY at UF in 10) cannot be ignored and he's 4-0 SU/ATS here in that role at OSU.

These two tms met twice in the mid-90s w/the visitor winning both The Cougars are making their 4th appearance here as they are 1-2 SU/ATS and lost their L/time here 47-20 (-4') in '09. HC Tony Levine was let go despite B2B winning seasons. DC David Gibbs will serve as the interim. On the other side, this will be Pitt's 1st time here but they are making their 7th str bowl appearance (3-3 SU/ATS). HC Chryst is 1-1 SU/ATS (but may take the Wisc job) and LY we won a 4★ Key Selection on these pages in their 30-27 (+6') upset over BG.

Pitt has been bowl elig each ssn under HC Chryst & will attempt to match its win total of LY. They got to 6 wins w/arguably their best performance of the ssn in a 35-23 (+10) upset over Miami in their performance of the ssn in a 35-23 (+10) upset over Miami in their finale. The #33 offense is QB'd by 1st yr st'r Voytik, who st'd all 12 gms but wasn't asked to do much (168 ypg) as the Panthers relied on a run gm that avg'd 251 ypg (5.3). That rush attack is led by ACC POY RB Conner, who despite being hindered with a hip inj the L/2 gms, finished w/1,675 yds (6.0) & an ACC record 24 rush td's. Leading receiver Boyd, who has 1,149 yds (16.7), is the 1st pl'r in conf hist to have 1,000+ rec yds as a frosh & soph. On D, Pitt is a bit overrated (our #53, NCAA #28) as they all'd 156 rush ypg (4.4), their most s/06. The LB's are the strength as they finished as the top 3 tklr's on the tm. The pass D has a respectable #43 ranking in top 3 tklr's on the tm. The pass D has a respectable #43 ranking in our pass eff D, all'g just 53% completions. That's a bit of a surprise to us considering their lack of depth. The #51 ST's unit features Boyd, who put up respectable numbers at both PR (10.8) & KR (28.7) while PK Blewitt missed 5 fg's incl a GW vs Duke.

QB issues plagued UH as LY's st'r O'Korn was benched in gm 5 for Ward, who st'd the ssn as a WR. Ward comp 67.8% & is coming off a car-high 360 yds in the loss to Cincy. The #64 O is run focused as their 182 rush ypg (4.8) is their highest s/'07. RB Farrow leads the way (939, 5.7, 12 td) & has 100+ in 4 of the L/5 gms incl 3 str. WR Greenberry couldn't match his 1,000 yd ssn of a yr ago, but still led UH w/756 yds (11.1) & had double the catches as #2 rec Ayers. The D is a bit overrated (our #52, NCAA #20) all'g a respectable 335 ypg. The rush D all'd 136 (3.5) ypg, their best s/02 & is led by LB Oliphant, who's had B2B ssn's of 130+ tkls. UH is an excellent #19 in our pass eff D rankings & has a superb 14-19 ratio led by ball-hawking S McDonald (5 int's). ST's could use a boost (#82) as they are -4.4 in KR & had a 36.9 net punt avg. K Bullard is solid, going 16-22 & incl 6-7 from 40+.

Six of the L/7 Armed Forces bowls featured a service academy but not TY. What it does get is a streaky Pitt tm that doesn't want to finish below .500 while we're not sure what UH was thinking by letting go of HC Levine. Pitt's ground gm should be able to wear down UH in the 2H and we'll back the Panthers with or w/o HC Chryst.

FORECAST: Pitt over Houston POWER SWEEP RATING: 1★

lowa and Tennessee have met 2 previous times although the last meeting came way back in 1987 (1-1 series). The Hawkeyes are making just their 2 appearance to this bowl (1983 Gator) while the Vols have made 5 trips with 1994 being the most recent. Iowa HC Ferentz is 6-5 SU (8-3 ATS) in bowl games incl an outstanding mark of 7-2 ATS when a dog. UT's Jones is making his 1st trip in just his 2nd yr in Knoxville although he does have a 1-2 SU (2-1 ATS) record in his days at Cincy and CMU.

Iowa has had at least 7 wins in 11 of HC Ferentz's 16 yrs here. The #56 O is led by 2nd yr st g QB Rudock, who improved his compl %, pass yds & ratio from LY. LT Scherff was named the B10 OL POY as lowa avg'd 398 ypg incl 156 rush ypg (3.9). RB Weisman has 802 (3.9) rush yds w/a tm high 14 td's. WR Smith led the tm w/559 yds while Martin-Manley had a tm leading 49 rec's. TE Duzey is also utilized frequently & Powell is the deep threat avg a tm leading 17.8 ypc. Our #36 D all'd 159 rush ypg (4.3) which was their 2nd most s/'01. LB Alston, DT's Davis & Trinca-Pasat as well as DE Ott (tm leading 12 tfl's) were all named 2nd Tm B10. Our #42 pass eff D is highlighted by Iowa's top 2 tklr's, S's Lowdermilk & Lomax. ST's has been an issue, ranking #88 as they are all'g 15.4 avg on PR's & only have a net punting avg of 33.7. K Koehn has done his job incl making 4-5 from 40+ with a long of 52.

Tenn has a chance to finish with their most wins s/'09 as shockingly they have endured 4 str losing seasons. The Vols offense is vastly underrated (our #49, NCAA #101). After st'g QB Worley was inj'd (OFY), Dobbs relieved Nathan Peterman in the 3rd series of the Bama gm & filled in admirably leading the tm to a 3-1 record in his 4 starts. True frosh RB Hurd led the running gm that avg'd 135 (3.4) ypg, but Dobbs proved that he can be a running threat as well after leading the tm in rushing in 3 of his 5 gms. 5'8" WR Howard led the tm in rec's & rec yds w/589 & also led the tm avg 11.3 ypc. The LB's were the top 2 tkl'rs for the #30 D (AJ Johnson has missed the L/2 gms and is ? here w/off-field issues). On the DL true frosh Barnett set the schl rec for most sks & tfl's by a frosh. His 10 sks were 3rd best in the SEC & he earned 2nd Tm SEC honors. CB's Coleman (tm high 4 int's) & Sutton (14 pd's) lead our #26 ranked pass eff D as they all'd just 53.8% completions & a 14-15 ratio. The #50 ST unit is +5.1 on KR's & PR Sutton avg'd 11.2. K Medley has struggled as he went just 1-6 from 40+ yds. It's good seeing the Vols back in a decent bowl as they haven't played in a Florida bowl s/the 2007 ssn, which was their last bowl win. Their fans should be excited to make the trip and we think they have the X-factor in this gm w/Dobbs at QB. The only thing that prevents us from making it a stronger play is lowa's Jekyll and Hyde play all yr and Ferentz' record as a dog in bowl gms (7-2 ATS). FORECAST: Tennessee over lowa 198

These two teams did meet twice recently as UCLA won 23-9 (-12) in '09 while Kansas St won 31-22 (-2) in '10. The Bruins will be making their 1st appearance here but this is their 4th str bowl and 3rd str under Mora (1-1 SU/ATS). KSt is making their 2nd appearance here as they were memorably uspet by Purdue led by QB Brees 37-34 (-13) in '98. HOF HC Snyder's one weakness has been in bowl action as prior to LY's 31-14 win over Michigan (-6) he was on a 1-8 ATS run (3-6 SU) in bowls.

UCLA has won 9 or more gms in 3 str seasons for the 1st time in school history. Their #14 ranked O is capable of beating you thru the air (269 ypg) or on the ground (199 ypg) as they avg'd 468 ttl ypg. QB Hundley entered the ssn as a Heisman contender & while slightly banged up, he improved his compl % from 66.8% to 70.4% and his td-int ratio from 24-9 to 21-5 while earning 2nd tm P12 honors. RB Perkins led the ground attack, hitting the century mark 5x to finish w/1,381 yds (6.0). The rec unit was led by WR Payton, who finished with a tm high 63 rec's for 896 yds while TE Duarte was the deep threat, finishing 2nd w/521 yds on just 27 rec's (19.3). The D was much better than the NCAA would have you believe (our #27 vs their #70) w/the top 2 tklr's being LB's Kendricks & Jack, who both earned 2nd tm P12. CB Adams was the lone Bruin to earn 1st tm P12 honors as UCLA finished #41 in our pass eff D rankings. Their overall ST's ranking is average (#66) but PK Fairbairn boosted their ranking as he finished 16-20 w/a long of 47

KSt will look to finish w/DD wins for the 3rd time in 4Y w/a win here. Our #43 ranked O enters avg 426 ypg, however they failed to reach that number in 6 of their L/7 gms. 2nd yr st'g QB Waters improved in his Sr ssn throwing for 3,163 yds (66.2%) w/a fine 20-6 ratio. RB's Jones (521, 4.2) & Robinson (436, 4.1) both failed to break the century mark but Waters (471, 3.4) did so twice. The recieving unit is superb led by WR Lockett, who reached 1,000+ yds for the 2nd str ssn and WR Sexton is only 45 yds away. The surprising deep threat is TE Trujillo, who avg'd 20.5 ypc. Like UCLA, the NCAA rankings don't do the KSt D justice (our #9, their #36). LB Truman led the tm in tkl's w/114 while DE Mueller finished w/a tm leading 9.5 tfl's. There are a number of solid pl'rs among our #53 ranked pass eff D headlined by Barnett, Evans & McDaniel. KSt always fields a solid ST's unit under Snyder and TY was no different. Our #8 ST's unit is led by PR Lockett who ret'd 2 for scores while avg 19.0 ypr & the PK duo of Cantele/ McCrane went 7-10 from 40+ incl 2-2 from 50+

Both tms played the L/gm of the reg ssn w/either a conf or div title on the line, and both came up short. The checklist to the left calls this gm even and with the Bruins being a slight dog, we'll back them here and again note HC Snyder's struggles in bowl gms.

FORECAST: UCLA over Kansas St POWER SWEEP RATING: 2★

These 2 met twice in the 80's w/the visitor winning each. The Pokes are making their 2nd appearance in this bowl as they beat Indiana 49-33 (-5) in '07 (Insight.com Bowl). Overall HC Gundy has led them to 9 str bowls where they are 5-3 SU/4-4 ATS. On the other side, UW is making their 1st appearance here and their 5th str overall bowl (2-2 U/3-1 ATS). This will be their 1st under HC Petersen who sported 5-2 SU/ATS bowl record at Boise (didn't coach in LY's bowl).

It looked dim heading into their Bedlam finale, but OSU pulled iff the huge upset (thanks to Stoops? cch decision) to become oowl elig for a 9th str time. QB has been an issue for ÓSU as they had to lift the RS off true frosh Rudolph (53%, 4-3 ratio) in the ${ m L}'2$ gms after Garman struggled (12-12 ratio). The Pokes enter with our #72 ranked unit, which is a far cry from Gundy's usual prolific inits. OSU avg'd just 135 rush ypg (3.6) which was their lowest b/01. RB Roland led the tm but only avg'd 3.8 ypc while Hill had he lone 100 yd rush gm & avg'd 5.2 ypc.5'7"WR Glidden led the m w/40 rec's while Shepard was the deep threat & led the Pokes 1/639 yds (18.8). OSU is better on D then the NCAA suggests (our #58, their #95) but while they've all'd 168 rush ypg (4.1), over the /6 gms that number has ballooned to 225 ypg (4.8). The Pokes nave our #77 ranked pass eff D & all'd 269 pass ypg (60.5%) with lackluster 22-11 ratio. The best unit on the team by far is the ST's, hich come in at #11. Hill has 3 return td's, Kip Smith has a fine 39.9 net punting avg & K Grogan went 19-24.

After starting off the yr 4-0 vs a weak slate, the Huskies dropped of 7 before playing their best ball of the ssn in their final 2 gms. 1st r st'r Miles joinéd a number of solid P12 QB's as he enters compl 66.7% of his passes w/a fine 16-3 ratio to lead our #54 O. While UW avg'd 390 ypg on the ssn, over the L/5 gms, they avg'd 446 ypg. RB Vashington leads the tm w/655 rush yds (5.5) & 9 td's as he's hit the entury mark in each of the L/3 gms which helped Shaq Thompson stay on the D side permanently. WR Mickens is the leading receiver while Ross is the deep threat (21.8). NT Shelton had an amazing 89 kls (16.5 tfl's) for an interior DL & he along w/FBS #2 sacker LB Kikaha 18 sks) & LB Thompson (4 D td's) all earned 1st tm P12 to lead our 24 D. The 122 (3.3) rush ypg all'd was their best s/02 and as a tm and 49 sks (most s/98). They have our #63 pass eff D but they did allow 305 pass ypg over their L/5 gms as All-Pac-12 CB Peters was kicked off the tm and they were depth shy. The Huskies have our #16 ST unit led by K Van Winkle who finished 20-23 incl 5-7 from 40+.

The checklist to the left matches the early Vegas line (UW -4') and therefore we'll lean w/the UNDER as the Huskies are 1-8 to the UNDERTY in gms where LB Thompson is solely playing on the defensive side while OSU's off has avg'd just 18 ppg in their L/6.

These two have had one prior meeting, a 24-17 Gator win all the way back in 1983. This is both teams 1st appearance in the Birmingham Bowl but both have a past at this site as EC routinely played here (UAB's home field) as a member of CUSA, while Florida played here in the first two SEC champ gms, back in 1992-93 against Alabama. It is notable that playing in the state of Alabama has not been kind to the Gators as they are 0-6 SU/ATS s/05. This is EC's 3rd str bowl and 4th under HC Ruffin McNeill (1-2 SU/ATS) while Florida is back in the post-ssn after LY's 4-8 ssn was their 1st nonbowl ssn since Steve Spurrier's 1st yr in 1990. They will be led by interim HC DJ Durkin, who has been the DC here the L/2Y

After a 6-1 start that saw the Pirates climb as high as #21 in the AP poll (key wins over VT and NC), they struggled down the stretch losing 3 of their L/5 (1-7 ATS L/8) incl a heartbreaking 32-30 (-7) loss to UČF on a Hail Mary td pass. The Pirates high powered offense (#17) is led by QB Carden, who holds every major passing record in school history & has passed for 300+ yds in 20 gms incl 350+ yds in 14. His favorite target, former walk-on SrWR Hardy, is the all time FBS leading receiver with 376 rec's, has at least 2 rec's in 48 straight gms & is the 1st EC pl'r with B2B seasons of 100+ rec's. Jr LB Bigger (134 tkls) leads an EC D (#79) that is all'g just 107 (3.3) rush ypg, which was their best performance in 20+ yrs. The #62 pass D is all'g 263 ypg (57.4%, 18-13 ratio) and CB Hawkins was a Thorpe semi-finalist w/15 PD's. The #118 ST's unit struggled in all phases as they were -3.5 in KR, -3.8 in PR and their K was 1-6 from 40+ and had 3 blk'd.

The Gators are just 10-14 in their L/24 gms which is a major reason why former HC Muschamp was shown the door. They could have had a much better ssn TY but blew 4Q leads at home vs LSU and SCar. QB issues have plagued the Gators in recent years & Driskel was supposed to be more comfortable TY after they hired OC Roper, who installed a similar type of offense that made Driskel the #1 QB recruit in the nation coming out of HS. By mid-ssn (Driskel just a 9-10 ratio). Treon Harris had taken over full-time and finished w/a 7-3 ratio but did complete just 50% of his passes. The Gators were a run heavy offense (62-38% mix) and avg'd 189 rush ypg (4.4). The #7 D is led by LB Morrison who is just 2 tkl's away from becoming the 1st Gator s/10 with 100 tkls in a ssn. Possible 1st Rd DC, Dante Fowler, has 12 tfl's and they allow just 117 rush ypg (3.2). Soph CB Hargreaves leads UF with 15 PD's as the Gators enter with our #17 pass eff D that allows just 53.7% completions (13-14 ratio).

While the Gators are the better team, this one comes down to motivation. UF is just playing out the season w/an interim HC, while ECU thrives when playing their big brothers from the ACC/SEC going 5-1 SU/6-0 ATS vs them the L/2 yrs.

FORECAST: E Carolina (+) over Florida POWER SWEEP RATING: 2★

These two have met twice before w/the Rockets winning both matchups in the early 90's. After being snubbed LY, the Rockets are back in the post-ssn for the 4th time in 5Y and sport a 1-1 SU/0-2 ATS record under Campbell (interim '11). This is their 2nd appearance here as they beat UTEP 45-13 (-3) when it was called the GMAC Bowl. Mobile has been a home away from home for the Red Wolves as they are making their 4th str appearance here (2-1 SU/ATS) but unlike each of the past appearances (interim HC in all), they will have their HC here as this will be Anderson's 1st.

The Rockets have now won at least 7 gms in 5 str ssn's and we feel that when healthy, they were the MAC's best tm TY. Their #39 offense enters avg 487 ypg incl 247 rush ypg (5.7) rush. While soph RB Hunt earned 1st tm MAC honors (1360 rush, 7.9) & has put up 100+ rush yds in 10 str gms (out 3 gms TY), much of his success is due to the MAC's best OL led by C Mancz, who despite missing 3 starts, won the Vern Smith Awd, which is given to the MAC's best player. QB Woodside did a great job (19-7 ratio) replacing Ely who was OFY in gm #2 and Woodside was even banged up in a couple gms down the 2X 1st Tm MAC Sr LB Sylvestre leads our #80 D that is all'g rush ypg (3.6) but ranks just #110 in our pass eff D all'g 282 %, 32-10). While that pass eff D ranking looks ugly, UT did at 160 pass ypg with an outstanding 43.1% completion rate /4 gms. The #49 ST's was led by K Detrner who actually had compared to prev sen's hitting "just" 17-22 (19-20 LY).

ite having their 5th HC in 5 yrs (7th if you count interims), Wolves continue to not be fazed by new schemes. They balanced offensive attack (229 rush ypg/248 pass) as QB n has a 19-7 ratio and is the 2nd leading rusher w/775 yds RB Gordon is the 15th player in school history to rush for s in a ssn (1064, 7.1, 13 td) while they have 3 rec's that have 500 vds. LB Lee leads our #104 D as he is just 4 tkls away coming the 1st Red Wolf s/Mike Morris in the early 80's to th 100+ tkls in 4 str yrs. They do get pressure on opposing they have 36 sks (9.4%) but their rush D has struggled as ver their 1st 6 gms, they all'd 115 (3.1), but in the L/6 gms seen that catapult to 269 (5.5). The (#40) pass D is all g a respectable 56.7% completions and a 18-15 ratio while the #58 ST's is +5.7 on KR, +3.5 on PR and they did have a solid 39.9 net punt on offense. Their struggles at K, however, lowered their rating edges in most categories (see checklist) and we think their powerful rush offense takes adv of a Ark St rush D that has been worn down in the 2H of the ssn as Ferguson is just 8-15 on the yr. While Ark St has familiarity w/this bowl, UT owns the positional

Here is a chart showing how difficult of a schedule each bowl team faced in opposing units. For example, Oklahoma ranks #46 in the NCAA in pass D. The Sooners however have taken on the #1 toughest slate of passing offenses including 4 of the top 20 passing teams and our pass eff D ranks them as #12. This chart is very helpful to look at bowl matchups. For instance if team A is playing Team B who has a strong rush offense, you will want to see how strong the rush defenses were that team B faced this year to get
